

Beta Sigma Phi Pledges Feted

New pledges of Beta Sigma Phi, international educational sorority, were entertained on Monday night at the home of Miss Marion Thede in Kingwood Heights. The evening was spent informally. Mrs. Allan Wright played a group of piano numbers and Christmas gifts were exchanged.

A buffet supper was served at a late hour. Mrs. Park H. Thede presided at the coffee urn. An attractive centerpiece of holly and silver leaves, flanked by silver candles in crystal candelabra centered the table. Arranging the party were Miss Marion Thede, Mrs. Henry Perlmutter, Miss Hattie Bratzel, and Miss Hazel Shutt. Mrs. Allan Wright, Miss Nyla Phillips and Mrs. Paul Nelson assisted in serving.

At a business meeting preceding the party, Miss Hattie Bratzel, club president, announced that Mrs. Park H. Thede had been elected as social sponsor, and Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey as director of the group. A formal initiation of pledges and installation of the sponsor and director will be held on December 28, followed by a banquet at Hull's cafe. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for the banquet: Miss Marion Thede, Mrs. Henry Perlmutter, Miss Hazel Shutt, Miss Tina Duerksen, Mrs. Allan Wright, and Miss Jennie Bovee. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Park H. Thede and Miss Virginia Curry.

Hansen-Liljequist Vows Today

This morning at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in Portland, Mrs. W. J. Liljequist and Mr. Paul Hansen will be married at a quiet ceremony. Dr. Paul S. Wright will officiate before members of the immediate family.

For her wedding the bride has chosen a grey tulle with black accessories and fuchsia purse and gloves. The couple will be attended by the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Hansen.

A wedding breakfast will be held at the Mallory hotel following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Seaside and other points along the Oregon coast the couple will return to Salem to reside. They will be at home after February 1 at 1645 South Commercial street.

OES' Christmas Party Held

The annual Christmas party of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was held on Tuesday night at Masonic temple, with the rooms lighted only by a large Christmas tree.

Chamber's New President Pledges All Efforts to Keep Salem 'One of Finest Cities'

"With the aid of the (chamber of commerce) directors, we will strive to keep Salem one of the finest and most aggressive cities in the coun- try," Loyal Warner, newly-elected C. of C. president, said Wednesday. (See election story on page 1).

Warner, who is manager of the Salem J.C. Penney store, said "I ex- pect to make Salem my home and raise my family here. After trav- eling over most of the United States, I don't think there is any place like Salem. I accept the presidency of the chamber recog- nizing the full responsibilities at- tached to it."

The 1945 chamber president first came to Salem from Nebras- ka in 1922. For three years he was boys' work secretary for the Salem YMCA while he was attend- ing Willamette university from which he was graduated in 1927. He took post-graduate work at Stanford and Columbia univer- sities.

Warner became connected with the J. C. Penney store in Salem in 1927, and in 1933 was made manager of the company's store at Baramie, Wyo. In 1934 he was named district manager for Pen- ney's at Denver, Colo., serving there until 1938 when he opened a district office in Salt Lake city. He returned to Salem as store manager in 1942.

Warner has been vice president of the Salem Community chest, headed the war chest drive in
