Brothers Meet In England After Long Separation

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England — A three year separation for two brothers, Cpl. Cecil J. and Tech. 5 Ray R. Morton, sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Morton, 399 Second st., Lebanon, Ore., ended when Corporal Ray Morton, recently arrived in England, immediately contacted his brother. Both have been serving outside the continental United States but this is the first time they have been stationed in the same country. They obtained leave to stage a reunion in London during the Christmas holidays.

Cpl. Cecil J. Morton was employed by the H & H Lumber Co., when he entered the army in May, 1942. He is now in the supply section of Brig. Gen. Jesse Auton's 65th fighter wing and was stationed at Orlando, Fla., prior to coming overseas to join the 8th air force.

Tech. 5 Ray R. Morton was an employe of the Oregon state highway department before he entered the army in January, 1942, and was stationed in Puerto Rico. He is in the artillery.

Salem Man in Pacific Club

Pictured here is a Salem man and six of his friends, who formed a "One to 110" club in the South Pacific, because they came originally from one small town in South Dakota and each represents 110 of its population. Sitting on a captured Japanese tank are (left to right) marines Cpl. Lyndell J. Smith, Cpl. Clifton H. Boehmer, whose parents live in Salem, Cpl. Milton F. Smith and Cpl. Walter C. Graves, army Cpl. George Wenande and army Lt. Leslie H. Jerenotowski, sitting at front right is marine Cpl. Robert Smith.

The men started out from Alexandria, SD, population of which is 770, and through various courses arrived at the small island at the same time. They had attended the same school, had worked and played together, then moved apart. Later the war united them. The boys had not seen each other for four years until their meeting in their Pacific outpost.

Marine Corporal Clifton Boehmer, 21, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Boehmer of route four, Box 424, Salem, formerly of Fullon, SD. He joined the marine corps in January, 1943 and since that time has participated in three major campaigns as a driver of an amphibian tractor. He was at Tarawa, Saipan and Tinian islands.

"My toughest assignment was Tarawa," said the corporal. "I made three trips from ship to beach. On the first the Japs hit my amphibian tractor. We kept her afloat and made two more trips but on the third she sank from too many holes."

DALLAS—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alderson have received word from their son, Cpl. Valmar C. Alderson who is serving with the railroad division (army) in Belgium. The letter written January 7 stated that he had not received any of his Christmas packages. Alderson spent four years in Alaska working in gold mines before the declaration of war and has been overseas one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holman have received word from their son, Sam Holman, seaman 2/c stationed in the South Pacific reporting he received all his letters and Christmas packages at once before Christmas and "so I opened them right now and had a grand old Christmas." He enlisted in the navy immediately following his graduation from the Dallas high school in May, 1941. He has not been home for 14 months.

Pvt. Ed McCann is spending a furlough in Dallas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McCann. McCann is in the army signal corps and is stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo. He entered the service August 18, 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Johnston of the Liberty district have received word from their son, Cpl. Lawrence R. Johnston that he has left his marine corps post at San Diego, and has been assigned to overseas duty. His wife who has been with him will come here later to make her home with his parents.

Sgt. Eldon Bevens of the army air force is in a hospital in France following a plane crash. A letter received by his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bevens reports. No details of his injuries were disclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Riggs have received word from their son, Richard, that he has been promoted to first lieutenant. Riggs indicated in his letter that he had been withdrawn from combat and was being sent to England for a rest period. He has been stationed in Belgium.

Marine Cpl. Frank J. Wiley, a veteran of many months in the Pacific, was recently graduated from the infantry school battalion at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif. He is now prepared for assignment as an instructor. Wiley is the son of Sgt. and Mrs. J. O. Wiley of 470 Evergreen avenue. He served on Guadalcanal, Tulagi, and New Zealand. He enlisted in 1941.

Edwin Harold Cater, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cater of 1655 South 19th street, is home on a 21-day leave. Cater, seaman 2nd class, has been in action in the Pacific. He formerly attended Salem high school and worked part-time at the Stan Baker garage.

Bob DeGross, seaman 2/c, U. S. navy, formerly of this community is hospitalized in Fort Worth, Tex.

Pvt. Ruth M. Smith of 604 South Church street, has been promoted to corporal in the WAC corps at Salinas army air base, a Fourth air force installation. She enlisted March 18, 1944 and attended Salem high school. She works in the base legal office.

First Lt. Norman Winslow has arrived in Salem from Alaska where he has been for 28 months, to spend his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Winslow. He was home on a brief leave last May.

Lt. Winslow has been stationed at Fort Richardson, Alaska, as post judge advocate, legal assistant's officer and assistant intelligence officer. Lieutenant Winslow, who has been in the army for four years, will be home for 21 days. He will report at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for reassignment.

Gold Star Honors Deceased Aviator

PORTLAND, Feb. 6 (Special)—Lt. (jg) Walter A. Dahlen, USNR, has been posthumously awarded the gold star in lieu of the second air medal for "meritorious achievement in aerial flight," the 13th naval district has announced.

His citation said the lieutenant, as pilot of a carrier-based torpedo plane during the seizure and occupation of enemy Japanese held Saipan and Tinian islands, discovered and destroyed three enemy planes on the ground and later, led a vigorous attack against Japanese troop cover, inflicting damage on hostile personnel and getting two trucks afire.

"His expert airmanship and courageous devotion to duty through these operations and during numerous skillfully executed photographic missions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States naval service."

Lt. (jg) Dahlen was the husband of Mrs. Bette June Dahlen of Salem, Ore.

ROSEDALE—Christopher Sparks, with the U. S. navy in the Pacific, is missing in action. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Sparks were notified by the navy department Tuesday. He enlisted in the navy Dec. 15, 1941, a week after Pearl Harbor. Another brother, Glenn Sparks is also in the navy.

SWEGLE—Harold Burrigh was returned to the naval training station at Farragut, after a five day leave spent with his wife and family on route six and with his mother in Portland. He has finished his first training and expects to be assigned for special training soon.

Marine Women's Reserves to Have Birthday Feb. 13

PORTLAND, Feb. 6 (Special)—The Marine Corps Women's reserve will celebrate its second anniversary February 13 with business as usual, and no fanfare will mark the day as 19,000 women quietly carry out the duties for which they were enlisted—the duties of freeing combat-trained marines to fight.

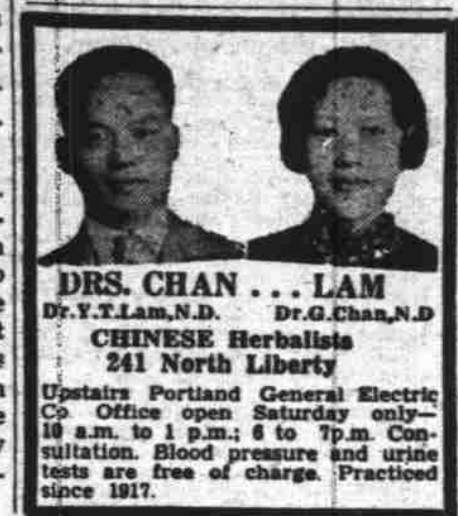

In Portland, Maj. Norris E. Lineweaver, marine recruiting officer for Oregon and southern Washington, also was permitted to announce this week that once again applicants are being sought for enlistment in the Marine Corps Women's reserve. Eligible women between 20 and 36 years of age may write him, care of 208 New US Courthouse, Portland, for information.

Posthumous Award Honors Stanley Brown

WEST SALEM—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Brown, 1043 Ruge St. have received from the war department that a purple heart medal was awarded posthumously to their son, Stanley W. Brown, who was killed in action in France, November 17.
