More Traffic Noted in 1944

The average daily volume of traffic on Oregon highways was slightly higher in 1944 than in 1943, Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell, jr., announced here Saturday. He said the traffic volume for the first few months of 1945 was slightly higher than in 1944. The average volume in 1944 ranged from 3300 vehicles in January to a high of 5593 in July. For the first quarter of 1945, the average daily volume showed an increase of nearly 13 per cent over the same period of 1944.
