WOODBURN—Coach "Jiggs" Burnett's defending Duration league champion Woodburn Bulldogs are set to open their season here Friday afternoon against the Newberg Tigers, one of the top teams in the state last year. The tilt is slated for 7:30 p. m.

Woodburn will be the underdog in the annual clash. Last year the Tigers notched a 40-0 triumph over Woodburn when red-headed Dick Twenge, one of the best backs in the state, ran wild against the locals. Twenge will be back this season to spearhead a veteran team.

Burnett has announced the Bulldog starting lineup as follows: Ends—Mason and English; tackles—Bill Austin and Uryanek; guards—Tremain and Coons; center—Mills. The backfield boasts Harold McKee at quarterback, Babe Reed at full, Curly Mattinson at right half and Al "Superman" Zuber at left half. A week from Friday the Bulldogs open their Duration league schedule against Chemawa here.

Piece of Husky Forward Wall

BILL MCGOVERN, one of the youngest players ever to see action in the Rose Bowl, is a certain starter at right tackle for the Washington Huskies against Willamette's Navycats at Seattle Saturday. McGovern, 18, is six feet tall and weighs 295 pounds. He hails from Tacoma, and is one big reason why the Huskies will outweigh the 'Cats Saturday.

Adams' Homer, Single Bring Liska Victory

Catcher Raps Home Three of Four Runs

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—Eddie Adams batted in three runs with a homer and a single as Portland took the first game of the Governor's Cup playoff series tonight from Los Angeles, Pacific coast league champion. The score was 4 to 2.

Ad Liska, veteran submarine ball specialist, was nicked for nine hits, but he was effective in the pinch. Ray Prim, Los Angeles southpaw, was relieved by Pancho Comellas in the eighth although allowing the Beavers only seven hits.

Portland scored twice in the second inning when Adams cracked his homer over the left field fence with one aboard. They made it 3-0 in the seventh before giving up runs in the seventh and eighth.

The series will be resumed tomorrow night with the team that wins four out of seven games facing the winner of the Oakland-San Francisco series.

Huskies to Outweigh 'Cats in Saturday Mix

Willamette's Navycats will hold 'em about even in the experience department, but the Washington Huskies, derived from a much larger material stock, will outstep Coach Duke Trotter's tough-downers 3 1/2 pounds per inch in the forward wall and 20 1/2 per in the backfield when they square off in Seattle Saturday. Which is another reason why the Missionary-conquering 'Cats will be definite underdogs in the first of the two meetings with the Rose Bowl-squeezed Welch clan.

According to respective lineup rosters, both sides will field six men in the starting line-up who have had at least a little collegiate experience before this semester. Willamette has: five linemen and one back—Marv Goodman, Bill Blase, Jerry Wolfsehr, Ken Mantle, Cal Wardrop and Don Roehon. The Huskies have four linemen and two backs—Gordy Berlin, Jim McCurdy, Bill McGovern, Harry Rice and Keith DeCoursey and Bob Gilmore.

Berlin, a regular last year, spearheads the 194 1/2-pound average Husky line with his 215. Guards Bob Levenhagen, 190, and Jim McCurdy, 195; tackles Bill McGovern, 295, and Harry Rice, 205, and ends Lou Bandevich, 180, and Henry Meluskey, 171, flank the ponderous pivoteer on each side. Quarterback Dick Ottele anchors the backfield with 200 pounds. Halfbacks Dick Hultgren and Bob Gilmore got at 195 and 185, respectively. Fullback Keith DeCoursey booms with 187 pounds.

The Navycats will field a line which will average 180—Goodman 190, Bob Ward 180, Blase 190, Wolfsehr 200, Walt Jacobs 185, Mantle 183, and Ward-rop 175. The 20-pound lighter backfield starts with 195-pound Floyd Simmons at full, Roehon, 170, and Doug McVeer, 150, at halves and Connie Pavlock, 170, at quarter. Saturday, the 'Cat secondary will jump 25 pounds for the blocker with the bum ankle hefts 175.

The 'Cats started tapering work yesterday with a lengthy scrimmage, the first eleven against the second. In it, Coach Trotter found that Right Halfbacks Ocee Johnson and Win Gallagher would probably be unable to play Saturday. Johnson's bum ankle failed to hold up under the workout and Gallagher didn't don a suit. Tackle Jerry Wolfsehr and Guard Dave Loftis were slightly banged up in the scrum but will likely be okay Saturday.

Trout's 25th Success Nets 8 to 2 Victory

Champs Now 4 Tilts In Arrears Leaders

DETROIT, Sept. 20 (AP)—Hammering out a dozen hits, all but one of them figuring in the scoring, the Detroit Tigers today handed the New York Yankees their fifth straight loss, 8 to 2, to shove the Yanks four games off the American league race and virtually another New York's pennant hopes.

