

Pre-Holiday Parties Slated

The pre-holiday season is the occasion for much informal entertaining.

Sunday morning Mrs. Raymond Walsh has invited a few friends to breakfast at ten o'clock at the Gaiety Hill home of her mother, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry. Covers will be placed for ten at a large table with the holiday motif being used in the decorations.

Minions at Home
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minton will be hosts for an informal open house at their South Cottage street residence Sunday afternoon. A group of their friends have been invited to call between 4 and 6 o'clock.

"Cookie Shine"
Mr. and Mrs. Norval E. Edwards are entertaining with two "Cookie Shine" parties at their home on State street this week. Guests will enjoy an evening around the fireplace and later Christmas cookies and punch will be served.

Guests on Friday night will be Mr. and Mrs. Loring Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Heater and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin. The Edwards have invited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earnest and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Armstrong to be their guests on Sunday afternoon.

Randalls Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Randall were hosts for an informal "at home" Wednesday night at their Fir street residence for a group of their friends. The affair was given in compliment to Mrs. Randall's sister, Mrs. W. W. Wolfstyn of Drexel Hills, Pennsylvania, who is visiting in the capital. Mrs. Wolfstyn, who has been visiting in Oakland, Calif., will leave next Tuesday for her home in the east.

Rainbow Girls Hold Initiation

Mrs. Wayne Henry, mother advisor of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, was given a surprise birthday degree met at the Masonic Temple with Tuesday night when the chapter Miss Aditye Lane presiding.

Initiation was held for the Misses Nancy Buren, Catherine Siegmund, Delores Taft, Shirley Klunne, Arlith Eckstein, Delores Hill, Evelyn Killin, Virginia Benner, Jean Tanner, Elaine Hinkle, Donna Seay, Jacqueline Allport, Sarah Jane Backstrand, Elsie Cannon, Beverly Kenney, Charlotte Alexander, Nada White, Donna Jane Macklin, Joyce Edgell, Audrey Merrick, Joyce Jensen, Irene Johnson, Jackie Johnson and Virginia Ellis.

Girls accepted to receive the degrees of the order were the Misses Elaine Wyatt, Diane Perry, Leta Jean Evans, Coralie Jean Coffey, Dolly Davidson, Dorothy Palanski, Barbara Anne Smith and Lorene Rossiter.

Pedermans Visit From Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Pederman of Sitka, Alaska, are leaving Tuesday for Portland and Seattle after a two weeks visit here with Mrs. Ted Mickelson and children, Karen and Edgar, at their home on North 14th street. They will return to Sitka after the holidays.

The Pedermans have been visiting in Washington, Montana, Idaho and Oregon. Last weekend they were the guests of Mrs. Mickelson's mother, Mrs. Louis Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Reinert Holmes at their Silverton home.

The visitors were honored at dinner Monday night when Mrs. Mickelson and Mrs. Carl Jensen entertained at the latter's home. Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wadsworth were hosts at dinner for the Pedermans.

Red Cross Asks For Help

An urgent request is being made by Mrs. O. H. Goff, chairman of the hospital production department of the Marion county chapter of the American Red Cross, for assistance of several hundred housewives which are urgently needed to fill a quota due for shipment to the area of office of the Red Cross in San Francisco.

These articles are used in comfort kits which are given to hospitalized servicemen. They are small and simple to make. Material for their construction may be secured any week day between the hours of ten and four, and Saturdays between nine and twelve at the Red Cross office at 435 State street.

Mrs. Wayne Hadley and daughter, Eileen Patricia, are leaving today for Longview, Wash. to spend a week at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley.

Women's Page

SOCIETY
CLUBS
MUSIC
The HOME

Salem Host To District Meeting

Important on the club calendar for Friday is the third district meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs at the Salem Woman's clubhouse with the Salem Woman's club and Junior Woman's club acting as hosts. The all day session will open with registration at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mason Bishop, vice president, will preside in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Jaeschke of Silverton, who is ill. Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff will give the flag salute and Miss Eula McCully will lead in the reading of the club collect.

