

Colonel and Mrs. Hays Honored

The dinner tables were decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums and carnations in pastel shades. Covers were placed for fifty guests with Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Eugene Foster, Captain and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Captain and Mrs. Fred Sullivan and Major Clarence Stonehocker attending from Salem.

During the dinner Colonel and Mrs. Foster presented Colonel and Mrs. Hays each with a gift from the group. Marking Mrs. Hays' place at the dinner table were red roses from Mrs. Douglas McKay.

An informal farewell reception honored Colonel and Mrs. Hays after the dinner hour.
