Stock Market Extends Gains Over 2 Points

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 .- (AP)-The stock market today extended its recovery by fractions to more than 2 points after a week devoted mainly to erasing a sizeable portion of its recent substantial reac-

Steels, rubbers and low-priced industrial specialities took over leadership at the start of the short session. Extreme advances were trimmed in the majority of cases and at the close.

Montgomery Ward was the highlight of the proceedings. Following a federal court decision at Chicago ruling that the government's selzure of this company's properties was illegal, transactions in the stock were suspended for a brief with the issue up more than a

Jersey Cattle Club Meets At Luncheon

By LILLIE MADSEN

Farm Editor, The Statesman E. Martins, who has been in Oregon five months studying dairying for the benefit of the industry in Brazil, told the Oregon Jersey Cattle club Saturday there were "much better conditions" in Oregon than in his own country. He added that sanitation methods here were far superior, Walter C. Leth, member of the American Jersey Cattle club board of directors, was toastmaster at the annual luncheon of the Oregon club Saturday noon at the Marion hotel in connection with the state meeting.

Dr. James Millar, of the federal council churches, was the featured speaker, talking of a post war world.

Charles A. Sprague, special guest of the group, spoke briefly on "some advertising of the dairy industry that it didn't altogether deserve" in reference to the undulant fever turmoil. He expressed belief that the industry would not be injured by legislation currently proposed or even, in the final analysis, by the publicity. Others introduced and who spoke briefly were Burton Hutton and George Angell of Portland,

Wanda Cooper, Clackamas county, who has 13 head of Jerseys, won the 1944 registered calf Rabbits — Government ceiling: Average country killed to retailers 35-44c; live price to producers 22-24c lb.

Grain Futures Break Snarply

CHICAGO, Jan. 27-(AP)-Liquidation and denial of rumors that the war food administration had been asked to reinstate an order requiring the use of rye in the manufacture of industrial alcohol caused a sharp break in grain futures markets today.

All opening prices were substantially below the previous close. A slight recovery was made near mid-session but the rally failed to hold.

At the finish wheat was 11/4 to 2 cents lower than yesterday's ed by the school children, their close, May $1.601/8-1/4. Corn was off % to 2, May $1.11%. Oats were 11/2 to 11/2 lower, May 65%-1/2. Rye was off 11/4 to 13/4, May Frame, DeVonia Kleeman and $1.11%-1.12. Barley was % lower. May $1.09%

200 Delegates Attending Frozen Food Conference

CORVALLIS, Jan. 27-(AP)-More than 200 delegates are attending the 24th annual canners and frozen food packers school here-an all-time high, officials reported today.

Monday through Wednesday next week will be devoted to frozen food processing, since the canning phase ended today. The attendance record was achieved because some features of the cancelled Northwest Canning association convention are included in the course, officials said.