Mrs. C. H. McCullah, president of the Salem Woman's club, will give the address of welcome and the response will be given by Mrs. A. J. Titus of Silverton, first vice president of the Marion County Federation.

Main speaker at the morning session will be Mrs. Beuna Maris, dean of women at Oregon State college, who will talk at 11 o'clock on "The American Home and Technique of Leadership." Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will be the guest speaker at the afternoon session.

Although this is not election year, there will be two important offices to be filled, that of the president and recording secretary. Fifty one clubs are represented in the third district. Mrs. Percy Kelly will lead the delegates in group singing in the morning. Mrs. David H. Cameron will be the soloist during the afternoon.

Salem Junior Woman's club members are planning the luncheon at noon and decorations.

Junior Club Sells $10,000 in Bonds

Initiation of Mrs. W. R. Metzger and Mrs. Richard Beyer as members of the Salem Junior Woman's club opened a business meeting of that organization Monday night at the Woman's clubhouse, presided over by Mrs. James C. Pike, club president.

Applications for membership in the club, which now has a total of 47, were accepted from Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. William Huskin, Miss Bonnie Lee Folk and Mrs. Robert Laughlin.

Miss Maria Dare, chairman of the war service committee, reported that the club is credited with $10,496.25 in its bond drive for the purchase of equipment for the Navy air armada. Reporting on the recent dance sponsored by the club, Mrs. Lloyd Reilly announced a profit of $49.58 which was voted toward the purchase of a war bond. Proceeds of the fall fashion bridge, $44.22, were voted for use in war service work.

A certificate in recognition of 100 hours of volunteer USO work was presented to the club in a letter from Mr. Tinkham Gilbert, chairman of the USO council. It was voted that the club would purchase a $5 Tuberculosis seal bond. Salem junior clubwomen will cooperate with Mrs. C. W. Stacey, legislative chairman for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, for the passage during the coming legislative session of a bill providing for health instruction and physical education in the elementary and high schools of Oregon.

Funds were voted from the club's philanthropic fund for the purchase of a Christmas gift for the group's honorary member, Erval Gwinn, a patient at the state tuberculosis hospital, and clothing and a Christmas gift for Soren McAllister, student at the state blind school.

Mrs. Fred C. Gast, chairman of the committee for the Salem Junior club's contribution to the all-day convention of third district clubwomen to be held in Salem Friday, December 15, announced that the junior club will have charge of luncheon preparation and decorations. Assisting Mrs. Gast will be Mrs. Maurice Grennen, Mrs. Kenneth Carr, Mrs. Agnes Drummond, Mrs. James C. Pike and Mrs. Thorne Hammond.

Mrs. Jay H. Stockman of Astoria, formerly of Salem, is visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Harris.

AT FIRST SIGN OF A COLD
USE 666
Cold Preparations as directed

CLUB CALENDAR

THURSDAY
Ladies auxiliary to Carpenter's union, 1:30 Union hall.
Dakota Mothers club, regular monthly noon luncheon meeting, dining room, Masonic temple.
Missionary society, First Baptist church 3 p.m. Program.
Eaglewood United Brethren church, Missionary society meeting with Mrs. Bertha Van Cleave, 809 North 17th street, 2:15 p.m.
Marine Corps auxiliary, VFW hall, 7:45 p.m.

FRIDAY
Brush College Helpers, husbands and families, with Mrs. Carl Wood, 715 North Church street, 7:30 p.m.
MONDAY
Past Regent DAR meet with Mrs. J. C. Sell, one o'clock luncheon.
Chapter BQ, FEO Christmas party with Mrs. J. M. Glass, 813 Belmont street, 8 p.m.

Bergsviks Hosts to Staff

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leif Bergsvik was the scene of a gala Christmas party Wednesday night when they entertained for staff members of the Marion county department of health.

