Viks, Medford Open Hoop Series at Villa Tonight

From the BLEACHERS

Future book: After watching 'em sparkle during the current MCA "open house" hoop tournament, Director Jim Dimit pegs an all-Parrish junior high entry as one of the sharpest junior groups he's ever seen. James actually believes the gang, to pitch for Coach

Bob Metzger's Pioneers this season, could right now knock over the Villa's Scintilating Sophs. In fact he's considering matching the two for the New Year's feature game . . . The Parrish kids, previously doped by some as potentially the best as well as tailest team ever to ramble for PJHS, are listed as follows, with respective heights adjoined: Lowell Spagle, 8-3; Bill Fasnacht, 6-3; Ralph Morgali, 6-3; Hugh Bellinger, 5-11; Carlos Houck, 5-11; Ken Gibson, 5-10; Ron Cummings, 5-10; Bill Day, 5-9, and Dave Chamberlain, 5-6. Most of 'em made up the undefeated Parrish 8th grade quint last season with thoroughly enjoyed polishing off the 9th graders regularly . . . Dimit vows they have what it takes, which sounds good for Coach Metzgar's immediate future . . . We'd like a ringside if they're matched with the Sophs next Monday . . . Life begins at 50, and if you don't agree just ask Walt "Pappy" Cline, newest member of the American Bowling Congress' "700 Club of America" after splattering 707 pins in Wednesday night's Perfection Major circuit session. 'Twas the first 700 series Pappy has ever notched in competitive play-he had a 746 once 'just messing around'-and he had to hack it the hard way. In the final frame of his last game he had to solve a 5-7 split, but with the pressure on and all eyes watching he made it. Then to top it off, he doubled out to bounce over the hump! The 707 beaten string in three tries (exfor three games averages 235.7 pins per-right rugged pin-toppling. cluding last night's clash with Alleys Boss Joe Coe was seen tossing out scorched flooring all day Thursday . . . Actually, the 707 was the first over-700 scored since Hi Haman whipped off a 733 four years ago. Coe himself almost made it two years back, but fell short at 699 when he blew a final split pick-up . . .

Gill Sees Hot Hoop Chase in N-Division

Amory T. (Slats) Gill isn't one who makes habit of predicting the tough Southern Oregon conwho will and who won't when Northern division basketballing begins each year, but following the two-day preview jamboree at Astoria last week the Beaver boss in his 17th year at OSC forecast a tight himself. Simpson will be rememrace this time. He singles out no favorite as he did last year in bered as the gent who guided his pointing to Washington's Huskies, who later ran off with the bunting, driving Ashland Grizzlies to the and insists all quintets except Washington "are better this season than they were last." According to the Gill gatherings, the gent who holds a Helms' Athletic Foundation honor as one of the alltime great basketball coaches in the nation also holds that Hec earlier this month. Edmundson's civilians aren't as good as the UW civvies of a year ago. In the same breath he reminds that the Huskies will be tough at home in that they'll use the non-travelling trainee team. Edmundson admits the trainees wallop the civvies regularly in practice

As for the Beavers, Gill sees in them an in and out club. For Jim Cave and Forward Larry a close first period. The Webfoots the Tillamook navy quint. The next night in the jamboree opener they looked decidedly poor and dropped two games. But back they ing veteran Dick Fawcett and came Saturday night in complete reversal to win a pair. Same for Jack Friel's Washington Staters, opines Slats. Friday night the Cougars played as if they could have beaten any team in the country. Saturday night a complete reversal.

As for Oregon, Gill offered only, "They look pretty good." Slats left a request in his stocking when he hung it up Christmas Eve, but so far Santy hasn't responded. Another good guard would first time this season, have been be welcome at OSC-one like Washington's Bob Jorgenson, for instance, who Gill pegs as the best prospect he's seen in several years-and a quick recovery from injury for Captain Bernie McGrath would be equally acceptable. McGrath pulled a groin muscle early last week, and though playing and potting 15 points against Tillamook, the hurt cut loose again at Astoria to keep the Newberg guard benched most of the time. He's expected to be okeh by time the Orangemen open their season next Friday and Saturday at Seattle against those feared Edmundson trainees.

