Mt. Angel Gets Full Capacity For Donors Unit

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 5 - Once more the Red Cross mobile blood donor unit collected its full quota in Mt. Angel. This time Mt. Angel was asked to furnish a capacity of 200 pints or 40 more than on previous visits, but with substantial help from Silverton, Monitor and Marquam and some from Woodburn the quota was not only met but about 20 volunteers had to be turned away.

The committee, headed by Peter F. Gores, local Red Cross chairman, and A. G. Traeger, donor committee chairman, worked feverishly to guarantee success, and wish to thank everyone who sided the work in any way.

Mr. Gore said, "Our success was due to cooperation. No one person could have made it possible." Mrs. Sam Klein of Mt. Angel gave her ninth pint and most of the local donors were credited with the fifth pint, as this is the fifth trip of the unit to Mt. Angel.

Mt. Angel College and Seminary donated the use of the cots needed and the Farmers Union warehouse and the Schwab Commission company furnished the trucks for transportation.

The local Legion auxiliary ran the canteen and furnished lunch to all the workers. Those participating were Mrs. Clifford Norton, Mrs. Joe Erwert, Mrs. Dave St. John, Mrs. Fred Prosser, Mrs. A. G. Traeger, Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber, Mrs. Kate Piennett, Miss Elizabeth Unger, Mrs. Fred Lucht and Mrs. Alma

Three girls from the 8th grade Geraldine Traeger and Edna Wurdinger, were excused from classes so they might wash the steady stream of dishes.

Mt. Angel nurses who helped included Mrs. Ed Unger, Miss Marie Persyn, Miss Juliana Dehler, Mrs. M. A. Keegan, Mrs. P. F. Gores, Mrs. Joseph M. Wagner, Mrs. A. A. Hauth and cadet nurses Mona Armitage and Mary St.

Registrants were Mrs. William Blem, Mrs. E. B. Stolle and Mrs. Ben Traviss.
