Described as one of the most successful Cub-parent meetings ever held in Salem, the Thursday night organization session at Highland school drew 45 Cubs and twice as many parents.

This newest Cub unit in Salem is to be known as pack three, sponsored by the Hollywood Lions club. The pack has been divided into six dens, with the following serving as den mothers and den dads: Mrs. R. G. Crawford, Mrs. L. H. Blankenbush, Mrs. H. Robinson, Mrs. L. S. Bleszy, Mrs. K. Prince, Mrs. H. J. McGuire, Harry Greene, Ferson Fought, Jacob Dozer, Peter Encheildsen, Roy Pense and Melvin McKee. U. Q. Wolter is Cubmaster of the new unit.

Boy Scout den chiefs from the Hollywood Lions troop three are to be assigned to each den and first meetings of the new pack will be held the week of November 20.

Realtors Told Bush Property Good City Buy

Members of the Salem Board of Realtors at noon luncheon Friday were urged by Mrs. Winnifred Pettijohn to attend the November 20 meeting of the city council and to give voice in support of the proposal that the city buy the Bush pasture.

"It is time Salem begins to plan for the future," Mrs. Pettijohn said, "and turn a deaf ear to those who say the city already has vacant land which it has failed to develop. The Bush acreage should belong to the city because of its natural beauty. For one thing the city should buy it and eventually build an auditorium there."

"The Salem Community Concert association now has a maximum membership of 1800 which is capacity for the largest auditorium in the city. No new members have been added for three years. The only method of securing a membership at this time is through relinquishment of a membership. Newcomers wishing to join the association are disappointed when informed that the organization can take no new members. Our membership cannot exceed our accommodations."

"When 99-foot-wide streets were suggested for Salem, many scoffed at the idea. Today the wide streets are one of the city's greatest assets. Building them wide was proper application of foresight. Buying this valuable park site will be considered just as fine a venture 20 or 30 years from now."

Former Grid Player Leads Revival Service

The revival services by Evangelist Jerry Owen have been well attended in spite of rain and election interest this week, those in charge report. Services are held at the school administration auditorium, 460 North High at Marion street.

Many call Owen the second Billy Sunday because of the emphatic way of giving his sermon. He quotes the Bible verbatim without the aid of script or text or note of any kind, those who have heard him say.

Beside preaching Rev. Owen is coaching the Hubbard high school football team.

He is a former football star of the University of Southern California. It was there that he laid down the football to pick up the Bible and start preaching. He built the large San Francisco gospel center.

At the School Administration building auditorium services are held each night except Monday and Saturday at 7:45 p. m.

With Owen is Martin Frey, a well known evangelistic-pianist.

Verdict of the Ages

Alongside of alcohol in importance as a post-war problem of the first magnitude comes venereal diseases. From time immemorial, these two forces of moral, physical and mental destruction have been born companions in their work of iniquity.

Never was a greater truth spoken than that credited to the New York Alcohol Authority: "The more alcohol; the more syphilis."

An article by Dr. John W. Churchman in the Journal of Preventive Medicine and Public Health on "Prevention of Venereal Diseases" points out that "Alcohol is the best salesman and procurer known, and is a constant and essential stock in trade for the promotion of prostitution."
