It's going away for many and visiting for others. Schools far away are claiming many of the younger set and young matrons and their children are traveling to be near their husbands.

Miss Virginia Steed, daughter of Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, is entraining Monday for Boston where she will attend the Bouve' Boston School of Physical Education for two years where she will study physical therapy. Miss Steed received her bachelor of science degree from Oregon State college in June. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Mrs. George LaVatta and daughter, Georgi Sue, are leaving Monday night on the Portland Rose for Pocatello, Idaho, where they will visit with Georgi Sue's great grandmother, Mrs. Matthew LaVatta, and with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin LaVatta. They and her daughter will also visit in Boise with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schiberg, before returning home in a month.

Mrs. Stuart Lancefield will entrain Tuesday for San Diego where she will spend several weeks with Lt. (jg) Lancefield, United States navy. She will also stop in San Francisco for several days.

Mrs. Alex DeSchweinitz and son, Allan, are leaving Tuesday by train for Muskogee, Oklahoma, to join Lt. DeSchweinitz, who is stationed at nearby Camp Gruber. They have been living with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Harry H. Belt.

Leave for the South

Mrs. F. Ivan Brown will leave Thursday for San Francisco for a visit with her daughter, Carolyn, a yeoman second class in the WAVES, who is stationed at Treasure Island. While in the bay city Mrs. Brown will be registered at the Hotel California and Sir Francis Drake. She and her daughter expect to attend the opera season during her stay.

Miss Anne Huston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, is leaving Tuesday for Palo Alto, Calif., where she will enter her sophomore year at Leland Stanford. She will spend the remainder of the week after her arrival in Santa Cruz with one of her Stanford classmates, Miss Patricia Pagen.

House guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley is the latter's sister, Miss L. A. DeBeck of San Francisco. She expects to be in the north for six weeks and during her stay the Livesleys and Miss DeBeck will visit with friends and relatives in British Columbia.

Mrs. H. H. Marsden is expected to arrive Monday from Los Angeles to spend a month with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry and her grandsons, Stephen, David and Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Hobbs are in eastern Oregon this week on a hunting trip. They are registered at Ochoco Inn at Prineville.

Expected today from Portland to spend several days are Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, jr., and daughter, Judith. They will be guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, sr., and Mrs. Louise Robertson.

They'll Talk It Over...

Claiming the attention of many Salem women this week will be the tea meetings for women leaders and captains of the United or Chest drive on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at the home of Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers on North 13th street. Miss Dorathea Steusloff, chairman of the women's division, will assist Mrs. Chambers during the afternoons.

The tea meetings will begin at 2:15 o'clock with the South Salem women gathering on Tuesday and the North Salem women on Wednesday. Miss Steusloff will give final instructions which the captains will give to their several hundred solicitors. The work kits will also be distributed. Mr. E. Burr Miller, campaign chairman, and Mr. Loyal Warner, associate chairman, will speak to the women workers.

Pouring at the tea hour on Tuesday will be Mrs. Stanley Krueger and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, sr. Assisting will be Mrs. William L. Phillips and Mrs. Irl McSherry. On Wednesday Mrs. Claude Glenn and Mrs. Lewis Griffith will pour and Mrs. Earl Barham, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny will assist.

Miss Steusloff and Mrs. Chambers have arranged an effective tea table for the occasion. The table will be covered with a pink organza cloth and centered with an epergne filled with rubrum lilies, grapes and limes.

Mailing packages early is a "must do" for Mrs. John Beakey (center), Beverly and Jack Beakey, and Mrs. H. G. Maison. Captain Beakey will receive gifts at the hospital, where he is confined with wounds received during the invasion of France. Lt. Col. Maison, was among the first to go to the South Pacific and is still in combat duty with the 41st. (Kennell-Ellis).

They Set the Day...

The date has been set for the wedding of Miss Dorothy May Mott and Midshipman Benjamin Murray Whisenand. Unless the bridegroom's navy orders are changed the wedding will be on Sunday, October 29 at the country home of the bride-elect's parents, Congressman and Mrs. James W. Mott. The young navy man, who is attending midshipman school at Notre Dame, will receive his ensign's commission the end of the month. He then expects to come directly to the coast by plane.

The morning ceremony will be read in the attractive living room in the Mott home at 10 o'clock by Rev. George H. Swift, rector at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The wedding breakfast reception will immediately follow the nuptials.

Miss Mott has asked her older sister, Mrs. John Sullivan (Frances Ann Mott) to be her matron of honor. Miss Edith Moxley, the bride-elect's Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sister, will be her bridesmaid. Mr. Whisenand will select his best man after his arrival. Congressman Mott will give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Mott is a graduate of Salem high school and attended schools in Washington, DC. She then attended the University of Oregon. Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Whisenand of Bend, also attended the University of Oregon. His fraternity is Delta Tau Delta. He took his navy V-12 training at Willamette university. The young couple's engagement was announced last March.

Three young matrons make home-cooked gifts for their husbands. Mrs. Douglas Chambers (left) will send packages to Capt. Chambers in France, Mrs. Roger Quackenbush and Mrs. Robert Browne will mail theirs to Lt. Quackenbush and Lt. Brownell in the South Pacific. (Kennell-Ellis).

Arranged for a Visitor

Miss Sybil Spears has invited guests to a dessert supper party Monday night at the Chemeketa street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears.

The affair is being arranged in compliment to Mrs. Donald Plympton (Wilda Jerman) of Portland, who with her daughters, Sally and Tina, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Arch M. Jerman.

Guests will be seated at small tables for dessert. Contract bridge will be in play during the evening. The guest rooms will be decorated with bouquets of autumn flowers.

Honoring Mrs. Plympton will be her cousin, Mrs. Lawrence Puello of Sacramento, Calif., also a guest at the Jerman home, Mrs. Harry Carson, jr., Mrs. William Speirs, Mrs. Albert Currey, Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mrs. Alan Stewart, Mrs. Roy Edgerton, Mrs. Stuart Nelson, Miss Jean Kneass and Miss Molly Jean Maison of San Francisco, Miss Betty Simmons, Miss Beth Stewart, Miss Betty Byrd, Miss Patricia Vandeneysne and Miss Sybil Spears.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Miss Doris Pyeatt, who will be married on October 7 to Mr. Rolland Cleveland, was the honor guest at a bridal shower Friday night when Mrs. David Cooper and Miss Dorothy Pyeatt entertained at the former's home. Miss Pyeatt and Mr. Cleveland will be married in the fireplace room of the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock. Miss Pyeatt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Pyeatt and her fiancé is the son of Mr. Ray Cleveland and Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett.

Bridge was in play during the evening and a dessert supper was served by the hostesses. A miscellaneous shower honored Miss Pyeatt. Bouquets of dahlias provided the decorative note about the rooms.

Honoring Miss Pyeatt were Miss Darlene Simmons, Miss Betty Jean Smith, Miss Muriel Smith, Mrs. Donald Culler, Mrs. Wallace Hancock, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. James Henery, Mrs. Carl E. Pyeatt, Mrs. John T. Graybill, Mrs. King Bartlett, Mrs. David Cooper and Miss Dorothy Pyeatt.

Major Vern Miller's family has fun wrapping and addressing packages to the South Pacific. On the davenport with Mrs. Miller is Margaret, the youngest daughter at the left is Nancy, and at the right are Joan Marie and Julie. The dog is Brownie. This is Dr. Miller's fourth Christmas away from home. (Kennell-Ellis).
