

Music for Today

A fifty-voice choir, Arturo Toscanini's NBC orchestra, Yehudi Menuhin, distinguished violinist, Lily Pons, coloratura soprano and Bruno Walter and the New York Philharmonic Symphony, are among attractions to be heard this weekend on the air.

Easter music of course predominates in the programs today.

9:30 (NBC) The Stradivari orchestra includes but one number, Mascagni's "Ave Maria" reminiscent of Easter on its program, but such number as Debussy's "Nana Waltz," Grainger's "Country Gardens," Fritzi's "Giannina Mia" and a waltz by Brahms are to be heard.

11:30 (NBC) John Charles Thomas has selected solos, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," "Green Pastures" by Sanderson and to sing with the chorus, "Sanctus from B Minor Mass" by Bach and "Panis Angelicus" by Franck.

12:00 (CBS) The New York Philharmonic symphony with Bruno Walter, conducting, will feature vocal soloists, Nadine Conner, soprano; Jean Watson, contralto; William Hain, tenor; Mack Harrell, baritone; Francesco Valentini, baritone, Lorenzo Alvary, bass, assisted by the Westminster choir and the junior choir of St. Margaret's church singing the "Passion According to St. Matthew," part I, by Bach.

2:00 (NBC) Arturo Toscanini will direct the NBC orchestra in Gluck's "Orpheus and Eurydice" act III, the finale of the "Passion According to St. Matthew."

2:30 (Blue) The Metropolitan Opera company presents the finale in the auditions.

6:30 (NBC) American Album of Familiar music will feature Frank Munn, Jean Dickenson, Margaret Daum, Evelyn MacGregor and the Buckingham choir with Gustave Haenschen's orchestra in an Easter program including "Eastern Scene" by Mascagni, "Panis Angelicus," "Franck," "Hallelujah" by Handel, "Ave Maria" by Gounod, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today" by Wesley, "Just for Today" by Partridge-Seaver, "Abide With Me" and "Oh Thou Divine Redeemer" by Gounod.

7:00 (NBC) for their Easter offerings the girls on Phil Spitalny's "Hour of Charm" will include "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Largo" by Handel, an aria from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," Massenet's "Angelus," "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte, and "Sweet is the Work" by Pleyel.

On Monday, Yehudi Menuhin will appear as guest violinist on the Firestone hour at 5:30 on NBC. He will play "Meditation" from Thais and "Caprice Venois" the latter by Kreisler and the finale from Mendelssohn's concerto for violin and orchestra in E minor, Howard Barlow will direct the orchestra in several additional numbers.

At 9 o'clock, (NBC), Lily Pons will appear on the Telephone hour program with Donald Voorhees' Bell symphonic orchestra. She will sing "Jockey on the Carousel" by Kerns, with the male chorus and "Dancing Doll" by Poldini-LaForge and Rimsky-Korsakov "Song of India" and "Carnival of Venice" by Benedict as solos. In addition, the orchestra will play traditional number, "Jardin d'amour."

Columbia mid-week programs include "Great Moments in Music" on Wednesday night featuring Natalie Bodanya, soprano, Jan Peerce, tenor and Robert Weede, baritone, with George Sebastian directing the orchestra in "Excerpts from the Merry Widow" by Lehar. This program is scheduled at 7 o'clock.

On Saturday the Philadelphia orchestra will be conducted by Eugene Ormandy in "The Desolate City" by Yardumain and Rachmaninoff's second symphony in E minor, from 2 until 3 o'clock.

The Mutual Don Lee system, heard through KSLM, will include orchestral numbers "Andalusian Flower" by Malzevi, "The Music Box" by Liadov, melodies by Foster, Licia Alban-ese, will sing "Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, and the aria from "Romeo and Juliet" by Gounod as solos and with Francesco Valentini will sing "Yours is My Heart Alone" by Lehar. Valentini will sing as solos, "I Love You" by Grieg and "La Spagnola" by Dichiara.

Varied Program On Wednesday

A varied program of modern, classical and well known orchestral compositions is planned for the public Wednesday night at 8:15 when the Salem high school orchestra is heard in its annual program. Vernon Wiscarson, instrumental supervisor, will direct.

The 65-piece orchestra is characterized by Mr. Wiscarson as "the best orchestra Salem high has produced" offers a program of music from the pen of Offenbach, Moussorgsky, Gliere, Savino, Isaak, Ellington and Ger-shwin.

One of the northwest's outstanding pianists, Henri Arcand will appear as soloist in the "Rhapsody in Blue" and a very new "American" concerto by Savino, the latter in its Pacific coast premiere.

Students taking prominent parts will be Hope Jaquith and Siella Teeson, concertmistress and assistant concertmistress, Richard Barber, clarinetist.

Strings will be featured in a pizzicato novelty, "Marionettes" and the brass section in the "Great Gate of Kiev."

Silvertown Couple Married in East Friends Learn

SILVERTON—Local friends have learned of the marriage of Pvt. Maude Largent Cosho to Major Thomas Roper Houston at Bentonville, Ark., on February 10. Major Houston, who is a veteran of both wars, entering this one in 1940 as a reserve officer, is an engineer. He saw action with the first forces of this war in Africa and was later wounded in Italy.

He is receiving his physical discharge and Mrs. Houston expects to ask for her discharge soon. They will probably make their home in Virginia, she has written local friends. He is a native of Virginia and a graduate of William and Mary college.

Mrs. Houston is a graduate of the Silvertown high school and later from the University of Oregon. Following her university marriage to Harrison Cosho, they made their home in Boise, Idaho. Mr. Cosho was killed in a hunting accident and later Mrs. Cosho, who continued to manage their hotel there and rear the three children, was city treasurer.

With her daughter married to an aviator and her two sons in the armed services, she joined the WACs a year ago. She visited at Silvertown last autumn at the time of her father's, J. L. Largent, death.
