IN THE... ★ Nation's Service

Lt. Glenn Emanuel Pavey, son of Lulu M. Pavey, 1140 North Fifth st., was killed in an aircraft accident on Saipan on February 23. He was co-pilot on a B-29 stationed on Saipan, had flown his first mission over Tokyo on Christmas eve, 1944, and had been in the air corps for three years. A Salem high school graduate, he was a cook in the AAF before training as a pilot, received his silver wings at Marfa, Tex., on March 11, 1944, and went on to Minter field, Bakersfield, Calif. Survivors include his mother; a sister, Mrs. Gerald E. Watson of Salem, and a brother, Sgt. Francis Pavy, stationed in England with the army medical corps.

Hurley Killed On Iwo Jima

PFC Mervyn Lynn Hurley was killed in action March 1 on Iwo Jima, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hurley, 2016 Lee st., have been notified.

A sophomore at Willamette and a member of Sigma Tau fraternity when he enlisted last March, he went overseas in June, 1944, following training at San Diego and was with the Third marines at Iwo Jima.

Survivors, besides his parents, include three sisters, Mrs. Richard Howard, Mrs. W. A. Kleinke and Mrs. H. A. Mazzuchelli, all of Salem; a brother, Sgt. William Hurley, with the army in Egypt, and two nieces, Joan Howard and Shirley Daue.

Receive Purple Heart

Members of the family of Maj. Virgil W. Jackson, assistant 96th division chaplain, have received the purple heart awarded to him for wounds received one-half hour after his landing on Leyte. Major Jackson has not written his family details of his injury and he is reported now back in the service. His family resides at 975 North Fifth st.

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy — Pvt. Herman Weikum of Salem, Ore., a rifleman, recently became a member of the 339th "Polar Bear" regiment, which helped shatter the vitals of the vaunted Gothic line, taking Italian peaks as high as 3400 feet east of Highway 65 and Futa pass.

The 339th infantry regiment is in the 85th "Custer" division, part of the Fifth army.

VETERANS' GUIDE

BY MAJOR THOMAS M. NIAL

WASHINGTON, March 20—(Special)—There's a young man named Ralph — lives in upstate New York — who was with the First Division in the American invasion of Africa. After several months, he got it in one of the scraps in Tunisia. A bursting shell chucked steel into his left arm and then dropped him on his back across a stone wall.

Major Nial

Late in 1944, he was discharged with 50 per cent disability. I saw him in May, 1944, and he'd applied for disability pay. In July he had received nothing. No change in August. September—no disability pay. I don't know whether he has it yet. He will—sometime.

But why couldn't he get those payments sooner? It's because the Veterans' Administration hasn't been sufficiently manned or equipped to handle a task that each day is enlarging like a gas house tank.

Only people who work in bureaus like bureaus. Most everyone else wails about the evils of bureaus. But it seems obvious that new laws must be administered. The GI Bill of Rights, offering many benefits to war veterans, and other laws authorizing rights for veterans, must be administered.

So, to administer the veterans' laws, the Veterans' Administration was created. It's one of those bureaus. It was once called the Veterans' Bureau.

Though large and costly, it isn't evil; but it can make mistakes and cause delays. Probably more extra work is caused by those who think they were disabled in service or by those who don't think so but claim they were, than by the veterans who have clear cases. It's the former kinds of cases that throw monkey wrenches into the creaking machinery of the V. A.

Just a short time back the V. A. was around 100,000 disability claims behind. There were that many pending cases, so it's easy to realize that it is struggling with a tough task. And it's doing okeh, too, for I have just been told that the number of pending claims is reasonably current — that the quantity has been squeezed down almost to normal.

Borderline cases demand much work, care and manpower. And new laws have added an additional burden. So we can afford to be a little kind when there are delays—by patience and understanding and by not beefing too much.

Generally, the V. A. has a good reputation and wants to keep it. So I think you can count on good treatment, since over 34 per cent of its total employes — men and women—are themselves veterans. Among the men alone, well over 60 per cent are veterans. Also some 1500 veterans of the present war are employed by the V. A. And you'll find that 7 per cent of the female employes are ex-Wacs, Waves, Spars or nurses.

Recently, I reported that ex-service men and women can receive certain privileges not given to non-veterans in applying for jobs with the Veterans' Administration. I now have an inquiry as to where to apply. An application blank (Form 57) and information can be obtained at our nearest Civil Service office or at any USES office. Return the completed application to the office where you obtained it.

Lt. Benjamin A. Taylor, as he appeared in the British RAF uniform in which he first served in World war II. Memorial services are to be held Thursday morning in Salem for the young pilot who learned to fly in the Willamette valley and who was serving in this country's air force when he was killed last December.

Memorial Rites Thursday for Benjamin Taylor

Memorial services will be held Thursday morning at 8:15 o'clock from St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church for First Lt. Benjamin A. Taylor, son of James J. Taylor of Vancouver, Wash., and Helen B. Taylor, 1370 Nebraska ave., Salem, who was killed near Ransbury, England, Dec. 22, 1944. Recitation of the Rosary is sheduled for 7:30 o'clock tonight at the church.

The 26-year-old lieutenant had enlisted in the royal air force in the summer of 1941 and in September, 1942, transferred to the AAF. He was killed when his plane crashed on a return trip from France, and he was buried, with full military ceremony, in the American national cemetery at Cambridge on Christmas day.