After an exchange of gifts and informal evening around the Christmas tree a late supper was served by the hosts. Miss Dorothy Bergsvik assisted informally. Attending were Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Betty Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Lermon, Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. James Bunnell, Joan and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Fabry and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wikoff and Jack, Mrs. Harmon Jeary, Mrs. Claybourne Rasley, Mrs. Gerald Nye, Mrs. Portia Conway, Mrs. Nora Wood, Mrs. Lora Goddard, Miss Laura Harsted, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Merwyn Darby, Miss Audrey Smith, Miss Jewel Walter, Miss Vera Wood, Miss Dariel Brown, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Elizabeth Christiansen, Miss Barbara Dike, Miss Dorothy Bergsvik and Mr. and Mrs. Bergsvik.

Miss Violet Hickman to Wed Today

St. Joseph's Catholic church will be the setting for the wedding this afternoon of Miss Violet Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hickman, and Corporal Edward Phillips, United States Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Phillips. Father T. J. Bernards will officiate at the 2:30 o'clock nuptials. Mr. Wayne Mussey will play the organ music.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a white satin gown fashioned with a train and long sleeves. Her high neckline is enhanced with lace yoke and tiny buttons extend down the back of the bodice. Her train length tulle veil will cascade from a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet will be of gardenias and bouvardia.

Miss Virginia Schwartz will be the maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Beverly Phillips and Miss Norma Schmidt. The honor maid will wear blue chiffon and the attendants will wear pink and blue satin frocks. They will wear white satin Juliet caps and carry pastel nosegays.

Mr. Harry Phillips will stand with his brother as best man. For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Hickman will wear a white and red jersey gown with black accessories. Mrs. Phillips will wear a renoir blue silk afternoon dress.

The wedding reception will be held at the Hickman apartment at the Royal Court. Mrs. James Mahula will preside at the coffee urn and Mrs. Joseph Hickman will cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Lena Schmidt will assist informally.

After a wedding trip to the beaches the couple will go to Astoria to reside where he is stationed at the Astoria naval hospital. For going away the bride will wear a watermelon red dress with grey coat and black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and her fiancé attended Salem high school. He recently returned from 30 months in the South Pacific.

Mrs. Clayton Foreman has returned from Caldwell, Idaho where she visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Egin. Her brother, Lt. James Egin, was also home, having recently returned from overseas where he was wounded in France.

Homecoming and Dinner Slated

Capitol Tent Hive No. 94D will meet for their annual Homecoming dinner at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall Wednesday at 6:30 o'clock.

The committee for the dinner will be: Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Reay, Mrs. Victor M. Koop, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Newland, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schafer, Mrs. Goldia Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Harley E. King and Mr. and Mrs. George Dietz.

A Christmas program will follow the regular business meeting which will consist of election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Edgar Pierce has invited members of her club to a Christmas party Friday night at her home. Bridge will be in play following the supper hour.

Hospital Tea Is Event of Today

Highlight on the social calendar this afternoon is the Salem General hospital auxiliary benefit tea at the home of Mrs. Reuben P. Boise on North Summer street. All interested townpeople are invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Boise, Miss Lillian McDonald and Mrs. William H. Burghardt. Presiding at the tea will be Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr.

The Keltzer club meeting has been postponed until January 4 when it will meet with Mrs. Ben Claggett for Red Cross sewing.

★ Christmas LINGERIE

Give "her" the strictly feminine things that she always wants . . . lingerie of course . . . let this item solve your Christmas shopping problem . . . it is certainly a most desirable offering for her perfect holiday!

- Quality Housecoats
7.98 to 39.75
- Exquisite Pajamas
3.98 to 29.75
- Beautiful Gowns
2.98 to 10.00
- Durable Slips
1.98 to 10.00

★ Christmas FURS

She'll feel the exciting splendor of Christmas every time she wears a soft, warm fur coat. Our rich quality . . . beautiful furs are the tasteful woman's prime choice from every angle! Come in early for greater selection.

- 98.00 to 400.00
- Fur Trim Coats
39.75 to 135.00
- Smart Suits
19.75 to 135.00

Other Gift Suggestions!

- Exquisite Costume Jewelry
- Gotham Gold Stripe Hose
- Henri Bendel Perfumes
- Homemade Hankies
- Fownes Gloves
- Lovely Bags

The Greatest Gift Of All—
A War Bond!

