

Miss Edythe Davis to Marry

Plans have been announced for the wedding of Miss Edythe Davis, daughter of Mrs. W. T. Davis of Salem, and Mr. John M. Colon, Jr., son of Mrs. John M. Colon and the late Mr. Colon of Portland, which will take place Saturday afternoon, September 2 at St. Michael's and All Angels' church in Portland. Rev. Richard Flaggs Ayres will officiate at the 4 o'clock service in the chapel.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her mother, will walk down the aisle on the arm of Mr. Harold Bratsberg of Portland. Miss Jean Newman of Salem will be the honor attendant and Mr. Maurice Binford of Portland will serve as best man. Mr. Frank Billings of Portland will be the usher.

After the couple greet their guests in the foyer of the chapel they will leave for a wedding trip. They will return to Portland to reside at the Ongford apartments.

Miss Davis is a graduate of Salem schools and attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She has been working at Consolidated ticket office in Portland.

Mr. Colon attended Portland schools and the University of Oregon. He is an announcer at radio station KALE.

Mrs. Scott a Tea Hostess Tuesday

Mrs. John H. Scott was hostess for a delightful informal tea Tuesday afternoon at her Court street home in compliment to Mrs. Dean B. Cromwell of Los Angeles, who has been visiting friends and relatives in and around Salem the past month. Coach and Mrs. Cromwell are leaving today for their home where Mr. Cromwell is track coach at University of Southern California.

Thirty guests were bidden to meet Mrs. Cromwell. The hostess and honor guests received informally during the afternoon.

Mrs. John W. Harrison presided at the tea. The table was covered with an Irish linen cloth and centered with a bouquet of brown eyed susans, thistle and fern flanked by yellow candles in silver holders.

Miss Iverson Now Mrs. Meyers

SILVERTON—Miss Ellen Marie Iverson, daughter of the late H. J. Iverson and Mrs. Iverson of Silverton, and Dr. Daniel Meyers of Portland were married at a ceremony at the family home on Hill street Thursday afternoon with the Rev. Lester Fields of Woodburn officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, wore an imported Irish home-spun suit of purple, gold and lavender. Her accessories were of lizard and she wore an orchid corsage.

Little Marian Selina Meyers, daughter of the bridegroom, wearing a pink taffeta frock and a corsage of baby pink rosebuds, was flower girl.

Dr. and Mrs. Meyers will make their home in Portland at 2525 S.D. Vista after a brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Meyers attended Silverton schools and was employed as window decorator and bookkeeper at the Starr Hardware store for many years. In recent years she has been employed in Portland.

Group Meets at Engdahl Home

Ann Judson Missionary circle of the First Baptist church met at the Otto Engdahl home on Evergreen avenue on Friday night for a picnic supper.

Mrs. Fred Whiale, a returned missionary from Nigeria, West Africa, led the devotions. Miss Margaret Forsythe gave a very descriptive talk on "Christian Friendliness."

The committee in charge was Mrs. Otto Engdahl, Mrs. Stanley Morris and Mrs. Gerald Christoferson.

Luncheon for Miss Sparks

Miss Marian Parkes, bride-elect of First Sergeant Gordon Buckout, was the honor guest at a luncheon and shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cecil Tipton.

Covers were laid for Miss Parkes, Mrs. Douglas Parkes, Mrs. Martin Finden, Jr., Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. Vern Hassness, Mrs. Martin Finden, Sr., Frances Friesen, Mary Huston, Leila Finden and Mrs. Cecil Tipton.

Mrs. Ruby Mishler and daughter, Nan, returned Wednesday to Portland where they make their home. Mrs. Mishler is on the Franklin high school faculty. They have been spending the summer at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rue Drager.

Au Revoir Parties Honor Young Coeds Who Are Leaving for College

With college days just around the corner, coeds are busy shopping and attending rush parties. Several informal au revoir parties were planned this week in honor of girls leaving in the next few weeks for school.

Miss Anne and Miss Jane Huston, co-ed daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, were hostesses for a dessert supper party Wednesday night at the suburban home of their parents in compliment to Miss Jean Newman, who leaves in mid-September for Madison, Wisconsin, where she will enroll for her sophomore year at the University of Wisconsin.

The college motif was carried out in the decorations. Guests were seated at small tables centered with arrangements of chrysanthemums bearing the college letters. Schools the guests represented were Stanford, Willamette university, Oregon State college, University of Oregon and University of Wisconsin. The evening hours were spent informally.

