

Miss Hazel C. Smith, above, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith, whose engagement to Mr. Lawrence Imlah, jr., United States navy, has been announced. The groom-elect is the son of Mrs. F. G. Daugherty of Eugene and Mr. Lawrence Imlah of Salem. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Miss Smith and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. The bride-elect is serving as secretary to Senator Lee Patterson during the legislative session. Mr. Imlah, who is a gunner's mate first class, is on active duty in the South Pacific. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Miss Beulah Frantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Frantz, whose engagement to Technical Sergeant J. C. Bynum, US army, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bynum of Freeport, Texas, was revealed at a valentine party Wednesday night. Sergeant Bynum is in New Guinea with an ordnance depot company. He was stationed at Camp Adair before going overseas. (Jesten-Miller).

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand are spending the weekend in Coos Bay as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McInturf and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cutlip. Saturday afternoon Judge Brand was guest speaker at the Coos Bay AAUW meeting and in the evening attended the Coos county bar association meeting.

Legislative Visitors Are Guests

By Jerome English
Statesman Society Editor

Entertaining these February days centers around informal dinner parties and luncheons in compliment to members of the legislative contingent and groups of their Salem friends.

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding has invited guests to a six o'clock supper Sunday night at her Court street home in honor of a group of the legislative set.

The buffet table will be centered with an arrangement of violets centered with an orchid and flanked with orchid tapers in silver holders. Bouquets of lilies, daffodils and snapdragons will be arranged about the living room. Guests will be seated at small tables centered with tiny vases of freesias.

Covers will be placed for 20 guests. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Lee Patterson, wife of Senator Patterson, and Mrs. Ray Edwards (Peg Conlee). The evening hours will be spent informally.

Mrs. Duncan Luncheon Hostess

Calendared for Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons are the luncheons for which Mrs. George R. Duncan, wife of Circuit Judge Duncan, will be hostess at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. Wayne Hammett, 578 Rose street. A group of legislators' wives and Salem friends of the hostess have been invited to the 12:30 o'clock luncheons each day.

Assisting Mrs. Duncan will be Mrs. Hammett, Mrs. Laurance Siegmund and Mrs. Virgil Tuel of Stayton. Covers will be placed for 20 guests at each luncheon. Guests will be seated at individual tables with bouquets of daffodils, narcissus and acacia forming the decorative note.

Au Revoir Dinner

Mrs. Conrad P. Paulson entertained guests at a smartly arranged dinner Saturday night at her Court street home in compliment to her sister, Miss Elva Watson of Portland, who is leaving March 1 for Washington, DC, to take her training for Red Cross overseas service.

Coming from Portland for the occasion and weekend guests of Mrs. Paulson were her mother, Mrs. Thomas Watson, and sisters, Miss Nancy Watson and Mrs. Richard Adams. The evening was spent informally after the dining hour.

Teas on Washington's Birthday . . .

Highlights on the social calendar during the coming week are two large teas for which members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and members of Town and Gown will entertain on Thursday.

Town and Gown will entertain in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock. Invitations were in the mail last week to all wives of legislators to be special guests.

Miss Margaret Burroughs, dramatics instructor at Salem high school, will read George Washington's "Excerpts from Valley Forge." Mrs. David Cameron will sing a group of numbers accompanied by Miss Alice Cray Brown. Mrs. Cameron's selections are "Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, "Robin, Robin Sing Me a Song" by Charles Gilbert Spross, "Were My Song With Wings Provided" by Hahn and "Rendezvous" arranged by Strickles.

At the tea hour Mrs. Howard C. Belton of Canby, wife of the president of the senate, and Mrs. Eugene E. Marsh of McMinnville, wife of the speaker of the house, will preside at the tea.

Mrs. George Rossman heads the tea committee. Assisting will be Mrs. Percy Kelly, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Mrs. F. L. Rose, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. Harry H. Belt, Mrs. J. A. Brownson and Mrs. Roy Lockenour.

DAR Colonial Tea

Daughters of the American Revolution will be hostesses for their annual colonial tea on George Washington's birthday Thursday afternoon. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. John H. Carkin, 495 North Summer street, from 3 to 6 o'clock. A special invitation has been extended to wives of legislators and all interested Salem women are invited to attend the affair.

Guests will be greeted at the door by Mrs. Carey F. Martin. The door will be opened by little Meredith Jean Huggins. Receiving the guests will be Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. John H. Carkin.

A silver offering will be taken for the special DAR projects. Among these are the student nurse fund, buying of books for the Chemawa Indian school, restoration of a room in the Hoover home at Newberg, and assisting the two DAR approved schools, for mountain whites located at Grant, Alabama, and Tamassee, SC. Mrs. Lewis Griffith will be in charge of the silver offering.

