

Oregon Prep Coaches Pow-Wow, Recommend Athletic Changes

The Oregon High School Coaches association sat in on their annual banquet meeting in conjunction with the state hoop tourney yesterday beneath the Senator hotel, and after listening to lengthy reports adopted a flock of recommendations for changes in the state's prep athletic setup. The recommendations will now be forwarded to the Oregon High Schools Activities association board of control for approval.

Well over 50 coaches recommended that a new district set-up in basketball be brought about as soon as possible, returning the state to the prewar 16-district system instead of the present eight. It was pointed out that no travel distances have been saved by the 8-team plan. Travel enticements were listed as original reasons for the slaughtering of the hoop district field. The coaches also recommended that a basketball officials' school be established before the start of each season, same to be conducted by the OHSAA. Statewide uniformity in whistle-blowing is sought, Marble Cook, unattached, is chairman of the basketball committee.

Track Committee Chairman Al Bogus of Hillsboro heard recommendations from the body that additional events be added to the annual Hayward Relays, A, B and C divisions, and that the annual state meet, held alternately between the University of Oregon and Oregon State college be moved back one week on the calendar, starting in 1946. These recommendations will also be sent to the board of control for adoption.

Cecé Sherwood of LaGrande and Marble Cook offered a lengthy report on the possibility of redistricting the entire state for the annual grid championship. An eight-district plan was tentatively sketched and referred to the committee for further probing before reaching the OHSAA chiefs. The coaches are not at all pleased with the present method of determining which teams play for the title. It was pointed out that as many as 40 schools were in one district, while only nine were in another.

Dan Jones of Oregon City presided over the meeting as president. Claude Cooke of Bend is secretary.

Colonials in Final Battle With Pioneers

while OC rang the bell, and the Pioneers took over the lead at 9-8 with 5:20 gone. Buckets by Captain Bob Watson and Darrell Riggs just before the gun gave it back to Medford, however, 12-9.

Coach Al Simpson's crew again took the initiative in the second frame and galloped the lead to 18-9 before Oregon City, now making numerous Medford fouls pay off, finally crept up once more. Dick Fawcett hit with 5:30 gone to push Medford 21-14 out front and moments later Big Riggs made it 24-17 for the half.

But all the while Medford was being tooted down for fouling—especially Riggs. And Riggs was outbattling OC's 6-foot 5-inch Len Rineason for rebounds that first half, netting the Tornado an advantage. It was the lull before the storm for Medford, for exactly 1:40 into the third frame Riggs went out with his allotment of infractions. Immediately the so-far out-gunned Pioneers went to work.

Little Art Jones was the lad who stepped forth mostly for OC, and with a staccato of hits at Medford's basket, almost personally pulled the Pioneers up even and across the hump at the third quarter. Jones hit four straight field goals after Rineason had potted a pair, and then it was Bob Misley and Rineason again on fast break and tip-in who gave the Pioneers the 34-32 lead. Rineason was now gathering in most of the important rebounds and starting the Pioneer scoring plays.

With Medford again off key after Howie Whillcock pivoted one in from the key to regain a 37-35 lead, Keith Bakum, Rineason and Misley scored to push OC in front again, 39-37, with 3:15 left. Bakum holed out a follow-up for 41-38 with 1:20 left, and then after Jones, Misley and Bakum fouled out in the rough battle, Jerry Ross brought Medford up to 39-41 and then 40-41 with two free tosses. For another minute it was up-and-down, up-and-down, but no scoring as the seconds ticked to the finish line. Medford had two desperation shots near the end, but missed both by inches.

Losing Riggs hurt plenty, and

Tornado in Action

Gathering rebounds, a favorite pastime in the state tourney at Willamette this week, is just what Medford and Vernonia are attempting in this shot. Larry Hayes (6) and Darrell Riggs (facing Hayes) seem to be doing okay for Medford while Captain Bob Watson (4) looks on. Vernonia's distinguishable are Fred Larson (3), Duke Byers (6) and Ralph Sturdevant (outstretched hand at right).

it was just what the doc ordered for OC.

In field goals scored, Medford had 15 to OC's 14, but the Pioneers countered with 13 free tosses made good to Medford's 10. "Rhino" Rineason, a goose-egg his in the scoring column against Hillsboro Thursday night, roared back with 14 last night to lead scoring. Jones had 11, just as many as were gathered by Dick Fawcett of the now-deflated Tornado.

The victory gained Oregon City her first finals date in history in the tourney. The Pioneers were here nine straight years before this, but always faded out. This time her highly rated Red and Whites can get no worse than second place, something the school has never had before.

