To Patch's Men: Patton's Forces
Take Worms in Lightning Stab

BY AUSTIN HELMER
PARIS, Wednesday, March 21—(AP)—The U.S. Seventh and Third armies formed a junction in the Saarland yesterday in a great coordinated assault that virtually wiped out the west of the Rhine and exposed the historic cities of Saarbrucken, Zuebwehraken and Worms.

Contact between the two allies was made at a point about 12 mile west of Kaisersberg by elements of the Ber-nsteyn, the 5th Corps, and the 3rd and 7th infantry divisions.

Saarbrucken, a city of 110,000 population and the capital and economic center of the industrial Saar, fell to Lt.

French planes on the Rhine at noon crossed the river near Saarbrucken at noon yesterday as the German defenders were driven to the city's outskirts.

German would Be Left With Working, Balanced Economy

BY FRED LEBLON

The German people will have a working, balanced economy when the war is over, it was announced by Dr. Wilhelm Wil-13000 lam, a leading economic analyst in Germany.

The German economy will be based on a system of socialistic planning, he said.
