Hoagland Gets Bronze Star

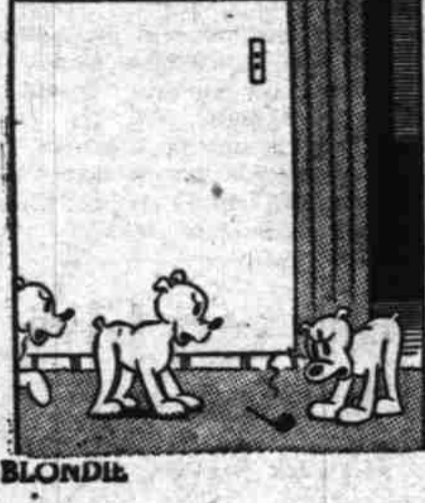

SILVERTON—Capt. Charles E. Hoagland of Silverton, was awarded the newly-authorized bronze star for heroic service in connection with military operations against the enemy during the battle for Attu by Maj. Gen. A. V. Arnold of the Seventh Infantry division, in a ceremony held recently at a central Pacific base.

Hoagland, member of an infantry assault unit, received the decoration in recognition of his outstanding actions in the grueling three-week battle for Attu, tip of the fog-bound Aleutian chain, a year ago.

A veteran of two campaigns in the Pacific war, Capt. Hoagland participated with the Seventh division in the recent assault and capture of Kwajalein atoll, center of Jap held Marshall islands.

In addition to the bronze star, Hoagland wears the Asiatic-Pacific theatre ribbon with two battle stars, the national defense ribbon, and the combat infantryman's badge.

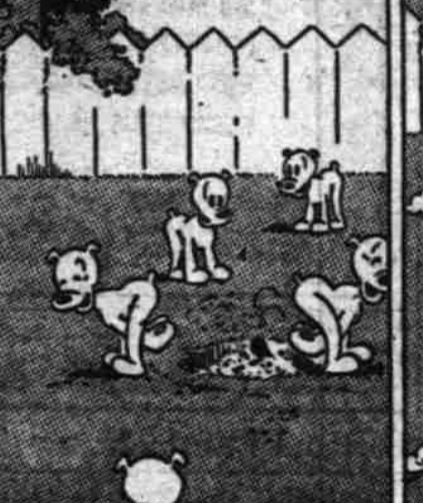

He is the son of Mrs. Lou B. Hoagland, 411 Brooks street, Silverton.
