Grand Shows 'Thunderhead-Son of Flicka'

Packed with action, swift as the wind, "Thunderhead-Son of Flicka," 20th Century-Fox's glorious new technicolor hit, based on Mary O'Hara's best-loved best-seller, and featuring Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson with an outstanding cast, is now playing at the Grand theatre.

Thrill-filled with a new, tingling screen excitement, "Thunderhead-Son of Flicka" is being acclaimed everywhere as greater in every way than the successful "My Friend Flicka."

The film is filled with the sweep and power of a boy's dreams and his dogged determination to make a racer out of the wild, white colt Flicka had brought into the world. It is, too, the story of a woman's love and one man's courage.

James Bell, Diana Hale, Carleton Young and Ralph Sanford are also featured in the cast of the film.

Weather Wins At Four Corners

FOUR CORNERS—In spite of the stormy night, an egg roast was enjoyed Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker, on Mohr's avenue. A huge bonfire, and steaming kettles of eggs and coffee were finally conquered by wind and rain, so supper was eaten in the house.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Si Cable, Mr. and Mrs.

"Thunderhead-Son of Flicka," 20th Century-Fox's spectacular technicolor thrill sequel to "My Friend Flicka," now showing at the Grand theatre. Starring Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson, the film based on Mary O'Hara's best-loved best-seller, flames with the excitement of life and the urge to adventure that is the west at its best.

Margaret O'Brien is starred in a story of a little girl's lasting faith, "Music for Millions," with Jose Iturbi, Jimmy Durante and June Allyson, starts today at the Elsinore theatre.

'Music for Millions' With Margaret O'Brien, Durante Opens Today at Elsinore

"Music for Millions," the new M-G-M attraction at the Elsinore theatre, should provide fun and enjoyment for many millions indeed. Produced by the celebrated director-producer combination of Henry Koster and Joseph Pasternak, and starring Margaret ("Lost Angel") O'Brien with Jimmy Durante, Jose Iturbi and June Allyson, "Music for Millions" is a heart-warming comedy with music. It relates how a little girl, played by Margaret O'Brien, comes to the city to stay with her big sister (Miss Allyson) and proceeds to become part-and-parcel not only of the lives of her sister and the latter's fellow (or girl) musicians in Iturbi's symphony orchestra, but of Iturbi himself and Jimmy Durante, the band's business manager.

At about the same time that Margaret discovers that June is going to have a baby, the other girl learns that June's husband has been reported missing in action in the South Pacific. How this is kept from the mother-to-be and the unexpected developments that lead to a most happy ending make for tender and charming cinema fare for the entire family.

Margaret is her usual sensational self, charming, wistful, tearful—whatever the script calls for and 100 per cent on the beam. Durante is, of course, Durante, the inimitable Schnozz at his best. June Allyson plays her first dramatic role in "Music for Millions" and gives a fine performance.

Add to these the comedy antics of Hugh Herbert and Marie Wilson, the harmonica playing of Larry Adler and the serious acting support of Marsha Hunt and Harry Davenport, among others, and you have all the ingredients for a piece of top-notch movie entertainment.

Homer Bales, Mildred and Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. Tate and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Christian, Ruth and Jean, Mrs. O. Cable and daughters, Mrs. Wm. Schlich and Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family.

Abbott-Costello Comedy Heads Capitol's Bill

Abbott and Costello are "Lost in a Harem!"

And, when these clown princes of screen and radio cut loose among the cuties of the harem, there are no gags barred! They're out to set a new high in fun-making, and the stratosphere is the limit in the film, which is now playing at the Capitol theatre.

It is against this colorful background, the most lavish of any Abbott and Costello laughfest, that the No. 1 comedy team of the films returns to the screen after a year's absence, caused by the illness of Costello.

A spectacular musical setting, highlighted by Jimmy Dorsey's band, serves as the ideal stepping stone to stardom for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new pin-up favorite and glamour queen, Marilyn Maxwell.

Opposite her, as Hollywood's newest find among young leading men, is John Conte, famed radio partner of Frank Morgan's air show.

The Europeans who first visited Australia, Polynesia, New Zealand and America found the natives had domesticated dogs.
