FIRST LARGE TEA PARTY

We've been to this season was on Wednesday when Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. William L. Phillips and Miss Dorathea Steusloff entertained for Mrs. Richard Chambers and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., two charming young girls . . . They have much in common as they were army nurses, both brides of less than a year and their husbands' parents are the best of friends . . .

The hostesses couldn't have chosen a better day, a real Indian summer day . . . inside, much buzzing conversation and hellos . . . people seeing each other for the first time since summer . . . Everyone dressed in her best bib and tucker . . . Smart grey suits predominated . . . Mrs. John J. Elliott chic in a grey checked tulle and a silver name plate adorning her suit . . . she wore a large black hat and black accessories . . . With her was Mrs. Karl Becke, who wore a deep red suit, black pancake hat and brown squirrel furs . . . Mrs. Harry Schenk wore an attractive grey with white stripe and grey pillbox hat . . . A twosome in grey . . . Mrs. Paul Wallace and Miss Mabel P. Robertson . . . the former's suit had a plain skirt and a grey checked top . . .

Mrs. Elizabeth Lord was proudly showing pictures of Mrs. Melvin Lord and baby daughter, who live in Spain . . . Causing much comment was Mrs. Bradford Collin's pet hat . . . a tiny pillbox of velvet flowers in many colors with a green velvet clip holding it in place . . . Many mothers and daughters together . . . Mrs. Frank Myers in purple and Mrs. Charles Claggett in black . . . Mrs. R. G. Brady with Carolyn, Mary Anne and Mrs. Robert Brady, Jr., just home from a stay in California . . . Mrs. George Allen and Mrs. Reynolds Allen . . . the latter returned late in the summer from the south. The Cooleys, Mrs. Ralph in black with a red hat and Mrs. Richard also in black, wearing one of the new high crowned hats . . . Mrs. Herbert L. Stiff and Mrs. Stiff, Jr. . . . Mrs. Charles McElhinny and Mrs. William McElhinny (Marjorie Hill), the latter wearing an off the face purple hat with her black ensemble . . . Mrs. James Mott and Mrs. John Sullivan, wearing the deep green velvet hat her husband sent her from Italy . . . Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Sr., and Mrs. Smith, Jr. . . . Mrs. Lloyd Riches and Mrs. Thomas Riches . . .

Smart twosomes . . . Mrs. Harold Hauk in a brown striped tulle and green felt hat with brown feathers . . . and Mrs. Chester Cox wearing a black and yellow suit, a black skirt, yellow jacket and fingertip top coat and black hat . . . Mrs. Jerald Backstrand stunning in a brown suit with self check and a chic brown hat with green feathers . . . and Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans in a sky blue suit with which she wore brown furs and a brown sailor with feather trim . . . Mrs. Hollis Huntington, elated about her son, Kay, being home from the navy, wore a striking brown costume suit and a diminutive brown hat with pert peach colored quill . . . Mrs. G. Herbert Smith wore a becoming purple hat with a beige suit and Mrs. Donald A. Young looked lovely in all black with a large hat . . . Mrs. Henry V. Compton wore a handsome purple coat with tuxedo of grey Persian lamb over her black dress and a purple hat . . . with her was Mrs. George Croisan, distinctive in a red suit and brown furs and a black hat . . . Chatted with Mrs. Raymond Walsh, who tells us daughter, Jane, is enjoying every minute of her college days at San Mateo . . . this week she is in San Francisco for the opera season . . .

DANCING NOTES from the Wisteria club dance on Friday at the Veteran's hall . . . the president's wife, Mrs. J. Deane Patterson, in a white tulle dress with applique flowers on the skirt and a printed silk bodice . . . Two in lovely chartreuse dresses . . . Mrs. Estill Brunk's dress of silk crepe with black se-

quin trim and black sequins in her up-do hair style . . . An orchid was pinned to the shoulder of her gown . . . Mrs. Charles Felke's chartreuse silk jersey dress was fashioned with a peplum and black bodice . . . her flowers were gardenias . . . Two in white . . . Mrs. Lawrence Stoddard and Mrs. Carroll Ford . . . Mrs. Hal Gross looked quaint in her white dress with black peplum top and black lace mitts . . . Two new members welcomed . . . Mrs. W. Gerald Nibler in a flowerprint gown and Mrs. J. Parker Lineberry wearing a winterberry red velvet dress . . .

