McMillen and family, and Ed McMillen from Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webster and family from Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hagedorn and daughters Donna and Daniela from Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Will Webster and daughter Agnes from Liberty, Mrs. Opal Billings and family from Liberty, Mrs. Leota Sipe and daughter Elizabeth from Liberty, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Webster and daughter Pearl, George Webster, Mrs. Nell Reed, Rollie Webster, Ernest Clark, Mrs. Sally Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones and family, Miss Ardis Johnson, Mrs. Gwen Sherwood, Melvin Hegedorn and Bob Larson from Bremerton.

Scio Stamp Sale Shows Increase

SCIO—Continuing a trend shown in previous quarters of 1944, the Scio post office showed an increase in stamp sales and a decrease in money orders, compared to 1943 figures. Stamp sales for the September quarter just ended were $1449.39, compared to $1344.06 for 1943. Money orders for 1944 were $9265.21, and $11,911.38 for 1943.

Series E war bond sales for September were $1669, Postmaster E. Phillips stated. September bond sales at the Scio State bank totaled $5978.75, including one $1000 series G bond, according to Waldo DeMoy, manager. But one small bond was cashed in here, since release of the 60-day limitation, DeMoy said.

S. W. Archer is caretaker for 4500 turkeys owned by the Scio Mills and Elevator company on the Jim Trollingier place north of Shelburn.

Buena Crest Has Clubs Organized

BUENA CREST—Pupils whose names were on the spelling honor roll the first week were Elyne Henry, Buddy De Geer, Donna Hall, Elsie Field, Bobby De Geer, Arlene Cook and Junior Coburn. The softball team has been organized with John Turentine serving as captain and Buddy De Geer his assistant. Jack Hall and Alan Ritchey will serve as bat boys.

Health work in the upper grades will again be carried on through a 4H health club. This club will be organized during health period next Friday.

Visitors at the school Friday were Mrs. Agnes C. Booth, county superintendent, and Mrs. Carmalite Weddle, rural superintendent, and Dr. Leon Lassers from the state department of education.

CAMP CROWDER, Mo.—(AP)—Smith is not an unusual name, but Cpl. Joe Smith, stationed here, lifts his name above the ordinary by explaining he is a direct descendant of Adam and Eve.

Maters were skeptical and finally called him. Smith whipped out his birth certificate and read from it: "Joseph Smith, born to Eve Smith and Adam Smith."

38 Pupils Enroll At Mehama School

MEHAMA—Roy Philippi suffered a fractured ankle Saturday when he fell. He is now on crutches.

Thirty eight pupils are enrolled this year for the school term. Teachers are Miss Olson of Salem, upper grades; and Mrs. Snyder of West Salem, lower grades. The Oakdale pupils who for the past two years have gone to the Mehama school, now have a teacher and are holding school in their own district. Mrs. Jennie Hoffstetter is the Oakdale teacher.

All the houses built this year by Roy Philippi are now finished and occupied by lumber workers and their families.
Chris McDonald and Earl Hensley returned from a deer hunting trip at LaPine with a three point mule deer. The reported weather was hot and they had to return sooner than they expected to save the meat.
