Eastburn Place At Aumsville Sold to Bethels

AUMSVILLE—Mrs. Mary Eastburn has sold the house in which she and her sister, Mrs. Vaughn have been living for some time to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bethel of North Santiam. Mrs. Eastburn and Mrs. Vaughn have moved to a cottage built on lots north of the old residence.

The Bethel family will not occupy the house this winter but have rented it to Mr. and Mrs. Coats and family. Coats will drive one of the school buses this year.

The Wesleyan Methodist parsonage here was recently given a coat of white paint, which adds much to the appearance of the building. Rev. E. M. Peabody is the pastor of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ogle who recently purchased a small house here have just finished giving it a coat of white paint, and have been doing other repairs.

Oklahoma Couple Gervais Visitors

GERVAIS—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shuter of Kingfisher, Oklahoma, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth last week. Mr. Shuter is a lawyer and was county judge at Kingfisher when Mr. Wadsworth was commissioner there more than 25 years ago.

The Shuters have visited all parts of the United States but this was their first visit to the Willamette valley. They were much impressed with this section except for the hot weather of last week which they said was like Oklahoma.

On a trip to Silver Creek Falls the Shuters said nothing in all their travels had impressed them more than the facilities for handling visitors and they especially liked the large cook stoves and the hot and cold water system and said they were going to try to have it duplicated in their home state.

Scio Considers Bus Application

SCIO, Sept. 18—Application of the East Side Bus Line for a franchise to operate a line through Scio on a route between Lebanon and Portland will be considered at a special meeting of the Scio city council Wednesday night, Sept. 20, according to Mayor J. A. Withers. Councilmen and other Scio business men interviewed expressed approval of the proposal, as Scio has never been directly served by a railroad or bus line. The proposed route would operate north through Stayton, Silverton and Molalla to Oregon City with a thrice-daily schedule for both passengers and small freight, decreasing the time service from days to hours.

The public utilities commission will hold a hearing on the proposal at Salem Sept. 26.