ORCHIDS to Mrs. Neal Brown, Mrs. W. O. Widdows, Mrs. Russell Pratt, Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mrs. Marvin Helland, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Sr., Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., and Mrs. Paul Rasmussen for outstanding accomplishments in the women's division of the war chest drive . . . Each was presented with a beautiful orchid at the final chest luncheon . . . Dorathea Steusloff can well be proud of her five hundred women workers and the top honors they received . . .

DELIGHTFULLY INFORMAL was the tea Mrs. William Earl Snell (Marylee Fry) gave last Saturday at the attractive new home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr. . . . The honor guest was Mrs. Wayne Stuart Nelson (Barbara Johnson), being welcomed as a bride and newcomer in the capital . . . She is residing at the Carl Nelson home while her navy ensign husband is overseas . . . Barbara and Marylee are Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters and Barbara was one of Marylee's bridesmaids at her wedding last March . . . For the tea Barbara wore a becoming purple crepe dress with the new side drape on the skirt and white flowers . . . Marylee was attractive in a moss green velvet dress . . . Molly Jean Maison, wearing all brown, came in for a few minutes . . . She and her navy ensign brother, Mack, have been busy seeing people and going places the last week . . . The new Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., wore her army nurse uniform and Mrs. Fry gave her a darling red, white and blue nosegay to carry . . . Mrs. James M. Houck, home from Colorado where she has been with her flier husband, wore a grey tweed skirt and a black jersey top . . . She will soon be leaving for San Diego to live until Jim returns from overseas . . . Sisters together . . . Mrs. Jon Sullivan and Dorothy Mott, excited about Dorothy's approaching marriage next Sunday . . . Mrs. Douglas Chambers wore a watermelon red tulle with brown accessories and a white Nelson wore a pink silk with black lace trim . . .

The Salem Navy mothers will meet Tuesday night at the YWCA at 8 o'clock. A special program has been arranged to celebrate navy day which is October 27. Recruiting Specialist Mel Kennedy will speak informally to the group. A reception and refreshments will follow the program . . .

A group of Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo dancers in "Les Sylphides," lovely Chopin ballet to be presented here by the noted troupe in the Salem high school auditorium on Wednesday, November 15.

They'll Dance Here Ballet Russe De Monte Carlo Will Appear in Salem November 15

The famed Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, long the leading touring troupe presenting spectacular ballet, will bring its full company to the Salem senior high auditorium for a performance on Wednesday night, November 15, at 8:30. It was announced yesterday by Phil Hart, manager of the Record Shop in Portland, who is in charge of the local ballet appearance . . .

Although the Ballet Russe has played in Salem previously on the Community Concerts series, this marks the first visit to Salem as a non-series attraction . . . For the November date, the company has announced a repertoire of three favorite ballets, opening with the lovely classical number, "Les Sylphides" — a "white ballet" with music by Chopin. A recently designed American ballet, "Rodeo," has choreography by Agnes de Mille, who designed the dances in "Ok-lahoma," and music by the contemporary American, Aaron Copland. By popular request, the scintillating "Gaité Parisienne"—complete with Can-Can girls and a brilliant Offenbach score—will conclude the program . . .

Among the internationally famous ballet stars to be featured by the Ballet Russe in Salem are lovely Natalie Krassovska, Ruthanna Boris, Dorothy Eldridge, and Mary Ellen Moylan. The male leads include Leon Danielian and Yurek Lazowski. A large and brilliantly trained corps de ballet, colorful costumes and sets, and a symphony orchestra are guarantee of a first-rate ballet performance in every respect . . . This will be the only large-

"Hollie" Jackson Says:

How do you like our window since we had its face lifted? I know we just completely remodeled when we moved in but like a woman dressing up for her anniversary party there's usually something that has to be done over the last minute; yes, we had to call it to your attention because, like the aforesaid woman, "if I didn't call it to his attention the big lug would never notice it." (If you know about whom she is talking.)

Anyway drop by and see the display in our newly lighted window, jewelry that is easy to see and easier, much easier, to buy.
