

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music of Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Eastward Bound...

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Garnjost and their granddaughter, Julianne Spears, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Jr., are entraining Friday for Washington, DC. Julianne will remain in Washington with her parents. After a visit in the nation's capital with Captain and Mrs. Spears the Garnjosts will go on to New York City where he will study at Memorial hospital. After visiting other eastern points the travelers will stop in Chicago enroute home.

Mrs. Clifford Brown is also leaving Friday by train for Washington, DC, to make an extended visit with her son and his family, Lt. and Mrs. Chandler Brown, and their children, Plum, Roxanna and William. Enroute east she will visit in Kansas with relatives.

An Au-Revoir Dinner...

Mrs. Wilson Siegmund and Mrs. Manfred Olson were hosts for a smartly arranged dinner party Saturday night at the Golden Pheasant in compliment to Mrs. James Mobley (Josephine Cornoyer) and Miss Helen Trindle.

Mrs. Mobley is entraining Monday for Hattiesburg, Mississippi to join her husband who is stationed at Camp Shelby. They have taken an apartment in the southern city. Enroute south Mrs. Mobley will stop in Chicago and visit with Miss Julia Johnson. The wedding of the couple took place in Portland on September 9. The last week Mrs. Mobley has been in Salem visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cornoyer.

Miss Trindle, who recently received a medical discharge from the army dietetic corps, is leaving this next week for Overland Park, Kansas to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. William Trindle, and their small son, William John, Jr. Trindle is a navy transport pilot.

Bidden to the dinner party to honor Mrs. Mobley and Miss Trindle were Miss Eleanor Trindle, Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, Jr., who is visiting here from Stockton, Calif., Mrs. Kenneth Hanson, Mrs. Herman Estes, Mrs. Wayne Doughton, Miss Jean McElhinny of McMinville, Miss Elizabeth Kleinsorge and Mrs. James Turner of Silverton, and Mrs. Wheeler R. English.

The dinner table was centered with an arrangement of mixed autumn flowers. Later the guests enjoyed several hours of contract bridge at the Robert W. Craig home on Court street.

Tidbits of News...

Miss Marcia Mills, who enrolled for her freshman year at the University of Oregon this fall, is spending the weekend in Salem as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo O. Mills, Sr., and her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Mills. The young co-ed is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Mills of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter are leaving today for a fortnight's vacation at Newport to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton.

Mrs. Nora Ball of Portland is spending the weekend in the capital as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Edgerton.

Knock, Knock...

Anyone this week will know who's there, it will be someone asking about your contribution to the United War Chest. Five hundred women will start on their rounds Monday morning, and will knock at every door in the city asking for contributions.

Above, Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mrs. Arch M. Jermon and Mrs. Harry V. Collins, team captains, compare notes on prospects. At the left, Mrs. Earl Fisher, team captain (left) and Mrs. Stanley Krueger, leader (right) do a little advanced contacting of Mrs. Charles Claggett and daughter Patty.

At the right, Mrs. George Schwartz (left) and Mrs. Silas Gaiser, solicit Mrs. Lester Carter and daughter Jane.

Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee get out together on their rounds. (All photos by Kennell-Ellis.)

They'll Be Dancing...

Four Salem dancing clubs are beginning the fall season this month with formal dances. Officers are busy with arrangement for the parties and compiling the new club memberships.

Slated for this Friday night is the Wisteria club dance at Veterans hall from 9 to 12 o'clock. The officers arranging the semi-formal dance are Mr. J. Deane Patterson, president; Mr. Deral Jones, secretary; and Mr. James Hardie, treasurer.

New members who have already accepted the club's invitation are Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bale, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leserer, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Waldorf, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Lineberry and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gerald Nibler.

Mr. and Mrs. Blame Ericksen have invited guests to a dessert supper before the dance. Guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Messrs. and Mesdames Floyd Seamster, Floyd Bowers, Bryan Goodenough, Russell Beutler, Edward Matek, James Turnbull, LaVerne J. Young, C. F. Putnam and Evert Givens.

