

Beavers Sweep Doubleheader, Hold to Lead

Mooty, Helsner Team To Trip Up Twinks

PORTLAND, Ore., April 20—(AP) The hard-working Portland Beavers took a double-header from the Hollywood Stars tonight, 1-0 and 7-6, to stay tied with Seattle for the lead in Pacific Coast league baseball.

Both were tight games. The first was a pitchers' battle, with Jake Mooty netting his first victory of the season for the Beavers. Roy Helsner hurled for Portland in the second game, in 11 innings after Portland tied it in the last half of the ninth.

In the first game, a seven-inning contest, Joe Mishasek occupied the mound for Hollywood.

Portland won the second thriller when Johnny Intalhofer, tiring fast, walked Ted Gullic with two out and the bases full. This game saw the Hollies hit Helsner for two runs in the first, second and fifth innings, running up six scores before Portland tallied.

In Portland's half of the fifth a five-hit rally, coupled with an error by Shortstop Hugh Williamson, accounted for five Beaver runs. The Beavers pushed over one tally in the ninth on another Williamson error—a wild throw with two out and a runner on second—to tie it up.

In the 11th Helsner, who gave only two hits after the fifth and fanned eight, led off with a double. Barton was purposely walked and with two away English also walked, filling the bases.

Rainiers Top Acorns Twice

SEATTLE, April 20—(AP) The Seattle Rainiers carved out two narrow victories over Oakland's Acorns tonight, 3 to 2 and 2 to 0, to even their Pacific Coast league baseball series at two games each and cling to the top rung in the league ladder.

Carl Fischer hurled the 7-inning opening win for the Rainiers and then Lefty Glenn Elliott won his fifth game of the season with the 9-inning shutout nightcap. The

Carroll Hurls Three-Hitter, Vik Nine Noses Eugene, 2-1

EUGENE, April 20—(Special)—Salem high's green pea Viking baseballers too opened their No-Name league excursion and did something today no other SHS athletic team has been able to do in the past four years in dual competition with Eugene teams—beat the Axemen—by nosing out the Purple, 2-1, in a very well played battle here. Newly returned to No-Name league baseball action after an absence of three years, the Viks' surprise win over Coach Duane Mellem's Axemen gave the Gurnee Flesher gang a running start toward a possible championship titanic.

It was Rightlander Joe "Cowboy" Carroll, ace of the SHS mound corps, and wee Outfielder Bud McKinney who proved the heroes of the victory. Carroll and his assortment of curves went the distance and cut off the Axemen attack at three singles. Pint-sized McKinney, not too sharp with the hit baton in earlier games, stepped up in the clutch in the second frame and drove in both Salem runs with a long single to right field.

The two tallies were all Carroll got, although the Viks did bang out seven hits of Eugene Ace Harold Walker, a fastballer. Don Farnum started off the inning by getting a life when Bill Fulps dropped his high pop-up. Jack Malmn singled sharply to center and Dick Allison walked to load the bases. The rally coiled momentarily when Carroll lofted an automatic-out infield fly, same turning out to be a double play ball when Farnum tried to score after the pop-up had dropped safely. Malmn and Allison moved up on the play and McKinney promptly delivered his shot.

The Vikings threatened in almost every inning and only in two did they fail to get at least one man on. Walker managed to escape the troubles in all but that second frame, however, and fanned 10 SHS'ers en route while walking one.

Meanwhile Carroll sailed along in fine shape. He gave a single to Floyd Greene in the second and another Jim Ekstrom in the fifth, the latter driving in Bill Hutchinson with the only Eugene run. Hutchinson was been safe after forcing Duane Snyder at second, and then swiped second himself. Carroll whiffed nine and, slightly wild, walked six. His support was next to flawless, however. Each side made but one error. Hutchinson singled in the final frame, stole second but died there as Carroll got Ekstrom on a fly and fanned Willie McCullough.

Scoring Error Reveals Woodburn Track Victor

WOODBURN—A scoring error during and after the recent Woodburn-Mollala track meet at Mollala revealed yesterday that it was Coach Jiggs Burnett's Bulldogs who won the meet—not Mollala. Coach Mike Deller of Mollala discovered the error and announced it. Woodburn scored 85 points, Mollala 57. It was previously announced as just the opposite.

Willamette Baseballers List Experience, Seek Competition

Willamette university's naval trainee stocked baseball team has the experience within its ranks, all right—now if it only had somebody to play against. Shippered by Chief Duke Trotter, who does most of the Navy's athletic coaching along with his chores as naval chief stationed at the school, the team boasts 20 players, most of whom can tell of having played at least considerable high school or American Legion Junior baseball not too long ago. A few have a year or two of semipro ball under their flannels also.

