Albany Red Cross Is Half Finished, Co. Unreported

ALBANY—Although Albany did not come through by March 3 with the 1945 quota of $13,500 for the Red Cross drive, it did raise more than half of that amount, Pat Ryan, chairman, reported $7,694.61 had been turned in by those soliciting funds. Of the amount collected so far, $2,900 was raised in the residential section of the city, which is $200 more than was acquired in the residence solicitation in 1944. It is expected that at least $3500 will be received from this source by the end of the drive, March 15.

County returns have not been announced yet. Clifford Knodell is county drive chairman. The entire county quota is $25,000.

Chairman

Peter Gores, who is chairman of the 1945 Red Cross War Fund committee for Mt. Angel, where 38 workers are now out raising the $2240 quota.

Hughes Buys Indian Land

DALLAS — A land transaction of considerable interest was completed recently between P. H. Hughes, local hop man and the U. S. Indian Service of Seattle, when Hughes purchased 80 acres of Indian land lying between the Dorchester House and Oceanlake on both sides of the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes plan to move to Oceanlake in the near future where he will take charge of the laying out and disposal of the land, which is undeveloped. H. L. McMurphy, a partner, will be in charge of the four Hughes hopyards near Dallas.

Valley Obituaries

Ann May Sheehan
ALBANY—Mrs. Anna May Sheehan, 54, died at her home in this city Saturday. Funeral services were held Tuesday, Rev. Edward Terry in charge. Burial was in Riverside.

Anna Hanney was born Oct. 3, 1890, in Alida, Kan., and was married in that state to P. J. Sheehan in 1930. Following their marriage they came to Albany where they had since resided with the exception of a time spent in South America while Mr. Sheehan was engaged there in government business.

Surviving besides the widower is a son, Bob at home. Also two brothers, Sam and Fred Hanney, and two sisters, Mrs. India James and Mrs. Rose Gfoller, all living in Kansas.

Rachel Dallen

ALBANY—Funeral services for Mrs. Rachel D. Allen, 76, who died in the Albany General hospital Sunday afternoon, March 4, were held Tuesday, March 6, Christian Science services were conducted by Grover Ferguson, CS of Salem.

Mrs. Allen was the widow of the late Frank E. Allen, who came to Albany in 1886, and two years later opened a grocery and hardware which he conducted until 1905, when they moved to Marshfield.

Born August 24, 1868, in Toronto, Canada, the daughter of John and Rebecca Noble Dumond, Rachel Dumond moved to Saulte St. Marie, Mich., when a young girl. She taught school in Michigan for a short time before coming to Oregon with her parents, who located in Albany about 1889. On November 25, 1890, she was married to Frank E. Allen.

During their residence in Albany both Mr. and Mrs. Allen were active in the civic life of the community, and for many years were leaders in the Methodist church here. Mrs. Allen was a charter member of Manzanita Circle. Neighbors of Woodcraft of Albany, and was matron of Barzilai chapter, Order of Eastern Star in 1898, and while residing in Marshfield served as matron of Doris chapter, OES in 1914.

Following the death of Mr. Allen, Mrs. Allen moved to Salem, in 1936, and two years ago returned to Albany to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Herndon. Surviving also are a son, Donald D. Allen of Portland, and a stepson, Jack E. Allen of Pendleton, a brother, J. A. Dumond of Albany, and a granddaughter, Marylou Hernden of Albany. Mrs. Allen was a sister of the late Mrs. Joel C. Mayer of Lebanon.
