

Committees Meet With Miss Hill

Miss Ruth Hill, regional YWCA secretary for the northwest, who has been advising the local YWCA, will leave Sunday for Eugene, where she is advising newly organized YWCA there. While in Salem, she met with the local board, YMCA board, and various committees of the association. Thursday she met those concerned with the membership policies and local structure in relation to the national postwar YWCA. Friday Miss Hill met with Miss Isabel Childs, chairman of public affairs, to organize a committee of adults, business girls, and Tri-Y girls to discuss the public affairs policies of the national movement.

The membership committee with Mrs. George Swift as chairman, worked on the plan for smaller neighborhood meetings, to better keep informed on the local program and take action on current membership concerns.

On Friday night representatives of the business girls, Girl Reserves, student YWCA and members at large worked on the YWCA program in its entirety and discussed the present trends nationally. They also discussed the problems of volunteer and staff leadership in associations throughout the United States.

This afternoon, Mrs. G. A. Reeher with her Girl Reserve committee will meet with Miss Hill on the younger girls' program and its relationship to the whole YWCA.

The association is planning a series of membership discussion groups on public affairs, volunteer and professional leadership, the international picture of the YWCA, and on national support.

On or about April 14, the YWCA throughout the country will bring all members to community meetings to act upon national YWCA programs and policies. This is the national experiment of carrying out the action of the convention which was cancelled for this year. Only YWCA members will attend this meeting, though the discussion groups will be open to all interested. A definite date will be announced later.

Council Women Hear Speaker

The Salem Council of Women's organizations, meeting at the First Methodist church on Thursday, heard Lt. Col. Meredith Huggins give a comprehensive discussion of life on the battle front, suggesting that people at home should know more about how fighting men live.

Col. Huggins told of his life as a trainee, and discussed how the Australians entertained the Americans upon arrival there. He talked on Port Moresby and New Guinea, telling about native life there. He described landing on enemy beaches and how it is accomplished, and what is done when a beachhead is established.

Mrs. Mabel Lockwood read 17 resolutions adopted at the patriotic conference in Washington, D.C. Mrs. Verne Ostrander announced that headquarters for the scrapbook committee is at Penney's, and an invitation was received for a silver tea to be given by the DAV auxiliary. Mrs. Albert J. Walker presided at the meeting.

TALBOT — The Sidney-Talbot Home Extension club held meeting with Mrs. A. R. Blinston last Tuesday. A short business meeting was in charge of Mrs. E. J. Freeman, the chairman. Miss Marjorie Tye was present and gave a demonstration on "Short Cuts in Home Sewing." Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Zehner, Mrs. Edna Reeves and Mrs. Blinston to about 20 members.

The next meeting will be held April 7 at Mrs. Nelson Gilmore's home with Mrs. George Marlatt and Mrs. Elmo Brown assisting.

Mrs. Lee Patterson, wife of Senator Patterson, was in Portland Thursday night to attend the James Melton concert.

Mrs. Paul Hanson was a luncheon and bridge hostess Thursday afternoon at her South Commercial street home in honor of members of her club.

Mrs. E. W. Zevely of Prineville is visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mapes.

Two Willamette Coeds Tell Betrothals to Salem Men At Dinner Party Friday

Two popular Willamette university coeds, Miss Leona Tingelstad and Miss Marilyn Nelson, caused much excitement at the dinner they gave Friday night when they revealed their engagements. Miss Tingelstad is betrothed to Mr. John William Stortz, and Miss Nelson is engaged to Mr. Val Dare Sloper, jr. No dates have been set for the weddings of the two couples.

Miss Tingelstad is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Tingelstad and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stortz, all of Salem. Miss Nelson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nelson and Mr. Sloper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, also of Salem.

A group of the hostesses friends were invited to dinner in the Marine Room of the Marion hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Individual cards, bearing the names of the betrothed couples, which marked places for the guests revealed the news.

The centerpiece on the U shaped table was a large shamrock of white stock, carnations and snapdragons bordered with green carnations. Extending from the shamrock were silver streamers bearing floral Greek emblems, Delta Phi and Sigma Tau. The side tables were decorated with arrangements of white carnations, green fern and green tapers.

Bidden to Hear the News
Covers were placed for Mrs. M. Tingelstad, Mrs. C. S. Nelson, Mrs. Ed Stortz, Mrs. W. E. Brown, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Virginia Case, Miss Coralee Nichols, Miss Phyllis Ryan, Miss Ruth Wahlgren, Miss Louise Wisley, Miss Nancy Hoak, Miss Donna Shaffer, Miss Janice Patterson, Miss Clarice Busselle, Miss Lorraine Murdock, Miss Bette Burkhart, Miss Melva Williamson, Miss Dolores Schmiener, Miss Ruth Nelson, Mrs. James Henderson, Miss Margaret Peterson of Portland, Miss Leona Tingelstad and Miss Marilyn Nelson.

