New Orders Bring Home War Setback

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25. - (P) -A swift series of control-tightening orders, more drastic in overall effect than any since the war started, brought grimmer war prospects sharply home in America today.

The new controls in outline: 1. Business ignoring manpower regulations were given to understand they will be denied fuel, materials and transportation.

2. The OPA prepared to return to the ration list nearly all pointfree meats and canned vegetables

3. Horse and dog racing tracks were asked to close up shop on Jan. 3 until war conditions permit 4. Selective service was directed to review the 'draft classification
