The Girls in the Pictures

Highlighting the Willamette university social activities this weekend was the Panhellenic dance Saturday night at the Elks Temple. Pictured on this page are the four house presidents, who are members of Panhellenic, and representatives from the houses who were on the dance directorate.

Heading the four women's houses on the campus for the coming year are Dorothy Kenney, Alpha Chi Omega; Patricia Waters, Chi Omega; Miriam Day, Delta Phi; and Mary East, Pi Beta Phi. Committee members planning the dance included Mary Parker, Thyra Jean Currey, Alpha Chi Omega; Barbara Korell, Pat Weinstein, Chi Omega; Nancy Hoak, Pat Ann Sly, Delta Phi; and Carolyn Brady, Charlotte Turville, Pi Beta Phi.

"Southern Plantation" was the theme of the second annual spring Panhellenic dance. A Portland orchestra played for the affair. The walls were decorated with silhouettes of old fashioned ladies and gentlemen in dress of the old south. White columns were at the doors and trees with crepe paper flowers were arranged about the hall. In front of the stage was a black and white mural of a plantation scene. The programs, designed by Betty Dutton, were dark blue with a silver silhouette of an old fashioned boy and girl against a silver crescent moon. The false ceiling was of black and white crepe paper streamers.

Patrons and partonesses were Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean and Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze, Dr. and Mrs. R. Ivan Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs and Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand. (Statesman photos)

They're Home Again

Mrs. George H. Swift returned this weekend from North Hollywood, Calif., where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Seth Payson Smith, and son, Michael, for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. O'Neill arrived in the capital this week from a trip east and south. Mrs. O'Neill went east two months ago to visit her daughter, Sergeant Marjorie Sawyer, United States Women's Marine corps, who is stationed in Arlington, Virginia. Mrs. O'Neill and her daughter also visited in New York City. In California Mrs. O'Neill was joined by her husband. In Palo Alto they visited her other two daughters and families, Mrs. Allan Earle and son, Michael, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saber and daughter, Miriam.

Leaving for the East

The goings and comings of travellers are a highlight of interest in social news these late spring days. Mrs. Richard L. Russell and daughter, Nancy Jo, left Saturday for East Brady, Pennsylvania where they will make their home with Mr. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Russell. Mr. Russell, an aviation radioman third class, is with the naval air corps. Mrs. Nelson Russell arrived in Salem several weeks ago to visit her daughter-in-law and is accompanying her east to her home.

Mrs. Olive Ferguson, mother of Mrs. Richard Russell, also left for the east with the travellers. She will accompany them as far as Des Moines, Iowa, where she will make an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. M. H. Shafier.

Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. R. C. Hunter entertained informally at luncheon Thursday afternoon at their South Liberty street home in compliment to Mrs. Richard L. Russell and daughter, Mrs. Nelson Russell and Mrs. Olive Ferguson.

Mrs. Virgil Pade and son, Virgil Dean, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Lacy, are entraining today for Leola, South Dakota to visit members of Mr. Pade's family. The travellers expect to be away several weeks.

Eastward Bound

Mrs. A. M. Chapman has left for Creeds, Virginia, where she will spend the summer months with her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. (ig) and Mrs. Edward Franz, and their son, Robert Charles. Lt. and Mrs. Franz have been making their home in California.

Mrs. Philo Hail (Mary Virginia Nohlgren) and son, David, are leaving Friday after an extended visit in the capital with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nohlgren. Mrs. Hail and her son will go directly to Brookings, South Dakota where they will be joined by Mr. Hail. They will visit his folks there for several weeks, before returning to their home in Rockford, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills left the past week for Reno where they will vacation for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Mills go to Reno each year on their vacation and are registered at the Riverside hotel.

Recital on Tuesday

A delightful musical event calendared for this week will be the song recital by Josephine Albert Spaulding, well known mezzo-soprano, Tuesday night at the Roberts studio on North Summer street at 8:30 o'clock. Invitations were in the mail this past week to the affair.

Assisting Mrs. Spaulding will be Mary Taimadge Hedrick, violinist, and Mr. Bennett Ludden, pianist. Mrs. Spaulding's program will include Robert Schumann's well known song cycle, "Frauen Liebe und Leben." She will also sing two Brahms' songs with viola accompaniment and a French and English group.

A reception will follow the recital. Assisting informally will be Mrs. Maurice Brennan, Mrs. Urlin S. Page, Mrs. Aseel Eoff, Mrs. Melvin Geist and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Shower for Miss Adams

Miss Lorraine Taylor has invited guests to a bridal party Monday night at the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Vernon, on the Dallas road in compliment to Miss Phyllis Adams, whose marriage to Lt. Vernon Bankhurst will be an event of May 27.

A bridal shower will honor the bride-to-be. A late supper will be served by the hostess, who will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Austin C. Taylor. Bouquets of pastel spring flowers will provide the decorative note about the rooms.

Honoring Miss Adams will be Mrs. Earl J. Adams, Mrs. Gene Sheldon, Mrs. Gerard Brown, Mrs. William Melville, Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mrs. Helen Busch, Mrs. Wendell Emmett, Mrs. Madeline Bier, Mrs. Glenn Moody, Mrs. Donald Moser, Mrs. Walter McCune, Mrs. Charles E.