The brides-elect and their fiancés are all graduates of Salem high school. Miss Tingelstad and Miss Nelson are sophomores at Willamette university and members of Delta Phi sorority. Miss Tingelstad was voted the war bond queen on the campus this winter.

Mr. Stortz is a junior at Willamette and a member of Sigma Tau and Blue Key. He recently was elected manager of this year's May weekend. Mr. Sloper is a senior at Willamette and also a Sigma Tau. He is major-

At Home Will Be Event of Wednesday

Cards will be in the mail today to an at home for which Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches will be hosts at their South High street residence on Wednesday night, March 21.

The affair is being arranged in compliment to the silver wedding anniversary of the hosts. A large number of their friends have been invited to call between 7 and 11 o'clock.

Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary met Monday at the hall. During the business meeting, at which Mrs. Charles Hunt presided, the group voted $50 to the National Home at Cedar Rapids, Mich., and $25 to the Red Cross. Mrs. Alma Dickey was installed a color bearer. Twenty-one applications for membership have been received, said a report. The next meeting will be March 26.

ing in political science and will enter the University of Oregon law school in the fall.

Mrs. Cornett Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Carl Coad of Nyssa, who formerly made her home in Klamath Falls, was hostess for an informal luncheon at the Marion hotel Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett of Klamath Falls, wife of Senator Cornett, who is spending the closing days of the legislature in Salem. Mrs. Coad has been here during the session as secretary to Rep. Henry Semon of Klamath Falls.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Mrs. Ralph E. Moody, Mrs. William Niskanen of Bend, Representative Rose Poole of Klamath Falls, Mrs. R. C. Friable of Baker, Mrs. Virgil C. Staples of Ontario, Miss Mary Truelove and Mrs. Carl Coad.

Music Now Today

Saturdays are crowding Sundays for good program schedules on the air. Here is the list for today:

From 11 to 2:30 (Blue) The Metropolitan will present a full length opera.

2 p. m. (CBS) The Philadelphia orchestra, with Alexander Hillsberg, violinist, and Eugene Ormandy, conductor, will be heard in McDonald's concerto for violin and orchestra. The program also includes Rossini's overture to "Semoranda," The Mendelssohn "Scherzo in G minor" and the prelude and "Love Death" from "Tristan and Isolde."

At 1:30 over KSLM will be heard Richard Dyer Bennett, young English ballad singer with other vocalists on the "Music for Half and Hour" program.

Station KSLM also offers the Detroit Symphony under the direction of Karl Krueger and cellist George Mequille in a presentation of a concert for 'cello and orchestra by Lalo and the music of Mozart, Prokofieff and Wagner from 5:30 to 6:30 today.

Pi Phi Alumnae Name Officers

Pi Beta Phi alumnae were entertained at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. James Humphrey Thursday night. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, Mrs. Russell Melford, Mrs. Paul Morse and Mrs. Berkeley DuVaul. A dessert supper was served by the hostesses to forty alumnae. Arrangements of daphne and phlox provided the decorative note on the supper table and about the rooms.

Mr. Elbert W. Roberts was elected president of the Salem alumnae club during the business meeting. Mrs. James T. Brand is the retiring president. Other officers elected were Mrs. Marion Mulkey, vice-president; Mrs. Phillip Blake, treasurer; Mrs. Wolcott Buren, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Barnes, recording secretary.

During the evening there was a display of Pi Phi settlement school products from Gatlinburg, Tenn. Announcement was made of the benefit bridge party for which pledges of Oregon Gamma chapter of Pi Beta Phi on the Willamette campus will be hostesses Thursday, March 22. Proceeds will go to the national physiotherapy fund.

Margaret Newton Bowns Are Dinner Hostess

Miss Margaret Newton was hostess for an informal gathering preceding the Friday night tournament games at her apartment at the Royal Court. A no-host dinner was served with the St. Patrick motif used in the table appointments.

Covers were placed for Misses Jane Carson, Peggy Sears, Gloria and Barbara McClintock, Cathy Moran, Patsy Nickens, Peggy Paxson and Margaret Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Orval Eastridge (Adele Amort) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son Friday, March 16, at the Salem general hospital. The little boy has an older brother, Charles.

Guests of Mrs. Glenn Fraser at the Clifton Ross home this week have been Mrs. Fraser's brother-in-law and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fraser, of New Westminster, British Columbia.