Paul "Dizzy" Trout, scoring his 25th pitching victory against a dozen defeats, scattered seven Yankee hits in chalking up his sixth straight victory over the champions this season.

Mel Queen, rookie brought up from Newark by the champions, was the losing hurler and was finally replaced by Rookie Floyd Bevens in the 8-run Detroit eighth inning.

"Colie" watched the Corvallis Spartans try to stop the halfback last week as he led the Teddies to that 13-0 win over the Spartans and decided, "He's just like his brothers—tough to stop."

And when and if OSC returns to footballing next fall, three guesses where Gene will go for his college education. . . . Beaver Baseball Coach Coleman, cousin to Ross, the founder of Salem's Junior baseball league, also expressed desires to learn full details of the town's junior circuit. Agreeing with those who tab it as one of the finest things ever to happen here, Colie envisions a similar baseball summer for Corvallis next time with possibly an American Legion Junior nine to boot. He plans working on it personally. . . . In answer to numerous questions involving Coleman and a second quarter play in the Saturday Willamette-Whitman game, the gent who has made a habit of tootin' 'em down in the Rose Bowl admitted he didn't see the entire play so must've missed it. . . . Happened when Whitman Halfback Lee Hoyer, standing deep in his own end zone for a punt, momentarily fumbled the pass from center and in to doing stepped beyond the zone. An automatic safety and two points for Willamette, but Colie, in trying to get out of the way of the fumbling halfback, didn't see his step out. . . . Made little difference in the outcome, for a few plays later Don Roehon hit Marv Goodman in that same end zone to start the 'Cats on their 26-point spree. . . . There would have really been heck to pay had Hoyer collided with Coleman on the fumbled play, for the count was 0-0 at the time. . . .

Had What it Took Schmidt Gone, Not Forgotten

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
 DALLAS, Sept. 20. (AP)—The booming voice of tart-tongued Francis Schmidt has been stillied by death but the memory of his unmatched wit and colorful antics linger on among southwestern sport followers.

Schmidt, who died at Spokane, Wash., last night, was the most talked-about coach this section ever knew. Stories of his doings and sayings are legend, quoted every time as many as two football fans get together.

He was a great student of the game, forever haunting the gridirons—sandlot, high school and college—for new ideas. He often

Walters Hurls 22nd Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20 (AP)—Bucky Walters won his 22nd victory of the season tonight as the Cincinnati Reds annexed the second game of a two-night doubleheader from the Phils 6-4. The Phils took the opener 3-2 as Charley Schanz outlasted Ed Heusser in a pitching duel for his 13th victory and the Phils' sixth straight game.

Walters was in trouble frequently but weathered the storm and outlasted three Phillies hurlers. Eddie Miller's homer which pushed across three runs in the fourth gave the Reds the winning margin.

Boudreau Hot For Hit Title

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20 (AP)—His ball club snapped like a worn-out rubber band when the pennant chase warmed up but Lou Boudreau is keeping his own record hot by making a strong bid for the American league batting championship.

The 27-year-old manager of the Indians has a .321 average, only seven points off the .323 pace set by Pete Fox, Boston Red Sox hitter, despite the cares of handling a fifth place team that came apart just when it appeared a shoo-in for the pennant.

O'Neill Cans 'Knoll' Dodo

The second one to be scored on the course in a week, Bill O'Neill canned his tee shot on the 113-yard No. 3 hole at Oak Knoll golf course Tuesday evening. He used a 7-iron to notch his first "ace" and was playing with Barney Siller, Deimer Gwynn and Bob Ashby when it happened. Last week Art W. Foglesong canned his tee shot on the same hole.

Bulldogs Appear to Be Biteless Outfit

Ed J. Ryan, replacing John Welbes as grid boss at Albany high this semester, sends in the following thumbnail on his Bulldog band for '41: Practice started September 11; fifty turned out, mostly freshmen and sophomores; seven lettermen in the pack, namely, Zaronis, Erb, Kennel, Hassman, Ohling, Wilkins and Allen; system to be used still doubtful; prospects point to a light team for certain; Clyde Martin, head hoop coach is to be No. 1 lieutenant, and last semester the Bulldogs won two, tied as many and dropped three.

Ryan, incidentally, hails from Colorado State college where he played football and basketball. He's now seeking his master's degree at the U of Oregon.

