'Champ Tussle' Added to Tuesday Mat Card

A "champ vs. champ" stuffle, one that packed 'em in and then wowed 'em at Portland when presented there awhile back, has been placed in the second main event slot for Tuesday night's armory lightheavy rasslin' party, announces Matchmaker Elton Owen. Coast Champion Jock Kiser, Mr. Popularity himself hereabouts, will toss his lightheavy capabilities against lean and lithe Gust Johnson, claimant to the coast's Junior heavy tiarr. Johnson will hold a 12pound advantage over Kiser, but the lightheavy "Tiger Man" proved in his Portland skirmish with the heavier matsters he more than makes up for it with speed and craftiness. According to Owen, a Kiser-Johnson setto makes for the swiftest catch-aseatch-can bicep bee possible. The pair battled to an hour-long draw in Portland, but their Tuesday shuffle will be limited to 30

Junior Legion Talent Bared

CHICAGO, Jan. 20-(AP)-The vast talent reservoir of the American Legion junior baseball program has been uncapped for professional baseball, now confronted by its most serious problem since World war I.

Leslie M. O'Connor, executivesecretary of the major-minor league advisory council, today announced that major and minor league clubs may conduct an fyory hunt among the more than 300,000 American Legion players between Feb. 5 and June 1. A directive explaining the modification of a previous edict by the late Commissioner K. M. Landis banning hiring of American Legion stars will be sent to all professional clubs Monday.

He said the relaxation was made with the consent and co-operation of Legion baseball of-Big-10 Fails ficials and "solely because it is ficials and "solely because it is desired to aid minor league operations in the present emergency."

For most of these athletes, the apparent answer is that they go into uniform, either for general (combat) duty or to do less exacting tasks in this country.

The army's blow landed just when persons concerned with horse racing and baseball were mapping out future plans, Baseball was prepared to confer with high government officials next week to see if some men rejected as physically unfit might be allowed to play and not required under workor-jail rules to go into war plants. Otherwise, baseball people felt that it would be extremely difficult for them to continue with only teen-age youngsters and oldsters available.

The answer here apparently is that not enough professional athletes will be rejected to make any difference in baseball's manpower

.War Mobilization Director Byrnes in his call for re-examination of pro athletes said it was difficult for him and the public to understand how men can be physically unfit for military service yet compète in the most strenarous athletics.
