McIntyre said that the C.A.B. decision permits United to make Detroit an intermediate stop between Chicago and New York on flights originating at Denver or points west. The effect, for Salem, will be an entirely new link with Detroit.

Yankees on Lonely Isles Enjoy Holiday

HEADQUARTERS ALASKA DEPARTMENT, Dec. 25 (P)—Four dots in the Bering sea — St. Paul, St. George, St. Matthew and Nini-vak islands — had their Christmas today because of a special flight made through bitter weather by Lt. J. J. Trevisani of San Francisco. With Pilot Trevisani on the trip made to deliver 2400 pounds of Christmas mail and packages were S/Sgt. Landis, Kansas City, radio-man; S/Sgt. Giglio, Brooklyn, engineer; Cpl. Hulme, Pennsacola, N.J., assistant engineer, and Lts. O. H. Beasley of Roanoke, Va., K. C. Boyce of Medford, Mass., and Joseph Smiddy of Sulphur Springs, Tex., of the instrument, training squadron. The training school boxed the cargo in 100-pound lots, strapping parachutes to the boxes. The plane met temperatures averaging 13 degrees below zero and lower, battled powerful winds, worked 12 hours against the elements without food or drink. Water taken along froze solid. At one stop they rushed to a cook shack for a good meal and spent an hour thawing out oil stoves before cooking could be started. "It was necessary to circle Nini-vak three times before we could drop the cargo," said one crewman. "The spot designated as the target was overflowing with a shouting mob, all with their hands upstretched, waiting for mail from the sky." The soldiers manning the lonely outposts had not expected their Christmas mail before May or June, said a headquarters report. Woman Sought in Death Of Boy, Hard to Catch YAKIMA, Dec. 25 (AP)—Prosecuting attorney Lloyd Wiehl said today that a confession by a 19-year-old waitress to the wine bottle slaying of a 5-year-old boy disclosed she had escaped capture three times by narrow margins before a month's search for her ended with her arrest in Portland yesterday. AT FIRST SIGN OF A COLD USE 666 Cold Preparations as directed
