Senators, OPA in Hot Battle Over Meat Black Markets

By J. W. Davis

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) declared today that OPA's handling of black markets smells of crookedness and Senator Lucas (D-Ill) said its price policies make no sense to him.

In an angry session of the senate agriculture committee investigating food shortages, the legislators swapped sharp remarks with Thomas I. Emerson, OPA's enforcement chief.

65 Officers Attend FBI School Here

Sixty-five law enforcement officers of Marion and surrounding counties, representing every branch of the service, attended FBI "school" at the Marion county courthouse Tuesday night.

Features of the conference program were discussions of "Law Enforcement Officers' Views of Evidence" by Special Agent Ralph C. Vogel, and of "Moultage and Plaster of Paris Casts" by Special Agent Julius A. Rice.

Among the group attending were Marion County Sheriff Denver Young; Capt. C. G. Zumwalt of the state police; E. G. Charlton, assistant chief of Salem city police; Chief of Police A. M. Amo, Silverton; Col. Elmer V. Wootton, state director of selective service, and Lt. Col. Carlton E. Spencer, also of the state selective service organization.

The conference, one of a series, was arranged by Joseph E. Thornton, special agent in charge of the Portland office of the federal bureau of investigation.

Organized mission status was granted St. Mary's church, Gardiner, and two others near Portland.

Full Parish Status Granted Two Churches

PORTLAND, April 10.—(AP)—Full parish status was assumed today by All Saints church, Portland, and St. Barnabas church, McMinnville, after their requests were granted at the annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon.

Postwar expansion of the church will be financed by a drive to raise $50,000, the clergy voted at a special conference.

Promoted

Charles F. Edwards, for the past eight months has been manager for Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s Salem store, has been promoted to the position of assistant manager of the Sears store in Wenatchee, Wash., where he reported last week. Mrs. Edwards and their two children are remaining in Salem until Edwards can find a residence in Wenatchee and dispose of their South High street house in Salem. Before coming here, Edwards was connected with the Sears store in Klamath Falls. His promotion, says Gene Vandendeynde, Salem manager, is an example of the company's policy of promotion within the company and the Sears executive training program. In Salem, Edwards was an active member of the First Baptist church choir.

Burma Allies Capture Thazi

CALCUTTA, April 10.—(AP)—British 14th army troops mopping up Japanese remnants in central Burma have captured Thazi, an important road junction town 14 miles east of Meiktila, a southeast command communique said today.

Armored units which pushed south of Thazi ran into several Japanese light tanks and knocked out one of them.

Rocket-firing RAF heavy-fighters attacked Japanese bunkers in the Thazi area in close support of the advancing ground troops.

The communique said that an enemy pocket of resistance in the Legyi area, 24 miles south southeast of the Pakokku bridgehead across the Irrawaddy had been cleared.

High School Grandstand Sold to Bonesteel

The grandstand on the high school athletic field, currently used for storage purposes, which is to be replaced when materials and manpower are available, Tuesday night was sold by Salem school directors to Wallace Bonesteel for $1175.

Bonesteel will use salvaged material in erection of an extension for the low factory at his North Pacific highway building.

Preliminary plans for the new grandstand, now in the hands of G. R. Boatwright, Salem engineer, are to be ready for school board inspection shortly, Supt. Frank B. Bennett said.
