Do you know?

That 25 different Federal bureaus all handling labor are causing intolerable confusion by pulling in opposite directions. Today labor must beg at the White House to get action. Dewey wants law, not politics, to be the test of labor's rights.

Silverton Holdup Attempt Is Foiled

SILVERTON, Oct. 27 — An attempted "wild west" robbery landed Lawrence Hensler in jail Friday morning with L. M. Todd as the private prosecutor.

Bail was fixed by Alf O. Nelson, Silverton justice, at $2500, which Hensler was unable to furnish and final disposition of the case will be made in the Salem court as Justice Alf O. Nelson was scheduled at an out-of-town meeting. Formal charge was written in as assault and attempt at robbery while armed with a dangerous weapon.

Todd claimed that he was accosted by a man armed with a revolver Thursday night shortly before midnight as he was turning in to his home. The would-be robber told Todd to "fork over his roll." Todd held him off with his cane and called to Mrs. Todd, who turned on the porch light enabling Todd to recognize his assailant.

This is Silverton's first attempt at hold-up for a long period. Hensler will get a preliminary hearing November 1 at 2 p.m. before Justice of Peace Chris J. Kowitz.
