Last season six district 3 teams finished up regular seasons on the undefeated list and protests were posted when the OHSAA had no alternative other than to handpick a district representative. Gresham was selected and proved to be a for a swelegant program for capable choice when her Gophers wards of 200 of our village k were defeated only 6-0 by state Police protection will be provid title winning Medford.

The new district arrangement is in no way permanent, declares Pigott. It is merely the first step by the board to relieve a bad situation in the district due to the large number of eligible schools within its boundaries. Pigott added that the football planning committee is still hard at work with efforts to arrange a setup agreeable to all.