After the dance the Ericksens and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnett will be hosts for a supper party at the former's home. Guests will be seated at small tables centered with autumn flowers. Bidden are Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Eggstaff, J. Deane Patterson, Charles Feike, Lester Wilcox, Sidney King, Robert Bowman, Emmett Kleinke, Paul Bale, Hugh Morrow, Harold Shogren, Calvin Kent and James Hardie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klaus and Mr. and Mrs. Deral Jones will be hosts at parties before and after the dance at the Klaus home on North 19th street.

Bidden to the dessert supper party before the affair are Messrs. and Mesdames J. Deane Patterson, Ralph Eggstaff, J. Parker Lineberry, John Taylor, James Hardie, Gail Jones, Lowell Jones, H. J. Thomas, T. J. Brabec, A. J. Crose and W. Gerald Nibler.

After the dance the hosts will serve a midnight supper to Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon, Messrs. and Mesdames Russell Beutler, Claude Post, Louis Lorenz, L. Stewart, Bryan Goodenough, Floyd Bowers, Mark Wilbur, Charles McCabe and Edwin L. McEwen.

Tillicum Club Formal

Tillicum dancing club will hold its first dance on Tuesday, October 24 at the Veterans hall. Guy Albin's orchestra will play for the formal affair. During the winter season Tillicum club members hold their dances the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Mr. Harris Lietz is president of the club this year and Mr. Richard A. Meyer is secretary-treasurer. Several informal parties are being arranged to precede the dance.

Subscription Dinner Dance

Subscription club members will continue with their formal dinner dances this year with Saturday, October 28 set as the date for the first party. The affair will be held in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel. Mr. Leo Spitzbart is president of the club and Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, secretary.

The Trotters dancing club held its first semi-formal dance Friday night at the Veteran's hall. They meet regularly the first Friday of each month. During the summer the dances were informal.

Mr. Robert Bowman is president of the club, Mr. Walter Karsten, vice-president; and Mrs. Francis Jernigan, secretary-treasurer.

To Greet the Faculty...

New Willamette university faculty wives and women faculty members will be welcomed at an informal tea meeting on Thursday when Mrs. G. Herbert Smith entertains the Willamette Faculty Women's club at University House at 2:30 o'clock. This will be the first gathering of the group this season.

The honor guests will be Mrs. Lawrence A. Riggs, whose husband is professor of education; Mrs. William Moellering, wife of new professor of classical and modern languages; Mrs. Herbert McMurtry, wife of the new professor of psychology; and Miss Margaret E. Scruggs, who comes from Portland as a new member of the School of Music.

Professor and Mrs. Riggs and their son came to Salem from Baltimore, Maryland, where he was at Johns Hopkins university. The Moellering came to Willamette directly from Gunnison, Colorado where Professor Moellering was on the faculty at Western State college. Professor and Mrs. McMurtry and their two daughters have been residing in South Dakota where he was at Yankton college.

At the tea hour Mrs. Smith has asked Mrs. Ernest C. Richards, president of the faculty women, and Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze, last year's president, to preside at the serving table.

A Party For Sisters...

Mrs. Howard Bergman presided at a smartly arranged luncheon Saturday afternoon at the Marion hotel in compliment to Mrs. Robert Wulf (Pauline Findley) and Mrs. P. Haddon Brydon (Edith Findley) of Granger, Wash.

Mrs. Wulf arrived in the capital last week from Fort Niagara, New York. With her sons, Robert, Bruce and Michael, Mrs. Wulf has taken a house in Salem and plans to reside here while Captain Wulf is in the service. Mrs. Brydon is spending the weekend at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley.

At the luncheon covers were placed for ten guests. The table centerpiece was an arrangement of autumn flowers in brilliant shades.

After the Game...

Jeanne Foster, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Eugene Foster, was hostess for an informal hamburger supper and dance Friday night at the home of her parents on Lefelle street. The affair followed the Albany-Salem football game in Albany. After a hamburger feed the guests enjoyed dancing.

Making up the party were Betty Zo Allen, Carolyn Carson, Connie Cocking, Addysee Lane, Jane Acton, Jeanne Foster and Robert Macy, Benny Lambert, Jack Ricketts, Arthur Engelbart, Donald Yocom, Aldon Sundile and Frank Bales.

DORATHEA STEUSLOFF
Head of Woman's Division of United War Chest
(Jensen-Miller photo)