It was a bitter pill for Simpson, for he was shooting for a third straight state championship after grabbing one with Ashland last year in basketball and another

Suarez Wins Bout on Foul

Rough Tactics Cost Hudson Portland Go

PORTLAND, March 16—(AP)—Johnny Suarez, 140-pound Oregon welterweight king, won on a foul in the eighth round from Cecil Hudson, 145, San Jose negro, in the main boxing event at the Public auditorium here tonight.

Hudson was disqualified for hitting Suarez in a break, knocking him down. Until then, the two were evenly matched, although the Californian's rough tactics won disapproval. Referee Ralph Gruman warned Hudson several times against hitting low.

In the semi-windup, Dave Johnson, 197, Portland, kayoed Sam Glover, 200, Milwaukee, Wis., in the first round. Kelly Jackson, 146, Portland, scored a 5th round TKO over Norman Finch, 149, Vancouver, and Leo Sherlock, 159, Portland, won a TKO in the 6th from L'il Abner, 152, Vanport.

Malaria Film Shown Women At Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Mrs. C. J. Thurston entertained members of the Jefferson Women's club Wednesday in the library rooms. Bouquets of early spring flowers were placed about the room. The club voted to donate $5 to the Red Cross. Mrs. Kenneth Brown was approved as a member of the club, and Mrs. Alfred Powell was proposed for membership. The club accepted an invitation to attend the club meeting at Aumsville, and several members plan to attend.

Mrs. Ruby Bergsvik and Miss Smith of the county health association were guests and showed two films; one on malaria produced by Walt Disney showing how "malaria causing" mosquitoes may be controlled. Of special interest, because in this part of Marion county a few mosquitoes of this type have been found.

The other film, "The New Oregon Trail," by the Oregon State highway association, showed scenes and playgrounds of the state. Eighteen members were present.

Phillips 66, Denver Liked

DENVER, March 16—(AP)—The champion Phillips 66 team and the Denver entry, co-finalists in six of the last eight tournaments, again appeared the teams to beat as quintets started to arrive in Denver for the 1945 National AAU basketball championship opening Sunday. The final game will be played March 24.

Also regarded as serious contenders for the 1945 title are Cessna Aircraft Bobcats of Wichita, Kan., 20th Century Fox of Hollywood, the San Diego, Calif. Dons, and the two Pacific Northwest entries, Fees Music Makers of Portland, and the Fort Lewis, Army team.

Noble Grands Club Meeting Held Tuesday

JEFFERSON—The Past Noble Grands club of Mt. Jefferson lodge met Tuesday.

The club donated two dollars toward the Red Cross.

Ada Wells and Lillian Smith were winners in two contests. Later members pieced blocks for the club quilt.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostesses, at a table decorated with the Red Cross design. The centerpiece was the world globe, surrounded by Red Cross emblems; and tapers in red, white and blue colors. Also a large doll dressed as a Red Cross nurse occupied a place on the table.

Club members present were Neva Kester, Grace Thurston, Nellie Fidler, Bertha Carl, Nettie Hawk, Millie Bilyeu, Mrs. C. M. Cochran, Ada Wells, and the hostesses. Mrs. Weavill was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Nettie Hawk and Mrs. Bertha Carl will be hostesses for the next meeting.

State Tournament Highlights As Seen by the Scorekeeper

By Bob Keuscher (Official Tournament Scorekeeper)

Top thrill of Thursday's play at the hoop classic was seeing husky Clyde DeWitt, Reedsport's one-man-gang, step nonchalantly up to the free throw line with just seven seconds to play and toss in his 34th point in the game with Arlington and by-so-doing breaking the all-time individual scoring record for a single tournament game. DeWitt hit 12 goals from the field and 10 free throws for his 34 markers, bettering by one point the record of 33 points set by Curt Luckey of Springfield last year.

DeWitt's record wasn't made without a determined effort to keep him from scoring, either. So anxious were the Honkers to stop the Reedsport ace, they fouled him repeatedly. DeWitt had 16 free shots all told, making 10, including the last four in a row when the pressure was decidedly "on".

DeWitt's feat in one game

Spring Valley Program Is Given by Children

SPRING VALLEY—The March meeting of Spring Valley community club had a miscellaneous program presented. The school children sang a group of songs, accompanied by Joy Zeller, readings were by Jimmy, Harold and Eleanor Waldron, and Ruth Ann Sasmlich and Joy Zeller gave piano and accordion selections. The supper committee included Mr. and Mrs. F. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Weinberg and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daley.
