

Powerhouse 11 For Tulsa U Expected Again

(AP Features)
TULSA, Okla. — Henry Frnka, coaching wizard who took the University of Tulsa out of the football sticks into the big time in two years, is shooting for the moon this fall. One look at the powerhouse squad taking shape under Henry's capable direction convinces the experts that a third straight undefeated season and the pick of the bowl bids are not out of Tulsa's reach.

Frnka, after two consecutive trips to the Sugar Bowl, knows the opposition will be making a special effort to knock him off this year. But it's hard to be pessimistic about Henry. His sensational 4-F gang roared through 1943, losing only a 20-18 thriller to Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl and it returned almost intact to be blended with a wealth of new material. Frnka's new material includes some top prep school stars.

The flashy newcomers are headed by tailback Bobby Jack Stuart of Tulsa, Oklahoma's well publicized 1943 prep school star. Whitman '11' On the Skids

Woes Aplenty Catch Up With 'Cat Foe'

WALLA WALLA, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Whitman's football hopes for the opening game with Willamette Sept. 9 took a severe drop today when Coach Ben Dobbs reported a half dozen men he has been counting on are on the shelf, at least five of them for the first game.

Scholastic difficulty took out Phil Sax, Darrell Hull, Dave Moskowitz and Keller Ellis, all being groomed for guard and tackle positions, and they probably will not be allowed to rejoin the squad this season.

An injured finger has forced out Ben Weeks, one of the two top centers, and Mumps probably will cause Gareth Olson, first-string fullback and one of the two lettermen from 1943, to miss the first tilt.

On the brighter side, one of the best prospects this season joined the team this week. He is Chester Lathrop, former all-conference end at Grants Pass, Ore., high school who may be tried out in a backfield spot.

Pekar, Hauk In Links Tie

Shooting a pair of par rounds, 36 blows apiece, Millard Pekar and Lt. Harold Hauk yesterday deadlocked for top place in the Men's club Contract tournament at Salem golf course by accumulating 100 points each. Forty points were scored for "called" eagles, 20 for birdies, 10 for pars and five for bogies. Ted Chambers finished close behind with 95 points after carding a 37 and Bud Waterman, with 90 points gleened from his 37 round, was next.

Twenty-one linksmen participated in the outing.

Cowboys Seek Crown Again

PENDLETON, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Competitors for Sam Jackson trophy, signifying the world's cowboy championship, will include three two-time winners, the Pendleton round-up arena director said today. Cowboys who will attempt to win the $5000 sterling silver award for the third time—and permanent possession—are Evertt Bowman, Ike Rude and Bill McMacken, said E. N. Boylen.

Steer roping, calf roping and bulldogging events also will feature these toponath riders: Carl Arnold, Ing Merritt, Johnny McEntire, Fred Worey, E. Bradley, John Bowman, Toots Mansfield, Ace Soward, Adbury Schell, Oren Fore, Brexy Cox, Homer Pettigrew, Andy Jauracu, Bush Sorrels, Dee Hinton and Frank Van Meter.

Big-time bronc riders who will enter the world championship contest include (Nick Knight, 1940 round-up winner; Sonbey Tureman, 1941 amateur bucking winner; Turk Greenough, husband of Sally Rand and 1938 winner; Jerry Ambler, Johnny Tubbs, Van Meter, George Nelson, Mitch Owens, Buster Ivory and McMacken, 1937 winner.

Dodgers Sign Up Mt. Angel-Woodburn Ace "Red" Bielemeier

Chalk up another Oregon baseball headed for Ebets Field, Brooklyn, along with Willemette's Bill Hanusky and Oregon's Barney Koch.

This time it's 17-year-old Joe "Red" Bielemeier of Mt. Angel, the carrot-topped righthander who first set the Duration league afire last spring for the Preps and then followed through with a sparkling summer at the pitching helm of Woodburn's potent American Legion Junior baseball team.

Dodger Scout Tom Downey, now in town while operating the baseball tryout camp at Silverton this week, announced last night he had signed Bielemeier to a contract and predicted a bright future for the fire-baller in the diamond sport. Bielemeier will be 3 years old next June.

The red but cool-headed slinger who first gained the state's baseball spotlight a year ago when he was chosen the most valuable player in the American Legion Junior tournament at Woodburn will not report to a Brooklyn farm club this season, stated Downey. He will first finish school at Mt. Angel and will probably be started out with the Newport News, Va., club of the class B Piedmont league next season.

Although Bielemeier's mound feats were turned in on other diamonds around the valley mostly, he is easily remembered in Salem. The first time he visited Waters park this summer he pitched a no-run no-hit victory in downing the Capital Post No. 9 Legion team, 6-0. Only last Sunday he returned to the park as a member of the Silverton Red Sox to beat the Oregon State Pen-tentary Grays, 6-5. He has been turning out regularly during the Silverton tryout camp this week along with over 50 other aspirants. Scout Downey has been watching the progress of the righthander all summer, personally and through the eyes of his high school and Junior Legion coaches, Paul Relling and Pete DeGuitre.

In pitching the Preps to the Duration league diamond championship last spring, Bielemeier set a new low strikeout record. He averaged nearly 15 whiffs per cent.

Helser Notches 20th Victory, A Four Hitter

PORTLAND, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Big Roy Helser racked up his 20th victory of the season tonight as he turned back the San Diego Padres, 5-1, in a Pacific Coast league baseball game. The pitcher allowed only four hits and coasted in behind the nine-hit attack the Beavers laid down against Frankie Dasso, the league's strikeout king.

In coping their third game in a row from the Padres and fourth in a row altogether, the Beavers jumped on Dasso for two runs in the first inning. San Diego got the loner in the fourth and Portland came through with two more in the fifth. Six Padre errors helped the winners.

The victory, coupled with the Los Angeles Angels' loss to Oakland, shoved the second-place Beavers to within eight and a half games of first place.

Browns' Lead Slashed to 2 As Tigers Win

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The league leading St. Louis Browns' margin over the second place New York Yankees was cut to two games tonight when Dizzy Trout won his 23rd game of the season as the Detroit Tigers defeated St. Louis 4-3.

Willis Hudlin, making his first appearance since the Browns obtained him from Little Rock, lost in the relief roll. It was Trout's ninth straight victory.

With the score tied 3-3 Trout opened the ninth with a single, but was forced at second when Roger Cramer attempted to bunt. Cramer took second as Eddie Maya grounded out to George McQuinn and scored on Pinky Higgins' single to right.

Yankees Grab Pair to Climb

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The New York Yankees cut a game and a half off the lead of the American league leading St. Louis Browns today, by sweeping a doubleheader from the Washington Senators 9-4 and 4-3. The twin victories moved the Yankees to within two games from the Browns.

The veteran Frankie Crosetti was the hero of the nightcap, rifling a home run with two out in the ninth to give young Mel Queen, who went the route for the Yanks, his third victory. The Yanks had been kept in the game by Nick Etten's two-run homer in the second inning, his 15th, off the Venezuelan hurler, Alejandro Carrasquel.
