Silver Wedding Celebration

MONMOUTH—The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Alisp was celebrated Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alisp here. The Alisp's two daughters, Mrs. Ronald Heater of Sweet Home, and Miss Katherine Alisp, Salem, arranged the affair as a surprise for their parents, assisted by relatives and friends. The Alisp were married January 17, in California. Mrs. Alisp was Elma Hayes of Dallas, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes.

Decorations of silvered cedar boughs in a graceful fan arrangement were on the mantel, centered by a miniature bride and groom, high-lighted with silver candles and bells. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake was arranged between white tapers, in silver candleholders. Mrs. Ronald Heater presided at a silver urn. Katherine Alisp cut the cake and Mrs. Frank Alisp cut the ices. Miss Alice Dickman of Salem and Mrs. Percy Lamb, Monmouth, assisted about the rooms.

The bride and groom renewed their vows, with S. B. Holt acting as minister; Percy Lamb as best man; Mrs. Holt was matron of honor; Mrs. Percy Lamb, bridesmaid; and Braxton Powell giving the bride away. The wedding party wore gowns, reminiscent of 25 years ago.

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War held installation of officers at the home of Mrs. William Entress on North Commercial street Wednesday. Members who took their new offices are Edith McCoy, president; Sarah Cutler, vice president; Madeline Nash, junior vice president; Mary Hilborn, chaplain; Nellie Hiday, treasurer; Effie Ulrich, Mabel Gardner and Mary Jones, council members; Bernice Luce, patriotic instructor; Alice Hornung, secretary; Mabel Lockwood, press correspondent; Margaret Ringle, guild; Nancy Skewis, guard; Bertha Bergman, assistant guard; Gaybell Dyson, Evelyn Evans, Mae Bach and Lorene Stowe, colors; Mary Entress, musician; Kitty Baumgardner, historian.

Installing officer was Mrs. Verna Gardner, Seaside, department president; and Beatrice Henry, installing guard. Commander Theodore Penland of Portland, only living GAR in Oregon, was present.
