Junior Women To Sell Bonds

Salem Junior Woman's club members are participating in the war bond drive, sponsored by the National Federation of Women's clubs, to buy a naval plane. The Salem club's goal is to buy an $85,000 Helicat fighter, with each junior club member slated to sell one thousand dollars worth of war bonds.

As a kick-off to the drive the Salem Junior Woman's club voted to purchase a hundred dollar E bond, at its Monday night meeting. When the club reaches its goal their name will be inscribed on the navy plane. The drive begins October 15 and ends December 1.

Miss Maria Dare, chairman of the American Citizenship war service committee, heads the drive committee. Assisting her are Mrs. Ferrel Covalt, Mrs. Roy Mink, Mrs. Elmo Lindholm, Mrs. Ray Lafky, Miss Eunice Furman, Mrs. Agnes Drummond, Mrs. Kenneth Carr, Mrs. Harry Sherman, Jr., Mrs. Howard Eismann and Miss Hattie Bratzel.

Marriage of Couple Told

Mrs. Ora Williams is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Goldine Williams, to Mr. Raleigh Galloway, all of Salem. The wedding took place at the home of Rev. Kunzman in Vancouver, Wash.

For her wedding the bride wore a brown suit with matching accessories. Accompanying the couple were the bride's mother and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pott of Portland.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was held at the Portland home of Mr. and Mrs. Pott. The bride and groom cut the tiered cake which centered the table. Assisting at the luncheon was Miss Anna Pott.

Mr. and Mrs. Galloway are now at home in Salem at 489 South Cottage street. He is employed at Thomas Kay Woolen Mill Co. The couple attended Salem schools.

Oske Party On Saturday

Second in a series of fortnightly Oske parties at the YMCA will be held Saturday night. "Join the Oske" is the theme of the party, which is sponsored by the Salem high school student body.

Games, volley ball, swimming and dancing will be enjoyed during the evening with refreshments served later.

Mary Lou McKay and Jean Fidler are in general charge of the party. Other committees are Eleena McCune, canteen; Frank McGee, Bonnie Daugherty, Bob Crozier, publicity; Charles Chittick, ticket and door; June Young, program; Virginia Huston, patrons; Bill Ready, decorations; and Dick Gatke, cleanup.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Stephenson of Eugene have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minier. The Stephensons went on to Portland for a visit and were accompanied by Mrs. Minier, who visited with Lt. and Mrs. Paul Wedel and daughter, Paula.

Miss Wanda Linnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Linnell, whose engagement to Mr. Doyle Satter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Satter, has been announced. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Series of Concerts Planned

A concert series designed to take six varied programs by Salem musicians to five state and private institutions in the Salem vicinity is taking shape under management of Mrs. David Eason. Mrs. Walter Denton has been named assistant manager of the series, first program of which will be held in November.

Participants will be a town artists' group, for which Alice Cray Brown is serving as chairman; college faculty, directed by Dean Melvin Geist; Willamette university students, Bennet Ludden; high school, Lena Belle Tartar; grade and junior high school, Jessie Bush Mickelson, and general, Priscilla Meisinger.

Concerts will be presented at the penitentiary, state school for the blind, Hillcrest school, state tuberculosis hospital and Old People's home.

They will be approximately an hour in length, diversified, entertaining and worthwhile both to listeners and participants, Mrs. Eason said Thursday. The series bears the endorsement of the Junior Federation of Music Clubs of Salem, of which Miss Tartar is president.

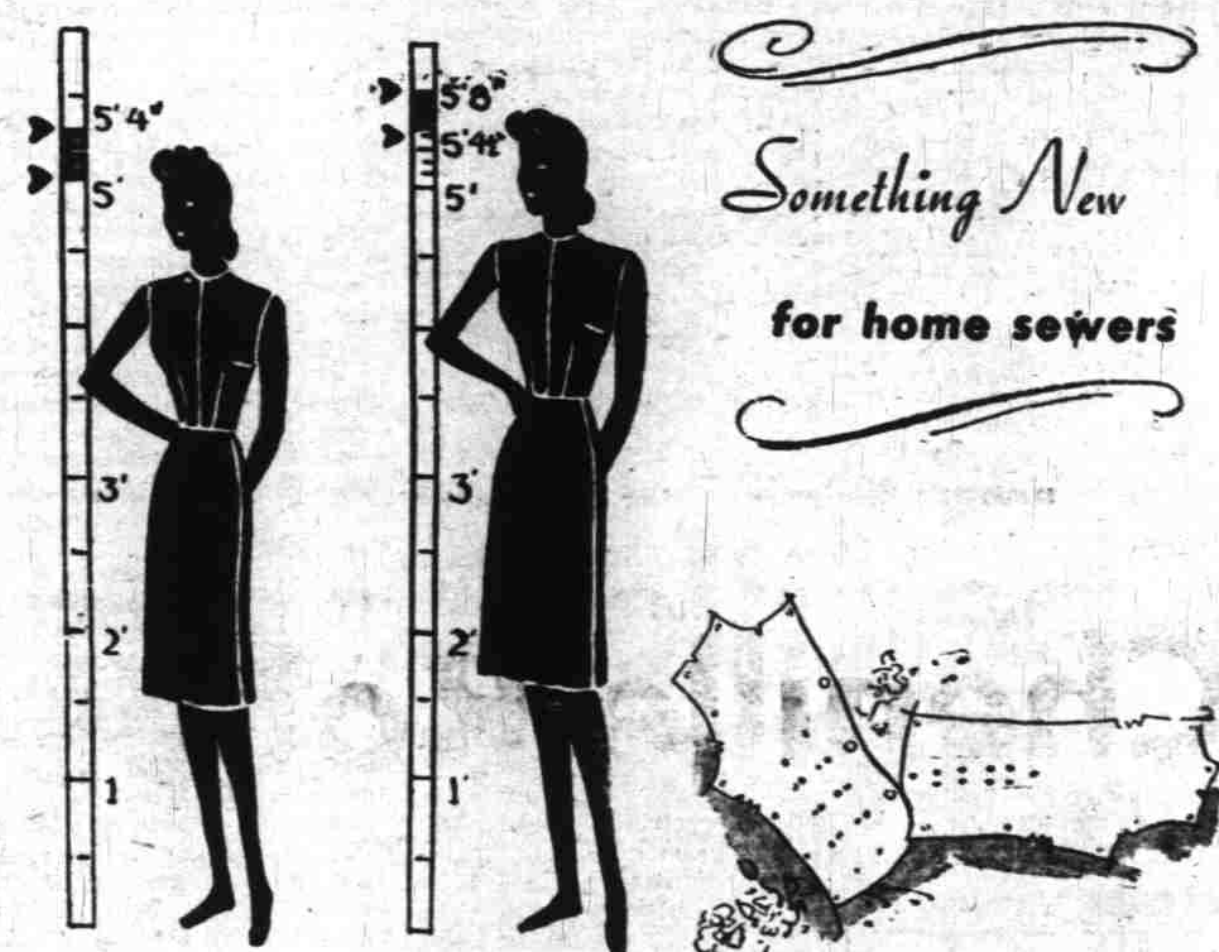

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham entrained Thursday night for San Mateo, Calif. to visit their son, Donald, who is at the merchant marine cadet corps base station. While in the bay region the Burlinghams will attend the opera in San Francisco.
