

Rotana Head Here Today For Visit

Rozella Fritz, of Montana, national president of Rotana, will arrive in Salem today, and will be entertained by the local club.

A banquet is to be given in her honor tonight at the Golden Pheasant. Mrs. Vada Hill, president of the Salem Rotana club, will introduce the national officer, who will talk on the work and accomplishments of the national women's service organization.

A trip through the valley has been arranged for the visitor this afternoon by members of the club.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Hill that the Rotana club will make the official award of two scholarships in sewing to 4-H club girls at a ceremony to be held at the armory on April 27. Mrs. Dwight Wyatt will make the awards in behalf of the club.

Notification has also been given of the installment ceremony for Mrs. Leroy Mittendorf, new president of Rotana, and her staff at a meeting on May 20. Mrs. Sylvia Riggs of Portland will be installing officer.

Stayton WSCS At Meeting

STAYTON — The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held its monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Schlies Thursday. Mrs. A. C. Stowell was co-hostess.

Mrs. L. H. Wright, president, conducted the meeting, at which it was announced the annual summer school sponsored by the Oregon Conference, WSCS, would be held at Pacific university in Forest Grove August 19 to 24, inclusive.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sellard, who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at an informal party Thursday, April 12, at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nygaard, on Garden Road. The Sellards, who have four daughters and one son, were married in Merced, California. (Jesten-Miller).

Dallas Girl Married on Thursday

DALLAS — The wedding of Miss Linda Ediger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ediger, and Mr. Martin Kroker was read on Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Evangelical Menonite Brethren church in Dallas. Rev. D. T. Schultz officiated before an altar decorated with cherry blossoms, stock, snapdragons and palms.

The bride and groom entered the church together. She wore a white wedding gown made with full skirt and fitted bodice of brocaded satin. The dress was made with low neck and short sleeves and a fingertip veil with lace edge. The veil was held in place by a halo. The bride carried a white Bible with gardenias and bouvardia.

Miss Martha Fischer of Salem, wearing blue taffeta and carrying a nosegay, was maid of honor. Best man was Mr. Herman Ediger. Ushers were Frank Ediger and Peter Kroker.

Mrs. Ediger, mother of the bride, was gowned in black, with a corsage of sweet peas. Mrs. John Ediger played the wedding march and Mrs. John Schmidt, jr., of Salem, played the accompaniments for a quartet and the soloists. Singers were John, Sol and Henry Ediger, John Schmidt, jr., and Mrs. Leonard Harms of Salem.

Candlelighters were Rozella and Linda Dalke. A reception for 350 guests was held in the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Tom Dalke of Salem cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Sol Ediger. Mrs. Henry Ediger and Mrs. Peter Ediger were in charge of the gifts. The bridal couple, the family and close friends were seated at a long table decorated with pink and white. A musical program was given during the reception, a feature of which was the song composed and sung by the bride's father.

Serving at the reception were the Misses Irene Dalke, Dorothy and Mabel Zimmerman, Anne Schultz, Anne Funk of Salem, Lucille Ediger of Bakersfield, Calif., Marian Ediger and Dorothy Kroker.

For going away the bride wore a teal blue suit with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The couple will live in Dallas following a wedding trip. Mr. Kroker is employed at the Salem box factory and the bride was formerly employed in Portland.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Ediger and children and Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Elrich and children, all of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ediger and son, of Bolton, Mont., and other guests from Portland and Salem.

Women Hear Several Talks

Several speakers were listed for the meeting of the Salem council of women's organizations when it met on Thursday afternoon. William McKinney talked on the victory garden classes being held at the YMCA and announced that the community canner will be open early this year for canning asparagus.

Mrs. Esther Little, general secretary of the YWCA, discussed world wide activities of the organization, calling special attention to work done in occupied countries.

The United Nations clothing drive was the subject of a talk by Chris Seeley of the Kiwanis club, stating that only 40,000 pounds of the city's 175,000 quota has been collected. He emphasized the necessity for citizens to continue to bring clothing so that the quota can be met.

Dr. Vern Bain of the state department of education told of the program of education for handicapped children being followed.

Mrs. Verne Ostrander spoke on the federated patriotic societies' banquet, and Mrs. Charles McCullah invited the women to the Town Meeting on Sunday at Waller hall.

Mrs. Albert J. Walker presided at the meeting and appointed Mrs. David Wright as chairman of the nominating committee and Mrs. Gertrude Lobdell and Mrs. Esther Little on the committee. May 17 was announced as the last meeting of the year for the council.

'Oskee' Will Be At Y Tonight

The regular "Oskee" will be held tonight at the YMCA. The theme will be "April Showers." Special guests will be the ninth grade students of Leslie and Parrish junior high schools.

The affair will be held from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. Swimming, dancing and ping pong will be the entertainment. A canteen will be opened so refreshments may be purchased. Patrons and patronesses will be furnished by the Rotary club.
