

Miss Pyeatt, Sgt. Ling To Wed

Today's romantic news concerns the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Dorothy Pyeatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Pyeatt, and Supply Sergeant Warren Ling, United States marine corps, son of Mrs. Flava Ling of Wilmington, California. The announcement was revealed Tuesday night at a smartly arranged party for which Miss Muriel Smith was hostess at the Carl Smith home on D street in compliment to Mrs. James Neal on her first wedding anniversary. When Mrs. Neal opened her gifts she found a card hidden in one telling the news.

The wedding of Miss Pyeatt and Sergeant Ling will be an event of Monday, November 20. He is now home on furlough, having recently returned from two years in the South Pacific. He will report to San Francisco for further assignment. Sergeant Ling is a graduate of Salem high school.

Miss Pyeatt is a graduate of Salem schools and later attended Oregon State college where she was a pledge of Alpha Gamma Delta. She has been employed at the state selective service headquarters.

A late supper was served by the hostess and the table was centered with a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums. Autumn flowers were arranged about the guest rooms.

Miss Smith's guests were Mrs. James Neal, Miss Dorothy Pyeatt, Mrs. Roland Cleveland (Doris Pyeatt), Mrs. Wallace Hancock, Miss Betty Jeanne Smith, Miss Jean Webb-Bowen, Mrs. James Henery, Mrs. Ted Ogdahl, Miss LaVerne Dumas, Miss Patricia Ryer, Mrs. Donald Cutler, Mrs. David Cooper and Mrs. Everett Smith.

Ballet Russe to Play Tonight

The Salem high school auditorium will be the scene tonight of a brilliant performance of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. This famed troupe is making its first appearance here in a show open to general admission. The doors will open at 8 o'clock.

As previously announced, the program tonight opens with the loveliest of all "white ballets," "Les Sylphides" with music by Chopin and choreography by Fokine; Nathalie Krassavka will be featured in this number. "Rodeo," a characteristic American ballet designed by Agnes de Mille, choreographer of "Oklahoma," "One Touch of Venus," and "Bloomer Girl," will feature music by Aaron Copland. The final number is "Gaité Parisienne," with Nathalie Krassavka again starring in one of the gayest and most popular ballets ever staged.

Ticket sale is being held during the day at Needham's bookstore, and will be continued at the high school after 7:45 p.m. The Ballet Russe appears here under Record Shop management.