The club would like nothing better than a full schedule of weekend games (other than on restricted Sundays), but appears to be doomed to settling for the annual series with the State Penitentiary Greys and a few bookings with possibly the Camp Adair Hospital and Klamath Falls Marines teams. The annual doubleheader with Whitman may be scheduled also. Athletic Director Les Sparks is on the prowl for more competition.

The "first" nine at WU stacks up as follows: Shortstop—Bob Tule, the wee basketballer from Portland who has played three years' high school ball, four years' American Legion and one semipro; left field—Don Roehon, the grid halfback from Bellingham and Portland U who played four years prep, three American Legion, on Portland U and one semipro; second base—Gibb Zauf, the basketballer from Wisconsin who played last year for WU; center field—Floyd Simmons, the big fullback from Portland who played last year at WU also; pitcher—Marv Godmano, the football—basketball man who right-handed 'em in 1944 for WU; third base—Frank Schumacker from Portland, four years' prep and one year semipro ball behind him; first base—Chuck Larkin, Wisconsin southpaw who played last season; catcher—Jack Jensen, Tigard basketballer who played four years baseball in high school; right field—R. D. Olson of Michigan, a former Legion player for three years.

The balance of the squad includes hurlers Jim Lake of Springfield and Jim Conway of Portland, Catcher D. E. Ditty of Eureka, Calif., Infielders Jimmy Purefull of Arbuckle, Calif., J. D. Thompson of Tacoma, C. W. McDermott of Camas and Don Dickerhoff of St. Louis, Mo., and Outfielders Bob Finney of Los Angeles, Johnny Hampton of Tacoma and Howard Edson of Glendale, Ore.

New Coaches Stud Rosters In Grid Camps

23 New Skippers In Major Roles

By Harold Claassen

NEW YORK, April 20—(AP)—Spring football practice now is at its peak on most campuses with players getting acquainted with new coaches following one of the largest, non-military turn-overs among the mentors in recent years.

There were only two military changes among the 23 involving major schools since the close of the 1944 season—Bernie Bierman returning to Minnesota and Tuss McLaughry to Dartmouth after each had been placed on inactive status by the marine corps.

Notre Dame, usually in the limelight in anything pertaining to football, also set the pace in the off-season moving.

Two Irish alumni, Buck Shaw and Creighton Miller, also are getting their mail at new addresses. Shaw, formerly at Santa Clara, replaced Stull Allison at California, and Miller is Howie Odell's chief assistant at Yale.

Two of the southeast conference's veterans, Bill Alexander of Georgia Tech and Ab Kirwan of Kentucky, resigned their posts. Alexander remains as the Engineers' director of athletics with Bobby Dodd the football chief. Kirwan quit to accept a post as history professor at Kentucky. Bernie Shively will tutor the grid Wildcats.

Vanderbilt, Princeton and Detroit all return to the gridiron in 1945 with Bobby Bartling handling the Commodores, Charles Caldwell moving over from Williams to direct the Tigers, and Charles Baer, Illinois assistant the past three years, going to Detroit.

Carroll Widdoes, winner of the coach of the year award at Ohio State last season, saw the word "acting" erased from his title when Lt. Paul Brown signed with the pros.

John McMillan replaces Williams (Doc) Newton at South Carolina and Bert LaBrucherie left the Los Angeles high school ranks to become the UCLA mentor after Babe Horrell resigned.

Canby Outscores Woodburn, 5 to 3

WOODBURN—Getting six-hit pitching from their ace Rollie Ott, the Canby Cougars Friday turned back the Woodburn Bulldogs, 5-3, in a Duration league baseball game. Ott fanned 14 and Charley Sauvain 12. Canby put the game away with three runs in the eighth and ninth innings and banged out 11 hits in all.

All-Amerk Committee To Talk With Layden

CHICAGO, April 20—(AP)—The All-America football conference today appointed a two-man committee to confer with Commissioner Elmer Layden of the National Professional Football league to "let them know our conference wants to play ball."

The committee is composed of Lt. (jg) Paul Brown, recently appointed coach of the Cleveland entry of the All-American conference, and John L. Keeshin, trucking magnate who holds the Chicago franchise.

Christy Walsh, representative of the Los Angeles entry in the conference, said the committee had no proposals to make to Layden, but sought to learn what the long-established National league would "like from us as a guarantee of good will" to avoid friction in obtaining players from colleges.

The All-America which has issued franchises in New York, Cleveland, Buffalo, Miami, San Francisco and Los Angeles currently is considering applications from an eighth franchise.