Mrs. H. William Thielsen is in charge of the dining room and inviting guests into the dining room will be Mrs. R. D. Paris.

Mrs. C. A. Sprague and Mrs. Oscar Harty of Dallas, will preside at the urns the first hour and Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. U. G. Shipley the second hour. Mrs. Harmon Darley and Mrs. Herman Likes from Stayton and Mrs. Willis Danforth will assist with the serving. The table will be covered with a white grass cloth and will have a centerpiece in red, white and blue, carrying out the patriotic motif of the day. Spring flowers will be used about the rooms.

During the afternoon the girls chorus from Hillcrest school will present several numbers. Mrs. W. E. Hanson will give her original skit, "Women in Oregon History." She will introduce each character with a few remarks of history. Mrs. E. A. Jory will appear as Sacajawea, wearing an original Indian costume loaned by the Chemawa Indian school; Mrs. U. G. Shipley as Narcissa Whitman, wearing a calico dress, worn by the great grandmother of Miss Oda Chapman; Mrs. H. J. Ostlund, as Chloe Willson, wearing a black lace dress that belonged to her grandmother; Miss Ruth Rullison as Tabitha Brown, wearing a pin-striped black woolen dress with a brocade cape, which also belonged to Mrs. Ostlund's grandmother; and Mrs. David Wright as Mrs. Abigail Duniway wearing a dress with overskirt trimmed with handmade lace, and a fringed shawl made and purchased in Paris, which belonged to the grandmother of Mrs. E. P. Grier.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills and Mrs. Lewis Griffith are co-chairmen of the committee in charge, assisted by Mrs. William Thielsen and Mrs. M. A. Pekar.

Mrs. Howard L. Jenks who with her husband, Lt. Jenks, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Jenks. Mrs. Jenks is the former Teddie Ashton, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Ashton, of London. The couple's wedding took place in London last June. Lt. Jenks is home on leave after having completed his missions. They will leave next week for Spokane, where Lt. Jenks will rest at the army air force hospital at Ft. George Wright field.

Mrs. John W. Evans and her son, John Craig Evans who has arrived from Denver and are visiting at the home of her husband's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Evans. Mrs. Evans and her son have been spending the winter in Denver with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter Wilson. Major Evans is serving in the European theatre of war. Major and Mrs. Evans resided in Salem before he entered the service. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. and Mrs. James Moody-Ross are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Rosabelle Elizabeth Ross, above, to Mr. James Roger White, aviation ordnance man second class in the navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deloss White. The groom-elect is stationed at the naval air station, Miami, Fla.

No date has been set for the wedding, though it is planned for early spring.

Both young people are graduates of Salem high school. Miss Ross is now a freshman at Willamette university. Mr. White has been in the navy for two years. (Jesten-Miller).

To Greet Army Couple

Slated for this afternoon is the large at home for which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiedmer will be hosts at the former's residence on Market street in compliment to Sergeant and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, jr. (Helen Wiedmer). The army sergeant recently returned from the Mediterranean theatre of war. Calling hours are from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Shirley Bier will greet guests at the door. The hosts will receive informally with Sergeant and Mrs. Devers. Presiding at the serving table during the afternoon will be Mrs. George Maurer, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mrs. James H. Nicholson, jr., and Mrs. Meredith Huggins.

Sgt. and Mrs. Devers are leaving March 2 for Columbia, South Carolina where he will report for assignment.

Spring bride-elect is Miss Werna Froehlich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Froehlich, whose betrothal to Mr. Allison Klug, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Klug of Independence, has been revealed.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Willamette university. On February 5 she graduated from the Emanuel hospital School of Nursing and is now on the nursing staff at the Salem General hospital. Mr. Klug attended Nebraska schools and is now associated with the Dairy Cooperative association. (Kennell-Ellis).

Going Places . . .

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell and son, Timothy, are spending the weekend at Fort Stevens as guests of Lt. Col. and Mrs. George E. Iterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert W. Roberts and son, Jimmy, are in Portland for the weekend as guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Roberts.

Miss Sally McLellan of Corvallis is here for the weekend as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLellan.

Expected in the capital Tuesday are Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Sawyer of Annonacle, Minnesota, who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham.

Mrs. Ronald Stewart Haines and sons, Ronald Scott and David Stewart are leaving this week for Coeur d'Alene, Idaho to join Lt. Cmdr. Haines, who is stationed at Farragut.

A welcomed newcomer in the capital is Mrs. Clyde Everett, who recently came here with Mr. Everett from Oakland, California to reside. Mr. Everett is superintendent of the Oregon Flax Textiles here. The Everetts are residing at 1336 Center street. (Kennell-Ellis).