Speaking of coaches, Robert L. Roe, who's to assist Guy "Pop" DeLay with the Silverton footballers this fall and will be headman of the Silver Fox hoopsters come winter, hails from Rosalia, Wash., high in the eastern part of that state, but far as we've found out he's not related to "Inky" Boe, the former Oregon backfielder. And from the looks of the prospective Silverton football roster working out under DeLay and Boe, maybe Woodburn's "Jiggs" Burnett wasn't merely jabbering when he predicted the Foxes as the team to beat in Duration loop touchdowning this time. The Silvertons have more returning lettermen than any other member, and returning lettermen, quite often mean the difference between finishing first finishing after the rest.

The Best 'Till Better One Comes Along

Add to "major league" service football eleven this time, and perhaps the very best GI outfit in the country—El Toro Marines of Santa Ana Air Base, Calif. Major Paul Schissler's 4th Air Force terrifies or the Glenn Bodes, Billy Sewell & Co. 2nd Air Force "Superbombers" might give 'em an argument on the "best" handle, but looksee what the El Toros have to toss at the enemy: First, there's Coach Dick Hanley, formerly of Northwestern (now a marine lieutenant colonel) and Lt. Cliff Battles, once one of the best backfielders in the nation, to handle the mentoring. Then in rapid order, players such as Bob Dove, formerly of Notre Dame; Wee Willie Wilkin, the 265-pounder who was All-American pro for the Washington Redskins; Bob McLeod, Dartmouth's All-America of a few seasons back; Chuck Fennelbeck of UCLA and national pro loop fame; Dick Evans, U of Iowa great; Don Griffin, Illinois whiz-kid two years ago and 14 others who were first-stringers for respective intercollegiate elevens before entering the service.

Maybe not the best in the land, but with talent such as that they can certainly claim the honor until whipped by somebody.

Come to think of it, if the El Toros are typical of marine corps elevens this fall, Coach Duke Trotter & Co. had best come up with the measles or something week from Saturday. They play the Klamath Falls marines that day.

Major League Troupes to Tour Overseas Camps After Series

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Five troupes of major league baseball stars will head overseas shortly after the world series to entertain soldiers in front line battle areas under the auspices of the USO camp shows. The tours will be sponsored by the army special services division in co-operation with the American and National leagues.

Eleven active players and six managers, including Mel Ott, playing pilot of the New York Giants, will be included on the roster of volunteers who will visit the five theatres of war on tours lasting from two to three months. Four former players, two umpires and five baseball writers also have agreed to make the overseas jaunt for entertainment purposes.

Leo Durocher of the Dodgers, Freddy Fitzsimmons of the Phillies, Frankie Frisch of the Pirates, Luke Sewell of the Browns, Steve O'Neill of the Tigers and Ott will give the GI's the inside on master minding that goes on behind the big league scenes.

It is emphasized that the players will not necessarily play ball but will entertain the troops with story telling, answering questions and autographing baseballs in shows to be conducted by the writers. Films of the 144 world series will be shown with a running commentary by the players.

Bombers Prep For Oak '11

SEATTLE, Sept. 20 (AP)—Milt Popovich, Seattle bomber fullback who pulled up with a bad leg in the Bombers last game, will be back in the lineup Friday night when the Bombers meet the Oakland Hornets of the American professional football league, the club announced tonight.

Coach Dutch Clark, still looking for a couple of pass-receiving ends, said the Bombers were "rounding into shape" and would win the Friday night game after two losses at home. Chief threats of the Oaks are a pair of halfbacks—Gene Provost, negro scabcat from Sacramento junior college, and Jerry Dowd, former St. Mary's and Cleveland Rams back.

Besides Popovich the Bombers attack again will center around Dean McAdams, quarter; George Karamatic and Morrie Kohler, halfbacks.

The temperature in the healthy human adult body averages from 98.4 to 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit.

OPA Reveals Shell Scalping

PORTLAND (Special)—Definite attempts to "sooze" the public by exorbitant charges for shotgun shells have been reported to the district OPA price division for investigation, Ralph Westering, price specialist, revealed today. Westering said that some purchasers have paid as high as $5 for a box of 25 12-gauge shotgun shells which should have cost no more than the ceiling price of $1.33 a box, or 7 cents per shell. The 20-30 caliber shells for $1.15 a box, or 11 cents a shell, and the 20-30 caliber shells for $1.50 a box, or 15 cents a shell. Some persons have been getting as high as $1 a shell for these two calibers, Westering indicated.

Keeping American Homes Intact

We're great home lovers in our town. Family folk—like most Americans. So when war came, and the boys left in uniform, and the girls went into war plants, folks began to shake their heads.

Take Ben Ryder's family, for instance—all doing something different. Young Ben's in the Navy, and his sister's in the airplane plant. Ben's foreman at the tool shop, and Ma spends her days at the Canteen.

A broken home? Don't you believe it! When Ben relaxes with his evening glass of beer, and
