Seabees Praised — Platoon Sgt. Jack Thompson, U.S. marines, who left Salem Thursday evening for Quantico, Va., told friends here that he was surprised to learn that the seabees were given such small praise for their work. "The marines," Thompson said, "have disbanded their engineers and the seabees are rendering that service for us now. Their work is superb and extremely hazardous." Thompson is taking his bride of a few days with him. He expects to be in Quantico about three more months where he is instructing in a staff and command school.

Gavel Wielders Suggest Salem Improvements

"What Salem Needs" is a city auditorium "or else the nine o'clock train time changed." This seemed the verdict of Toastmistress club members at the 6 o'clock dinner meeting at the Quella Thursday night. If the train time was changed, the whistle would not spoil concerts, members suggested.

While there was lack of unanimity of opinion regarding acquiring Bush's pasture, the need for an auditorium was stressed by several. However, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, newly-elected vice president of the group, insisted the capital city's greatest need was "More People to Eat Onions" and cited the great array of colorful and fragrant bulbs.

Other needs of the city were listed as better street lighting system and a new hotel.

First speeches were given by Lorretta Friedrich, Mrs. James W. Hartley, Mrs. Calvin Kent, Mrs. Glenn McCormick and Mrs. D. F. Blake. They spoke on "A Little Grown Up," "My Native State, Kansas," "Flowers Without Fragrance," "Preparation of Radio Script" and "Excerpts From the Life of Peck's Bad Girl."

Harryette Masonic was toastmistress and Mrs. Martin Elle was general critic. Marguerite Gleeson was table topic chairman. Mrs. Jesse Daugherty installed the new officers. Mrs. Robert DeVlieg, new president, was not present but others installed were Mrs. Walsh, Miss Frederick, treasurer and Katharine Rempel, secretary. Withdrawal of Helen Livingston as an active member because of her transfer to Boise, Idaho, was announced.

Mrs. Walsh is to be the new membership chairman and Mrs.

'Dimes' Fund Nears $500 Mark Today

Collections in the 1945 "March of Dimes" for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at the booth sponsored by Willamette university on Liberty street neared the $500 mark today, Lawrence Fisher, treasurer of the Marion county chapter of the foundation, reported.

Up to last night the collections at the booth had reached a total of $457. Receipts from other sources have not been fully reported although the campaign continues in all sections of Marion county until January 31.

Last year more than 50 million Americans participated in the fight against the polio scourge with their dimes and dollars.

During 1944 the United States experienced its second worst epidemic of infantile paralysis. New York, North Carolina, Kentucky, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan were among the many states which were hard hit. A number of cases were reported in Oregon.

In these stricken areas, representatives of the national foundation worked unceasingly with state and local health authorities to provide emergency aid, professional workers, supplies and equipment.

Julia Papenfus Dies Thursday, Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Julia Papenfus, 58, of the Roberts district, who died at a Salem hospital Thursday after an illness of four years, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Howell Edwards chapel.

Mrs. Papenfus was born in Chicago, Ill., and with her family came to Salem to reside in the Roberts district in 1915. They have engaged in farming since coming to this community.

Survivors include the widower, Barney Papenfus; two sons, John Papenfus and Joe Papenfus; and a daughter, Mrs. Florence Osborn, all of Salem; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Sezak and Mrs. Rose Stark; and four brothers, Frank, Joe, John and Charles Prohaski all of Chicago; and by six grandsons all of Salem.

The Rev. P. W. Erickson will officiate at the services and interment will be in Belcrest Memorial park.

L. O. Arens is the new program chairman.

Clothes Acquaintance

HE eternal fitness of things includes the problem of dress. Properly approached it brings rewards in great satisfaction.

YES, we know there's a war going on!

-but here's how we're trying to overcome the difficulties of wartime travel

- Our trains are longer and schedules are slower now. Space is hard to get. People frequently have to stand in line to buy tickets or to get into the dining car. In short, our service isn't what it was before the war.
- The main reason is, of course, that our volume of passenger traffic is five times that of 1940, with just about the same number of cars we had then. And, like everybody else, we are short of help.
- However, this company is determined not to just give up and blame everything on the war. Wherever possible we have taken aggressive steps to lessen the difficulties of wartime travel. For example:
 - Our "train assignment plan" for coach passengers has to a large extent eliminated overcrowding and standing on our long-distance trains. We endeavor to sell only as many seats as are on the train, and each passenger gets a reservation slip.
 - "Passenger aides," capable trained women, have been stationed on long-distance S. P. coach trains. They assist women traveling with children, help prepare "formulas" for the babies, aid the aged and infirm, and perform other services to make the journey as comfortable as possible for everyone.
- In spite of the shortage of help, we have greatly expanded telephone reservation bureaus, increased our forces handling reservations, and devised new reservation systems, which are constantly reviewed. The situation is not perfect, but it is much better than it was.
- We have increased the number of chair car porters, so that cars are now generally kept quite clean, a difficult problem because of the litter from box lunches, etc. Big trash boxes in the vestibules have helped, too.
- "Train service agents" have been added to the staffs of long-distance coach trains. These men supervise all service features on the train, direct the chair car porters, see to it that the trains are kept tidy, try to overcome difficulties and meet emergencies.

We don't claim that all our people are perfect. They're human beings, and are under the strain of crowded war conditions. By and large we think they're doing a swell job and we're proud of them.