Survivors, besides his parents, are sisters, Mrs. Robert Burton, Elizabeth Ricks, Ethel Marker and Rosemary Taylor, all of Salem; brothers, John Taylor, Salem, and James Taylor of Bonneville and Charles Taylor of Lebanon.

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy—First Lt. Bob H. Napier, platoon officer whose wife, Margaret, lives at 760 North Summer, Salem, Ore., is a member of the 432nd antiaircraft battalion, whose guns, emplaced close to the Po valley, have been helping keep the German luftwaffe reluctant to visit the Fifth army front in northern Italy.

Many of the more than 750 days that the 432nd has manned its guns have not been so quiet.

The 432nd is normally assigned as a unit of II corps.

The battalion landed at Oran, Northern Algeria, in November, 1942, and fired in protection of airports, seaports, Allied shipping and bases of Flying Fortresses and Lightning fighters. The 432nd frequently fought off droves of Junkers bombers raiding these points.

Raymond Yocom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, has been promoted from sergeant to staff sergeant, according to word received by his parents. The Salem man is expected home on furlough some time this month. Staff Sergeant Yocom is attached to the army air corps as physical training instructor at Gore field, Great Falls, Mont.

LOCAL WOMEN GET THOUSANDS OF EXTRA RED POINTS

Every day, precious red points are being paid to housewives who turn in used fats to their butchers. Because this country is faced with a possible fat shortage, these used kitchen fats are even more urgently needed to make medicines, synthetic rubber, gunpowder, soaps, paints and a hundred other essentials on the battlefield and home front.

Every woman can help towards final Victory by saving every drop of used fats each time she cooks. Even a spoonful is worth salvaging. Won't you keep saving until final Victory over both Germany and Japan?

Stocks Suffer Slump Again, Dip Sharply

NEW YORK, March 20—(AP)—The stock market today suffered another of its worst stumbles in nearly two weeks. Transfers of 920,000 shares compared with 1,070,000 yesterday.

Customers continued to lighten accounts in preparation for reconversion troubles when the nazis collapse. Others stood aside because of the growing belief the highs of early March, peaks since 1937, might stand for the year. Idle money, dividends and earnings propped individual favorites.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .7 of a point at 60.8, widest dip since March 9. Of 943 issues appearing, 696 were down against 247 up or unchanged.

Conspicuous casualties included Atlantic Coast Line, M-K-T Preferred, Reading, Laclede Gas Preferred, Gimbel, Standard Oil (NJ), Texas Co., General Motors, Chrysler, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, International Telephone, Eastern Air Lines, Du Pont and Johns-Manville. Modest gains were retained by Pullman, May Department Stores, American Telephone and J. C. Penney.

Grain Markets Are Unsettled, Trading Light

CHICAGO, March 20—(AP)—Grain markets were unsettled today in relatively light trading, the market breaking sharply when demand was satisfied. Most interest centered in deferred deliveries. July wheat was bid up ¾ of a cent at the start before traders developed selling which carried the price ¾ to 1¼ cent below yesterday's close.

The break brought fair support, but the demand was light with the July contract showing the greatest strength. The September contract was under pressure during most of the day and finished 1¼ cent under yesterday's close.

Corn was firm at the start on scattered buying, but the market eased fractionally on commission house pressure.

At the close wheat was ⅛ to 1¼ lower than yesterday's close, May $1.69½-⅜. Corn was ⅛ to ½ lower, May $1.12¾. Oats were ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, May 65¾. Rye was ⅛ lower to ¾ higher, May $1.14½-¾. Barley was ⅛ to ¼ lower, May $1.10⅛.

Ranch Ramblings

By the Rural Reporter

"Don't fence me in," is not being sung by Stanley Brown in the Dodge community. Brown is having his 20-acre ranch completely fenced and limed this spring and summer.

• • •

Ben Newell, assistant county agent, reports that leaf and cane spot can be controlled successfully through the use of lime sulphur spray applied after the old canes have been cut out and the fruiting canes have been trellised. The recommended strength of sprays is 10 gallons of lime sulphur to 90 of water. Thorough coverage of the canes is necessary for satisfactory control, Newell adds. The fungus disease weakens the vitality of the canes and results in a poor yield.

• • •

Victory gardeners who are using the excuse of "no fertilizer" for not making gardens this spring had better "come out from under", county agents report. The need for victory gardens is stronger than ever, W. G. Nibler, county agent said. The Rambler rambled in seed and garden supply stores in Salem and the surrounding smaller towns and found a fair amount of the garden fertilizer but less than nothing of the nitrogen and phosphate fertilizers needed for pasture and field. Wise farmers had ordered some earlier through the county agents' offices. At Mt. Angel a carload was received during the week and the line of farmers getting the fertilizer which had previously been consigned to them, had nothing in size on the familiar cigaret lines.

• • •

Down at Scio, spring sewing is being put off for gardening. The sewing machine clinic, scheduled by the home demonstration unit for March 23, had been postponed to April 18. The March 23 meeting will be devoted to gardening study and an exchange of vegetable seeds. If Jane has a package of onion seeds and wants only a half package she will have an opportunity to exchange with Mary who will have a package of carrots and plans to use only half of these. The meeting opens at 11.
