Silverton Chief Sets Boy Straight on Borrowing Gun

SILVERTON—The difference to a child between "just plain borrowing" and "swiping" was carefully explained to Chief of Police Al Amo late Thursday afternoon. Chief Amo was, in turn, put to it to explain the difference between "borrowing without permission" and "just plain borrowing."

Explanations became necessary called the police to his store where a very small boy with very large eyes was being held for the theft of a "squirt gun."

The police tried to tell the little boy that the two would not remain the very good friends of the past if the boy could not be trusted. To which the borrower replied:

"But Mr. Amo, a boy squirted water on my brother and I just want to squirt back. I don't have anything to squirt with and there are lots of them here. When I am through I'll bring the gun back, honest I will!"

While everything ended peacefully, the little chap was forced to forego his retaliation for his older brother at least for the present.

Roberts FU Has Installation

ROBERTS—The Farmers Union Tuesday night installed a new set of officers. Mrs. George Higgins, chaplain, is the only person elected to succeed herself. Mrs. Herbert Miller conducted the installation ceremony and presented the gavel to her husband, Herbert A. Miller, as a sign of his authority to preside.

Those installed were Herbert A. Miller, president; Jessie M. Iseley, secretary; George J. Leonard, conductor; and Leonard Zielke, Frank Nowak and J. W. Iseley, executive committee.

Leonard Zielke, retiring president, presided over the early part of the meeting, when reports of the county convention were given by Mrs. Iseley and Zielke. A report of the auditing committee was read and approved.

Four new members were elected, H. E. Barker, Lee Byers, Harry Williams and E. N. Graves, who will receive the obligation at the next meeting.

Grain Trading Range Narrow

CHICAGO, Jan. 12 (AP)—Grain prices fluctuated in a narrow range in the futures markets today and at the finish the May oats contract was the only one to show an important gain. Most final quotations were within minor fractions of the previous close but July rye lost as much as half a cent.

At the finish wheat was 1/4 higher to 1/2 lower than yesterday's close, May $1.64 1/2. Corn was 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, May $1.13 3/4. Oats were 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher. Rye was unchanged to off 1/4, May $1.16 1/4. Barley was off 1/4 to 1/2, May $1.16 1/2.

The wheat market was unsettled. Dealings were mostly by pit traders and prices were influenced easily.

Mt. Angel Legion Has Social Night After Meetings

MT. ANGEL—Commander Clifford Norton was honored with an informal birthday party after the post and unit meetings in the Memorial hall Tuesday night. A decorated birthday cake, presented by Mrs. Norton, centered the table. Other refreshments were served by the committee.

Another teenage party will be held Wednesday, January 17. The Legion and auxiliary jointly purchased a radio-phonograph to supply entertainment and music for dancing at these parties which are steadily growing in popularity.

The unit was presented with the gift of an alarm clock by Ed Dunn, manager of the new hardware store and will use it as a prize to raise more funds for organization.

It was announced that five dollars had been donated to the hospital at Roseburg for child welfare.

Women, School Pupils Should Help Farmers

CORVALLIS, Jan. 12 (AP)—Volunteer workers from among women and school children should help Oregon farmers again this year county farm labor assistants agreed today.

Labor shortages will continue to be the biggest problem on the state's farms and ranches, J. R. Beck, state farm labor supervisor, told agents of 16 counties. He urged farmers to hire teen-age boys to "live in" during the summer.
