

Mid-Willamette Valley News

From The Statesman's Community Correspondents

14 Marion County 4H Clubs Will Demonstrate on Tuesday

Four Marion county 4-H demonstration teams will present demonstrations during the morning session of the Homemakers Spring Festival Tuesday, April 10.

Ten other teams will give demonstrations Tuesday afternoon at the Gas and Coke company auditorium on South Commercial street in Salem. Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, will judge the demonstrations.

The teams scheduled for the festival are from Salem Heights, Liberty, Middle Grove, and Salem advanced club. The demonstrations will be given from 11 to 12 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on Hood st. where the festival is held. These are as follows:

Salem Heights Cooking II club led by Mrs. Edith Bates will present a demonstration on "Preparation of a Waldorf Salad."

"Liberty 'Rip and Sew' Clothing II club led by Mrs. Mary Lucas will present a demonstration.

Middle Grove Health club led by Mrs. Ethel Ramus will demonstrate.

An advanced club team led by Mrs. Carmalite Weddle will demonstrate the proper way to set a table.

Ten demonstration teams scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the gas company are from clubs, as follows:

Auburn "Tidy Cooks" Cookery club led by Mrs. Agnes Stowell.

Labish Center Camp Cookery club led by Mrs. Edith Page.

Auburn "Five Stitches" Clothing II club led by Mrs. Ruby Largent.

Auburn "Needle and Thread" Clothing I and II club led by Mrs. Naomi Steed.

Auburn Sewing I A club led by Mrs. M. E. Rahtz.

Middle Grove Sewing club led by Mrs. Paul Bassett.

Willard Clothing II club led by Mrs. Clara Aasheim, "How to Make a Mitered Corner."

Marion "Sew and Sew" Clothing club led by Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Lake Labish Health club led by Mrs. J. C. Morrell.

Second team from the advanced club in Salem led by Mrs. Carmalite Weddle.

Gates Residents Hear About Power

GATES—Thursday night Harry Rowe, district manager, and J. A. Putnam, extension manager of the Mountain State power lines, explained to 70 of the families of this district about getting power in the community. All families signed up and as soon as approved, they will start installation. Rowe is from Stayton and Putnam from Albany.

Mrs. C. D. Johnson returned home Wednesday from a visit in California.

Mrs. Fred Ratzeburg of Salem is helping her sister, Mrs. Ted Lake, care for Lake who has been ill for a number of years.

Valley Obituaries

A. A. Stee
SILVERTON—Funeral services were held Saturday morning at Eugene for A. A. Stee, who died at the Lutheran Sunset home there Thursday. He was 88 years of age. He and his wife went to the home from here ten years ago. Mrs. Stee died a year ago.

Frances Bevier
MILL CITY—Funeral services were held at the Fairview cemetery Thursday at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Frances Bevier, 75, of Albany. She was the widow of C. A. Bevier, who died Jan. 17. Walter A. Bevier of Mehama is a son.

Valley Calendar

TUESDAY, APRIL 10
Marion County Homemakers Spring Festival, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., VFW hall, Salem. Dr. James Millar, guest speaker.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11
Salem grange, social, H. D. Smithson, 223 N. 15th, 8 p.m.
Silverton Home Extension unit, Eugene Field school, 1:30 p.m.
Hazel Green Sunshine club, Mrs. Albert Ferns.
Turner WCTU
THURSDAY, APRIL 12
Polk County Federated Rural Women's clubs, Oak Grove.
Gates Women's club, schoolhouse, 1 p.m.
Hayesville Farmers Union, 8 p.m. at school.
Brush College Helpers, Mrs. Joseph Singer.
FRIDAY, APRIL 13
East Salem Home Extension unit, home of Mrs. Harold Holler, 1:30, project leaders.
Turner WSCS, Mrs. Robertson.

Births

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. John Kibs are parents of a seven pound, four ounce daughter, Linda Louise, born April 4 at the Armfield maternity hospital, Albany. There is also a boy, David John.

MILL CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Tuers are announcing the birth of their second son, Douglas Frank, March 29 at the local hospital. He weighed six pounds. Mrs. Tuers is the former Mary Fencil.

Valley Briefs

School Budget Group—The Jefferson school board meeting this week are J. T. Jones, Oliver Stephenson and G. A. Robison. They will meet with the school board May 10.

Setting Posts—Men of the Swegle school district are asked to meet Wednesday at the school house after working hours to help set posts. Women of the community will serve dinner after the work is complete. If rain makes Wednesday undesirable the next nice day will be selected.

Teachers Accept Contracts—Ethel Ramus, principal, and Sadie Roth, lower grade teacher, at Middle Grove have accepted contracts for the same position the coming year.

Lumber Destroyed—Several thousand feet of lumber was destroyed in a fire of undetermined origin at the McPherson mill at Lebanon Tuesday night. Twenty men have been employed besides those in the logging department. Damage was estimated at $12,000.

Recovering—Mrs. James Mulkey is recovering at the Silverton hospital from burns received a week ago when the Mulkey home was destroyed by fire.

Dikes Family Has Reunion

GATES—Kenneth Dike, aviation chief radio technician, and Mrs. Dike are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dike and other relatives while on leave. He has been stationed in the Aleutians and will go to Seattle from here. His sister, Mrs. Robert Steele and children of Portland are here too. This is the first time in three years that the family have been together. Mrs. Dike has been living near Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ross have Sidney E. Hayes of Portland as a guest. He is preparing to construct a large chicken house on the old George Ross place.

Glenn Hennessy is logging a number of small tracts of timber. Norris Thomas reports the sale of his piling.

