Bridal Party Told . . .

Miss Amy MacGregor, bride-elect of Aviation Cadet Robert Bell, United States navy, is announcing plans this weekend for her marriage. The wedding will take place in Spokane on Saturday, March 10 at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

The bride-to-be, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. MacGregor of Salem, has asked her three sisters to be members of her bridal party. Mrs. Frank Vernon of Spokane will be the matron of honor. Miss Phyllis and Miss Fern MacGregor will be bridesmaids.

Lt. Thomas Bell, who recently received his commission in the army air corps, will stand as best man for his brother.

The wedding reception will be held at the home of the groom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bell, in Spokane.

Miss MacGregor is leaving this coming weekend for Spokane to be a guest at the Bell home. Her family will go north a few days before the ceremony.

Cadet Bell, who will receive his naval air corps wings and ensign's commission on February 28 at Corpus Christi, Texas, expects to arrive in Spokane early in March.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of the University of Idaho and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is a member of the Salem Spinsters. She has been employed at state selective service headquarters here. Her fiance attended the University of Washington before entering the service. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Washington Coeds Visit

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown E. Sisson on Center street was the scene of a gala informal tea Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Sisson entertained for her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Sisson, and her house guests.

Miss Sisson, who is home from the University of Washington in Seattle for the spring vacation, has three of her Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters as her guests for the week. They include Miss Jean King of Entiat, Wash., Miss Roberta Huffman of Wenatchee and Miss Juanita Copley of Linden, Wash. Miss Sisson was recently elected president of her sorority for the coming year.

Miss Nancy Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, arrived in the capital Saturday from Seattle, where she is a freshman at the University of Washington and a Pi Beta Phi. She also will be here for the week and has several sorority sisters as guests.

A group of Miss Sisson's Salem friends called at 4 o'clock to meet the University of Washington co-eds.
