

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

JAPS FIRE U. S. TANKER—Crewmen of a U. S. aircraft carrier watch from flight deck as USS Mississinewa, a tanker, burns after a Jap attack somewhere in the Pacific.

FEEDING TIME—Two little lion cubs who were deserted by their mother get a snack from Judith, 2½-year-old daughter of Homer Snow, lion keeper in San Francisco's Fishhacker zoo. A high chair serves as their pen.

GREETING FROM DUTCH—In the yard of a picturesque Holland farm home, Dutch residents stand to wave to Allied airmen as B-24 Liberators pass overhead en route to targets.

VETERAN SHOTGUN—This shotgun, held by Morton A. Robinson, ballistics engineer at Winchester's New Haven, Conn., plant, has been fired 1,316,726 times in testing shells over a period of 42 years.

STARLET—Marie McDonald, screen player who poses here in sports attire against a Hollywood tree, invaded the film capital several years ago as a singer with a dance band.

FAR NORTH FIGHTING—The U. S. Coast Guard combat cutter Eastwind, helping destroy Nazi weather station on northeast Greenland, turns over captured supplies to Danish sled patrol.

STUDENTS SING OPERA—Stage Director Alfredo Valenti (seated) goes through a scene with Annetta Burford of Oklahoma City and Henry Clark of Aurora, Ill., who sang in "Don Pasquale" at the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

SEES CANCER CELLS—Dr. E. V. Cowdry (right), professor of anatomy at Washington University, St. Louis, shows living cancer cells used in research into the malady to Senator Claude Pepper, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on wartime health and education, seeking to maintain wartime speedup in research.

G.I.'S ENJOY BATH HOUSE—Cpl. Manuel Hohenberger (left), Honey Grove, Tex., and Cpl. George O. Clark, Arlington, Va., scrub up in a Dijon, France, bath house run by Red Cross.

GERMANS WORK IN QUARRY—Somewhere in the European theater, German civilian laborers help build a platform for a rock crusher in a quarry. It will be run for U. S. First Army.

MINDORO ISLAND—Closeup map of Mindoro Island in the Philippines, south of Luzon and within 100 miles of Manila.

'BUFFALO' BRINGS SUPPLIES—A "buffalo" heavily laden with ammunition and rations travels up a river in northern Legos, in the Philippines, to supply forward fighting areas.