Scholarship Awarded to Salem Girl

First recipient of the new Nancy Black Wallace scholarship is Miss Geraldine Schmoker, 18-year-old graduate of Salem high school, who this week was awarded full tuition for four years in Willamette university's college of music.

A violinist with an impressive record despite her youth, Miss Schmoker was chosen for the new award from competitors through the northwest and California. Selection was based on tryouts on the campus, on musicianship, poise, personality and scholastic record. In scholarship, she has a record that rivals her musical achievement, having graduated last June as one of the two top-ranking students of Salem high school.

The new scholarship was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace of Salem and his sister, Mrs. William S. Lambie of Scarborough, N.Y., in honor of Mr. Wallace's mother. In learning of Miss Schmoker's selection, Wallace expressed himself as well satisfied with the award, since he had followed the young violinist's musical career for years in Salem and knew of her qualifications.

Miss Schmoker has studied violin for eight years with Mary Schmitt Duncan, of the Willamette faculty, and has studied piano for four years. She has played in the first violin section of the Salem Philharmonic Symphony and other orchestras and participated in music festivals and contests winning top ratings.

In 1943 she won the Iva Turner Memorial contest sponsored by the Oregon Music Teachers' association for the Salem district. In 1942 she won the privilege of going on to the regional-national festival of the National Vocal, Band and Orchestra association. There she won first division superior rating.

At Salem high school, Miss Schmoker was a member of the Honor society, vice president of the Crescendo club, vice president of the Spanish club, member of the Civics club and Pep club and reporter on the Clarion.

The young couple have both been students at Willamette university and Mrs. Donfrio plans to re-enter as a junior next semester. In the meantime she is living in Los Angeles to be near her husband, who is stationed at Camp Pendleton.

Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Mrs. Eugene Halley have returned from a several days stay at the Halley summer home at Braemar Beach.

Miss Gilles Will Head PEP Club

Plans are being made for the first meeting of the PEP Teachers' club which will be held at Schneider's Coffee Shop on Wednesday night, October 4 at 8 o'clock. Hostesses are Miss Mathilda Gilles and Mrs. Lucille Kennedy. Those planning to attend must notify the county school superintendent's office, phone 6783, not later than Monday, October 2. All new teachers teaching in rural schools near Salem are invited to attend.

The PEP club was organized at the suggestion of the late Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson as a study club for elementary teachers. Its first meeting was held on November 19, 1929, 15 years ago, at the Liberty school. At this time the first officers were elected who were: Mrs. Grace Sehon, president; Frank Ingham, vice-president, and Mrs. Cecil Wiggins, secretary-treasurer. Salem Heights school was selected as the meeting place for the first year. The name was suggested by Mrs. Emily Van Santen and means Progressive Educational Pedagogues.

One of the first pieces of work done by this group was the booklet printed of story and reasoning problems to be used in Marion county schools in correlation with textbooks. Problems were written about items and prices within Marion county, and with an interesting and an understanding background for boys and girls of our county. Two years were spent on work in art with oil painting, pottery, and pastel work. One year professional books were read and discussed. Another year was spent on the study of the testing program in the county. Now the club has a social and recreational program.

Several charter members still remain in the club including Mrs. Elsie Carpenter, Mrs. Agnes Booth, Mrs. Emily Van Santen, and Mrs. Grace Sehon.

Officers for the coming year are Miss Mathilda Gilles, president; Mrs. Lucille Kennedy, vice-president; Mrs. Florence Booth, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Barbara Lovick, reporter.