The Medfords, stocked with veterans and possessors of an un-Albany), will be favored over the Brownies largely because (1) they have those vets, (2) they have what has been advertised hereabouts as one of the taller troupes in the state, (3) they are rated as the team to beat for the title in ference and (4) they have Skipper Simpson, Mr. State Championship state championship here last March

A number of those pigskinners are listed on the hoop roster, same being Center Darrell Riggs, Guard Bob Watson, Forward Glenn Bostwick, Guard Earl Stelle. Forward the front in the second half after Hayes. Hayes, Riggs and Watson had to overcome the handicap of a are starters along with high-scor- sizzling 20 points by the Medics' Jerry Ross.

The Vikings, unawed by the apparent potency of the visitors since they clashed the win column last utes before the end of the half week against Redmond for the drilling diligently the past few days. They figure a win over the Tornado will gain important prestige and are out to get it. Medford will no doubt be pressed should the Salems come up with another game a la against Redmond.

During workouts Brown has been stressing his defense by his guards and offense featuring mainly the pivoting of Center Tom Boardman. Against Redmond Boardman swished 19 points.

The probable starting lineup for the varsity clash, same to be preliminaried at seven o'clock, it is expected although unannounced:

Southern Cal Trojans Depend on Subs for Rose Bowl Brawl

By RUSS NEWLAND

PASADENA, Calif.-Southern California, best college football team in the far west for 1944 will be without some of its best per-formers when it lines up against the University of Tennessee in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 2.

The Trojans wen the Pacific Coast Conference championship easily after a shaky start in which they were tied twice. But along the victory road they lost Gordon Gray acclaimed by coach Jeff Cravath as one of the greatest backs he had ever seen. They lost two standout linemen. In- of forward pass attempts was juries claimed George Sallanan, one of the best in the nation; one of the fastest backs on the coast, and Mil Dreblow, who was filling in exceptionally well for

In spite of losses to the armed forces and late season injuries, Cravath's boys wound up the year with a 40-13 win over UC-LA. Replacements came through in great fashion especially Bobby Morris and Don Burnside, two speedy backs.

Against Tennessee the Trojans will have quarterback Jim Hardy, whose 51.9 per cent average fullback Duane Whitehead, Morris and Burnside. They have a very heavy and aggressive line, the standout of which is All-America tackle John Ferraro, whose 235 pounds is 30 less than the other tackle, "Peewee" Pe-

The Trojans have blinding backfield speed, a fine passing game, a deceptive ground attack, and Hardy's kicking has been miformly good.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28-(AP) Rain drove Western football players indoors in their morning workout today but the Eastern squad sloshed over a wet field preparing for the East-West charity game here New Year's day.

The easterners, training at Santa Clara, ran through dummy scrimmage and polished defensive plays while the coaching staff singled out several linemen for exceptional practice performances. These included two guards, Ralph Serpico of Illinois and Bill Hackett of Ohio State. Hackett's speed in leading interference attracted attention. Jack Mead, 6 foot 3 inch end from Wisconsin, looked good on pass receiving. All-America Les Horvath of Ohio State is concededly the main show in the backfield.

By Fritz Howell

NEW YORK, Dec. 28—(AP)—Some enchanting antics have enlivened America's New Year's day grid classics, but the one the fans will never forget is California Roy Riegels' wrong-way run in the Rose Bowl. A decade and a half have passed into pigskin history since the Golden Bears' star center star snagged a Georgia Tech fumble and raced 74 yards toward his own goal—instead of toward Tech's—before being dragged down on the one-yard line by Teammate Benny Lom.

On the next play Lom's attempted punt from the end zone was blocked for a safety, and the two points gave Georgia Tech an 8-7 victory. Riegels, heartbroken over the "Corrigan" run, came back the next year to captain the Bears

The Sugar Bowl's biggest oddity came in the 1935 inaugural when Temple lost to Tulane, 20-14. The winning touchdows came in the last period when Mintz of Tulane threw a pass near the Temple goal. The ball would have fallen harmlessly in the end zone but Mowry, Temple back, batted it straight into the arms of End Hardy of Tulane for the game-wrecking touchdown.
