

Indians Trim Detroit Five

CHEMAWA—Smothering Detroit high under a barrage of baskets here last night, the Chemawa Indians copped the Marion county "B" basketball title with a 63 to 20 win. It was the second straight win for the Redskins in a best two out of three series, and earns them the right to take on St. Johns high of Milwaukie next week in the sub-district eliminations.

The outcome was never in doubt last night, with Chemawa throwing a blanket defense at the Lions and galloping to a 38 to 9 half-time lead. Buck Logan was the offensive leader tossing in 22 points, while Chet Ashman and Merle Williams each canned an even dozen.

In the prelin Chemawa's Pa-poozes won the "B" team championship of the Duration league by beating the Tomalla reserves 35 to 31 with Tommy Williams hitting 11 points for high point honors. Each team had beaten the other once in the regular season's play.

SPORTSLIGHTNER

way to making it two straight with the basketball team.

In case you haven't noticed, Coach "Chief" Thompson's gang has captured the flag in the Marion county race. The Indian kids are now hot half-a-dozen games away from the district B-1 berth in the state tourney, and from what we've seen of other class B units hereabouts this season, there's nothing much which says the ex-Oregon State fullback won't herd his team smack into the blue-ribbon classic next month.

Statistically, Chemawa has won 23 and lost only five games this season, four of the five losses to class "A" schools. Up until Woodburn's Duration champs toppled 'em Friday night, the Indians had captured 11 in a row, including two lopsided nods over both Stayton and Silverton, class "A" schools awaiting district 11 tourney play. Better still in this giant-killing field, the Indians trounced strong Lebanon two weeks ago on the Warriors' own floor.

Not a big ball club as basketball teams go, the Indians more than offset this with a well-balanced scoring attack. The Redskins, and there's but eight of 'em on the team, seem to divvy up the scoring from game to game. One night swift little Bill Yallup, an excellent ball-handler, incidentally, will lead the way. The next night it might be Howard Logan, a 5-foot 10-inch, or Chet Ashman, 6-foot 1-inch center. Then lanky 6-footer Merle Williams, the football triple-threat, takes over the next night or shares with Calvin Picard, another 6-footer. Bob Satacus gets in his share also, as does Sylvester Minthorn. All were members of Thompson's "T" touring championship football team.

Whether they make the state tourney or not remains to be seen. Even if they upset the dope and fail to make it, they'll have nonetheless played a successful season. The Indians finished second in the "A" Duration circuit—not at all bad for a class "B" school.

And from the looks of Thompson's Be team basketball material and the underdogs on last fall's championship grid eleven (10 of the 11 starters), the Indians stand a fine chance of holding that regained spot in the sun for quite a spell.

Final Duration Scoring Facts

WOODBURN—With two players Center Bill Austin and Guard Charley Sauvain of Woodburn setting new records, the individual scoring derby in the 1945 Duration league came to a close with the circuit season Friday night. Austin took over the championship throne with 150 points in 10 games, 15 per game, realized via 62 field goals and 26 free throws. The mark better by 15 points the 135 record set by Sauvain last year.

Sauvain himself topped his last year's mark with 138 points, 57 field goals and 24 free tosses. The pair will form a formidable scoring combine in the district tourney this week at Mt. Angel.

Little Dale Bennett of Silverton wound up third in the race with 117 points and ended at three the number of players topping the 100 mark. The final scoring standings for the top 10 players:

Dempsey Avers Champion Louis Should Retire on Throne Now

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Commander Jack Dempsey said today that if he were in Joe Louis' shoes he would "retire now as an undefeated champion with all the fame that goes with such distinction."

The old manassa mauler, here enroute to the South Pacific on a tour of inspection in his capacity as head of the U. S. coast guard's physical education and recreation program, described Louis as "an outstanding champion who has never stalled about defending his title."

"Louis is in the army and there is no telling when he will become a civilian again. That's why I think he should retire now as an undefeated champion. He won't be the same fighter when he gets out of the service."

"Perhaps he will be good enough to whip whatever opposition is around but eventually some young fellow with a punch in his fists and no fear in his heart because he is meeting the champ, will knock him stiff."

Dempsey expressed the opinion the next heavyweight champion would not come out of the war. "The present crop of boys are too busy fighting for their country to become boxing championship timber. I think it will be some kid, too young for the war, who will be the next titleholder. It takes long ring experience to get up to the top."

O. O. McIntyre at one time was Florenz Ziegfeld's press agent.

Amerk Loop 'Red Book' Out: Rosters Listed for Entries

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—(AP)—A harbinger of spring and the good, old summer time, the Red Book of the American League—hopefully listing who's who in the junior circuit for the 1945 season—was released today by the league's service bureau.

The sixteenth edition of the Red Book, dedicated to "every American league player in the armed forces, and especially to those who have made the supreme sacrifice," counts 274 players on the active list and 248 on the military honor roll.

How many of the 274 potential performers will don flannels or long respond to the familiar "play ball" after the season opens in late April can only be answered by selective service and congress which now is studying work-or-fight legislation. Whatever the fate of the 1945 big league season, the junior circuit at the moment is prepared to make a go of its fourth wartime campaign.

The Washington Senators drawing upon Cuba for 11 players and Venezuela for another, has the largest squad roster with 41 candidates. The Cleveland Indians are next with 29, followed by the Chicago White Sox, who have 36.

The champion St. Louis Browns and the Detroit Tigers, who lost the pennant on the final day, have 34 each. The New York Yankees list 32 players, while the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics have 29 each.

Warriors Cop Tourney

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 24.—(CP)—Fort Lewis Warriors took first money in the international invitation basketball tournament here tonight defeating Seattle Alpines 34-32. They will receive a $200 war bond.
