Melton Sings Oregonian's Song

When James Melton sings in Salem on Monday night, he will include a special number on his program, "The Farmer's Son", words for which were written by Mrs. George N. Christenson of Silverton, and music by John Tasker Howard, composer.

A letter from Lawrence Evans, vice president of the Columbia Concerts to Mrs. Max Rogers, secretary of the local association, says that Mr. Melton will include this as an encore.

Many Salem folk heard Mr. Melton sing this number about a year ago on the radio, when an explanation of the song, and an acknowledgment of the author of the words was made.

Mrs. Christenson is a member of the community concert series, and if her two lieutenant sons are at home, will attend with them.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck (Josephine McGilchrist) on the birth of a son, William Peter, Tuesday night at the Salem General hospital. The little boy weighed seven pounds and fifteen ounces. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., and Mrs. A. H. Buck of St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Pauline Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, will arrive Friday from Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma to spend the spring vacation in the capital. She will be met in Portland by her mother, who has been spending several days there. Miss Wallace will return to her studies on March 26.
