

Carroll Twirls Second 3-Hitter Corvallis Blanked; Viks Lead League

Getting another sparkling pitching performance from their ace right-hander Joe "Cowboy" Carroll—this one identical with the three-hitter he hurled in beating the Eugene Axemen last week—Salem's green-pinstriped Vikings vaulted into undisputed leadership of the No-Name baseball league yesterday by polishing off the Corvallis Spartans, 3-0, at Waters park. The loss was the Spartans' first.

In the other league game yesterday, Eugene trounced pre-season favored Albany, 7-1, at Albany. Carroll was in fine form in the well-played clash, walking only one and whiffing nine with his swift and sharp curves. His opponent, soft-tossing Dick Groshong, also passed only one and fanned 10. His assortment of tantalizing curves had the Viks swinging off balance most of the game.

The Vikings jumped on Groshong early and then settled back while Carroll took over. In the first inning after the Salem junior had retired the Corvallis side on strikes, Dick Hendrie lined a single to left with one out. But Craig fanned but Roger Dasch walked. Johnny Dalke then popped a wind-blown bloop which dropped behind Shortstop Ed Hunter and Hendrie scored.

All scoring was wound up in the second frame and Carroll himself took a big hand in it. Jack Malmin went down swinging to start it off, but Dick Allison was safe when his loft to center was dropped by Ed Mason. The only Corvallis bobbler of the game, incidentally, then Carroll walloped a line triple to deep right-center, counting Allison, and came in himself when Bud McKinney skied to center.

Carroll gave up his first hit in the third, another wind-bloom bloop which fell in front of Malmin. Groshong and Hal Wehmeier picked up scratch hits in the fifth for the other Corvallis pair, but Carroll whiffed Keith Shinn to escape trouble.

Carroll's only walk came in the final frame to leadoff hitter Sprick, and the pass nearly resulted in a Spartan rally. Sprick immediately swiped second and rambled on to third when Allison's throw bounded into center field. That was the only Salem error of the game. With the enemy on third and no outs, however, Carroll fanned Jim Fox, made a lunging catch of Groshong's bat-end bloop and finished up by striking out huge Catcher Bob Keane.

Groshong didn't do badly himself after his first two frames and outside an infield hit by Johnny Dalke in the third, pitched airtight baseball to the end. Almost unbelievable for kids' baseball, not a wild pitch or passed ball was made in the game.

Salem's next league outing comes next Friday when the Eugene Fleisher flock goes to Albany. PORTLAND, April 27 (Special)—Running afoul a pre-state meet favored Grand high track and field flock which was in a galloping mood in all departments here today, Salem high's track team finished up fourth in a meet with the Generals, Washington and Benson highs.

Salem managed only one first in the outing, that by Bob Weber in his pet event, the broad jump. He hopped 20 feet, 8 1/2 inches. Other Viks who generally finish in front had to be content with seconds and thirds. Benny Lamberg was nosed out in the 800 by Washington's Keller. Weber lost by a whisker to Grant's Wash in the century, and in the super time of 1:01, and Lyle Williams, back in his vaulting harness after an injury lost to Bob Hickok of Grant in that event. Hickok went 11-6, Williams 11 even.

No discus or javelin events were held, further blows to Coach Tommy Drynan's gang in that it is strong in both events. Times and distances in the meet were on the exceptional side in almost every event, further stamping Grant as THE track team in the state prep picture. The summary, and note the marks made:

2000 Enjoy Action-Packed Navy 'Happy Hour' at Willamette

If that's the way they do it aboard ship while at sea, one needn't worry about Uncle Sam's salty seamen entertaining themselves quite sufficiently. Meaning that Willamette university's second annual trainee "Happy Hour" program last night at the gymnasium was even more of a rip-roaring success than was last year's inaugural. Over 2000 who watched and enjoyed the boxing, wrestling, tumbling, acrobatics and comedy will attest to such success today.

And the future admirals who gave off with the three-hour long action drifter were rewarded handsomely by the throng for their efforts. The appreciative crowd played pitch-in-the-ring and drop-it-in-thehat to the extent that probably all participants will now enjoy a banquet as well as new athletic equipment "on" the in-for-free customer. No tally was available on the donations, but all were appreciated.

Produced by trainees Milt Carl, Jack Schoppert, Tom Stern and Walt Skronald with the assistance of Chiefs Bob McGuire and Duke Trotter and Athletic Director Les Sparks, the program carried everything from bright musical numbers by Dick Mallett and Brad Young to a rowdydowdy mud rassin' match between A/S Bannecker and Len, accent on the mad and hilarity. Wrestling, boxing, fencing, tumbling and trampoline exhibitions and unarmed defense tactics were woven in effectively. The tumbling and trampoline performances by Bill Kendall, Frank Bennett, John Bacon, Floyd Johnson, Bob Pickett, Bruce McKay, Stan Buch and Bud Davis as well as the unarmed defense offerings of Dick Byfield and Matt Gruber were outstanding.

Harry Levy, Gene Vandenberg, Harry Collins, W. Buch and Packy McFarland were "outside" officials, while insiders included Skronald, Jack Schoppert, Stan Buch, Mallett, Frank Peterson, Chuck Strong, Loren Jacobson, Lorn Thompson, Dave Allen, Joe Sanford, and Bob Tate. The wrestling and boxing bouts ended as follows:
