Relative of Mt. Angel Family Ends 60 Years in Convent

MT. ANGEL—One of Mt. Angel's pioneers, Rev. Mother Gaudentia Schwab, of the Sisters of Charity Providence of Spokane, Wash., celebrated the 60th anniversary of her religious profession last Thursday, September 21. Attending the pontifical high mass in the Sacred Heart hospital chapel at which Mother Gaudentia and four other jubilarians renewed their vows were three of her nieces from Mt. Angel, Mrs. F. J. Schwab, Mrs. Edward Hammer and Mrs. L. A. LeDoux.

The Most Rev. Bishop Charles D. White was celebrant of the mass and received the renewal of the vows.

Mother Gaudentia has visited with her brother, the late Fred Schwab sr., often and is a familiar figure to Mt. Angel people. Born in Dunlap, Iowa, she came to Mt. Angel with her parents and brothers and sisters in 1881. The family came by immigrant train as far as San Francisco and from thence by boat to Oregon. She joined the Sisters of Providence at Vancouver, Wash., a year later and after pronouncement of her vows was stationed at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

Her rise was rapid and she was superior successively of most of the hospitals of the Providence Sisters in the northwest until she was appointed provincial superior of the 14 religious houses in Montana, Idaho and eastern Washington with headquarters in Sacred Heart hospital, Spokane. She held the position for six years and was then transferred to Columbus hospital at Great Falls, Mont.

After years of supervising, the venerable veteran was relieved of her responsibilities and since 1938 is assistant superior of Sacred Heart hospital. The 80-year-old nun is still very active and visited with relatives here within the last year.

Woodburn Clinic Is Scheduled

WOODBURN — Mrs. Kenneth McGrath, chairman of the welfare committee, is making arrangements for the first children's clinic of the school year, to be held all day Tuesday, October 10, at the Lincoln grade school, with the Marion county health officer, Dr. William Stone, and the county nurse, Miss M. Darby, in charge.

The morning hours, 9:30 to 11:30 are assigned to the examination of infants and pre-school children. In the afternoon first graders, all new pupils, and those that have developed some acute need will receive routine physical examinations, vaccination and immunization.

The county officers will be assisted by Mrs. McGrath and a committee of mothers to be appointed and announced later.

Plan Year's Work For Liberty Club

LIBERTY—The officers of the Liberty Woman's club met Thursday at the S. B. Davidson home to plan the club's work for the year. Officers are Mrs. S. E. Davidson, president; Mrs. Mason Bishop, vice-president; Mrs. John Dasch, secretary.

The club's first meeting was scheduled for Thursday, October 5, starting with a desert luncheon at 1 p. m. The three officers will be hostesses at the Bishop home for the occasion.

The home extension program will be followed for the year, although not started until the second meeting.

"What do you mean, hypochondriac... I can worry, can't I?" demands Les Williams

RIGHT OFF THE BAT we want to make it clear there is nothing wrong with Les. He bolts his lunch, and sometimes talks to himself, but he's just a worrier. Not about himself... but the health of the cars he works on.

As a Gilmore Independent Dealer, he's become a Friction-Pruf Specialist and Les maintains a car's life as good as the lubricant it's given. So he plies top-quality Gilmore lubricants with the thoroughness and care of a surgeon doing a touchy brain operation.

You'll find a lot of worrying specialists among Gilmore Independent Dealers. And you'll find they really know their business... because they like cars. They're experts... just try them!