Honoring Miss Newman were Miss Shirley Rabeneau, Miss Virginia Covert, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Sharon Burnett, Miss Doris B. Erick, Miss Lisbeth Kennedy, Miss Beverly McGilchrist, Miss Harriet Hawkins, Miss Miriam Becke, Miss Dorothy Robinson, Miss Louise Knouff, Miss Delores Nichols, Miss Bernice Elgin, Miss Phyllis Ryan, Miss Donna and Miss Gerry Shafer, Miss Anne and Miss Jane Huston.

A Supper Party
Miss Margaret Jane Emmons will entertain a group of future co-eds at a supper party tonight at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, in honor of Miss Jane Walsh and Miss Anita Hager. Miss Walsh leaves Wednesday for San Mateo, Calif., to begin her college days at San Mateo junior college. Miss Hager will enroll for her freshman year at Oregon State college next month.

The girls will enjoy an hour of swimming at the Leslie pool. Later supper will be served on the patio at the Emmons' home.

Bidden to honor Miss Walsh and Miss Hager are Miss Mary Ann Brady, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Jeanne DelMyt, Miss Marilyn Hjort, Miss Jeanne and Miss Janice Myers, Miss Roberta Paulus and Miss Corinne Wade.

Tri-Y Girls Home From Conference

Monday marked the return of five Salem Tri-Y girls home from a week spent at the annual Seabeck Conference in Washington held this year from August 21 to 28. Leaders from both Washington and Oregon attended.

Each morning, impressive worship services were held in the Cathedral of the Pines. At the daily assemblies, Dr. Samuel Jameson of the University of Oregon spoke on "Origin of Racial Antagonism," "Spirit of Nationalism" and "Origin of Racial Hostilities." Small discussion groups studied leadership techniques. Workshops were held every day on recreation and program planning, music, ceremonials and worship. During the late afternoons and evenings the girls enjoyed swimming, boating, hikes, tennis and crafts. They were entertained with a water carnival, a grasshopper, an interesting program featuring national dances, and a talk on the Legends of Seabeck. One night was devoted to cabin parties.

Salem delegates were Joan Monkman, Tri-Y president; Jean Foster, social chairman; Pat Wolcott, music chairman; Lois Burris, finance chairman, and Roberta Meyers, section officer. The girls were accompanied to Seabeck by Miss Ethel Pierson and Miss Gale Curry.

Mrs. William Hugo Shattuc and children, Jeanette, Billy and Danny, of Portland are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Sr.

Miss Jean Swift and Miss Margie Cooley are vacationing this week at Seaside where Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift are at the Episcopal vicarage.

Mrs. Clayborne Dyer returned Tuesday from Fresno, Calif., where she has been with Private Dyer the past two weeks.

Army Couple Married at Home Rites

Of interest to Salem friends of the couple is the marriage of Miss Helen Cecilia Bennett, private first class, WAC, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bennett of Springfield, Oregon, and Mr. Mason Ellsworth Bennett, private, United States army air force, son of Mrs. Solon Nelson of Simoda, West Virginia. The wedding took place on August 4 at the home of the bride's parents in Springfield. The 8 o'clock double ring service was read by Rev. Claude O'Brien before the fireplace banked with cream and white gladioluses and candles. Mrs. Brandon Southworth of Duluth, Minn., played the harp.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt which ended in a train. Her fingertip length veil of fine net was arranged in a halo of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Alma Johnson, maid of honor, wore a pale pink marquisette gown and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Miss Patricia Parkhill of Keiso, Wash., was bridesmaid. She wore pale blue net and carried pink roses. Little Janet Falk of Salem was flower girl and wore a blue net.

Aviation Cadet James Courtney Jones, Jr., of Salem was best man.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ben R. Bennett, Mrs. James C. Jones, Sr., of Salem, Mrs. Nila M. Grimes, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Charles W. Snyder, Mrs. T. Ray Lord, Mrs. Charles F. Broderick and Mrs. James F. Falk.

The bride is a graduate of Vernonia high school and took post graduate work at Springfield high school. She later attended the University of Oregon. She was employed as a laboratory technician at Oregon Pulp and Paper company here before enlisting in the service in September, 1943.

The groom attended schools in Simoda, West Virginia, and was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in Washington, DC, before entering the service.

After a trip to the Oregon beaches the couple left for California when Mrs. Bennett is stationed at Hammer field and her husband at Lemore field.

Rebekahs Not to Meet Labor Day

Miss Lora Callison presided at Rebekah lodge Monday night. The Good of the Order chairman, Mrs. George Edwards, had charge of the program. Mrs. Merlin Ready was presented with a jewel pin from her officers during her term as Noble Grand and Mrs. Lottie McAdams received the evening prize. There will not be a meeting next Monday owing to Labor day holiday.
