

Visitors Are Guests in Capital

Several interesting visitors are in the capital this week as guests of their families.

Mrs. William Reginald Walker, who will be remembered as Dorothy Blaisdell, has been here this week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blaisdell. She is leaving today for Fairfield, California, where Lt. Walker is now stationed with the army air corps. Lt. and Mrs. Walker have been residing in Memphis, Tenn., since their marriage last March.

Mrs. John W. Evans and son, John Craig, have arrived from Denver and are house guests of her husband's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Evans. They have been in Denver with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter Wilson. Major Evans is serving in the European theater of war. Mrs. Evans and her son expect to go to Portland to make their home after a three weeks' visit in the capital.

Mrs. Thomas Tongue III and son, Thomas Healy, of Portland, have been spending the past week in Salem as the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Healy. They will return to their home on Sunday.

Mrs. Kathryn Metzger of Portland, formerly of Salem, and Mrs. Katherine Louiza of Stockton, Calif., are the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander.

Mrs. Brantner Is Honored

Miss Dorothy Dalton and Miss Nyla Phillips were hostesses at a surprise shower honoring Mrs. Thomas R. Brantner Thursday night at the Jefferson street residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff E. Phillips.

Bouquets of daphne, heather and syringas decorated the room, and the gift table, covered with an ivory lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of early spring flowers. The evening was spent informally and late refreshments were served.

Honoring Mrs. Brantner were Miss Della Merk, Miss Marjorie Peterson, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Romona Lenaburg, Miss Florence Lewis, Mrs. Dick Ackley, Mrs. Ernestine Fitzjohn, Mrs. Roy Yung, Mrs. Cliff Phillips, Miss Dorothy Dalton and Miss Nyla Phillips.

Mrs. Warner Entertains

Mrs. Loyal Warner entertained a group of friends at a dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon at her home on E street. Several hours of sewing followed the luncheon hour. Later in the afternoon their first grade daughters came in after school for a tea party.

Mrs. Warner's guests were Mrs. Virgil Hume and Judy, Mrs. Marion Lamb and Deborah, Mrs. Deral Jones and Doty, Mrs. George Hill and Sandra, Mrs. Ralph Eyre and Roberta, Mrs. Mary C. Walker and Laurel Ann Warner.

Mildred Thurston Weds Navy Man

The First Christian church in Jefferson was the scene of the marriage of Miss Mildred Thurston and Mr. James Henderson, seaman second class, United States navy, Friday night at 8 o'clock. The bride's brother, Rev. Burton E. Thurston of Seattle, officiated at the ceremony. Miss Betty Louise Sinkola sang "Together," "Always" and "I'll Be Seeing You."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. K. Thurston, wore a gown of white net and satin. Her fingertip length tulle veil was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried white orchids.

Mrs. H. L. Wilson was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a white gown and carried a pastel nosegay. Bridesmaids were the Misses Pegge Wienert, Marilee McFarlane, Shirley Blackman, Jean Mary Redmond and Barbara Miller. They also wore white gowns and carried pastel nosegays.

Mr. Royal Hart was Mr. Henderson's best man. Ushers were Mr. Athol Libby, Mr. Monte Weddle, Mr. William Barna, Mr. Robert Ullman and Mr. Robert Cole.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Mary Bennett, Thyra Jean Currey, Edith Schifferer, Gaynell Cole, Lois Smith and Nyla Grenz.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches the couple will return to Jefferson to reside. The new Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of Jefferson high school and attended Willamette university. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She expects to resume her studies this spring. Her husband is also a graduate of Jefferson high school. He has been in Alaska the last 14 months and is home on three months leave.