Albert Sturtevant, merchant mariner, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wilson this week. He stayed at their home and attended school one winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Heath have received a letter from their son, Lt. Harold Heath, stationed in the Hawaiian Islands now.

Roberts Residents Discuss Peace Plan And State Opinions

ROBERTS—Dumbarton Oaks proposal is only a framework for a more positive structure of world government for more cooperation among nations and less force, the true basis for peace, the Roberts Farmers Union at an open forum at the meeting Tuesday night, decided.

Sgt. Paul Johnston, attached to Baxter hospital, Spokane, gave a brief sketch of army life in the south Pacific and a more detailed account of the work of rehabilitation of disabled soldiers at the hospital.

Two new members, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Biggood, were given the obligation.

The social hour was sponsored by Mrs. Schubel and Mrs. Evin Daley.

Homemakers Festival Tuesday At VFW Hall on Hood Street

Nineteen groups participating in the home extension program in Marion county will be represented in the second annual Homemakers Spring Festival Tuesday, at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall in Salem.

Registration starts at 11 a.m. and will be in charge of North Howell women. Decoration of the hall and luncheon table, Salem Heights; serving, Central Howell; Associated Country Women of the World display, East Salem.

Home extension projects will be exhibited as follows: Keeping Well With Vitamins; Gates; Sewing Short Cuts, Aurora; Housecleaning Aids, Edina Lane; Sewing Machine Cleaning and Adjusting, Marion; Care of Clothing, Pratum-Maclean; Repair of Inner Spring Cushions; Liberty; Forestalling Delinquency, Union Hill; Food Preservation, Thomas; Control of Pests, West Woodburn.

Workshop exhibits will be as follows: slip covers, Hubbard; better dresses, Roberts, Sidney-Talbot, Silverton, and Silverton Hills.

Other exhibits will be women's land army by Mrs. James H. Turnbull, farm labor assistant; overseas can sealing service from HDA office; victory garden display by Mrs. H. R. Woodburn, war emergency food, assistant; dresses for

Marine Recruiter Will Be Silverton Speaker

SILVERTON—Sgt. David A. Ringland of the U. S. marine corps will show new war pictures Monday at the Rotary luncheon. James Clough is program chairman.

Rusty Cummins, of radio station KSLM, told of his experiences in China with the Flying Tigers and American Air Forces, at the recent Rotary luncheon.

The inner or sensory wall of the eyeball is the retina.

Fashions to make you glad it's Spring

New Arrivals

Every day brings new merchandise to our different departments, and to get the things you are looking for you must come in often. The personnel in each department will be only too glad to show you the new things if you come each day.

Millinery

Beautiful models for social and casual wear. Chinese and Milan models in straw and many other exclusive blocks and materials. You will be pleased to look over the many new things on display that have attracted so many new customers to this outstanding department. Prices range from $5 to $30

FUR STORAGE

As soon as you are through with your fur coat and other furs, bring them in for storage, moth-proofing, and complete repairs or restyling. We offer you the finest service at reasonable prices.

STORE YOUR FURS

Cotton Dresses

While we have a complete line for present showing, we would advise selecting early as we will be limited later in the season. Our lines include Habitmaker, L'Aiglon, American Goller, Tom Boy, and all the better lines of summer cotton wear. Each garment attractively priced.

Coats and Suits

Chester Barrie - Complete line of famous English imports that we have sold successfully for so many years. We are the largest users of this well-known line on the Pacific coast and serve our trade all over the state. We will be pleased to show new customers this proven line. Priced $69.95 to $115

Visit Our Beauty Salon

All kinds of permanent waving. Complete line of cosmetics. Revlon and Chen Yu polishes and lipstick. Most modern methods in the most modern shop in Salem. Phone your appointments in advance so you may be assured of a convenient time. All services at popular prices.

Sports Department

Slack suits, suede jackets, skirts and sweaters. Also playclothes and the beautiful new Catalina Swim Suits. Come in early and make your selections while the line is complete. Popular prices.

Print and Plain Colored Dresses

We are now showing a gorgeous selection of better dresses from our exclusive resources that have supplied for many years, thus enabling us to show a wide selection through these trying times. Come in and visit our ready-to-wear department. Dresses priced $16.95 to $59.95

Lucien LeLong Perfumes

New shipment just arrived direct from Paris and ready for your inspection. Perfume, Cologne, Soap and many other items.

Formals

Graduation and sophisticated dinner dresses - white, black, and pastels. Designed by the foremost fashion houses in New York. Sized from 10 to 44 and popularly priced from $19.50 to $69.50

Jewelry

We are now showing the most exclusive lines of better jewelry - Eisenberg, Adele Simpson, Kaufman Ruderman, and many other well-known lines. Priced from $1.95 to $45.00

DID YOU KNOW?

Many of "are" made of Oregon Wools, manu-our items "are" factured on our looms at Salem, Oregon, and sold "you." in our store for "you."

- 100% Virgin Wool Blankets $11.00 (72x84 size and 4 1/4-lb. wt.)
- 100% Virgin Wool Materials $2.00 up (66 inches wide)
- 100% Virgin Wool Men's Suits $36.50
- 100% Virgin Wool Topcoats $25 & $36
- Men's All Woolen Cruisers $12.95 & $14.95
- Men's All Woolen Jackets $5.95 & $9.95
- 100% Virgin Wool Yarns 20c per ounce

Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co.
260 South 12th Street
Salem, Oregon

PRICES

135 NORTH LIBERTY

Nylon Anklets $1.15

Associated colors. Come and get them while they last. All sizes. Limit of two to a customer at only -

Handbags Just arrived. Wonderful new line of fine bags - Carde' and other materials. Many of them popularly priced at $5.95 and up