

Seen and Heard . . .

By Jeryme English

GOING SEPARATE WAYS soon will be Nancy Stricklin and Susanna Schramm, who have been taking preliminary training in occupational therapy at Mills college the past four months . . . They graduate on May 26 and will be home a short while before leaving for new assignments . . . Nancy will go to Baxter General hospital at Spokane and Susanna to Brooks General hospital, Fort Sam Houston, Texas . . . At the army hospitals the girls will continue occupational therapy training for eight months . . . Susanna expects to come directly home for a week while Nancy will visit a few days in Carmel before coming north . . . The girls graduated from Willamette last June and are Pi Beta Phi . . .

TAPPED for Orchestria, national modern dance honor society, was Carol Young of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell Young . . . A senior on the Oregon State college campus and a member of Gamma Phi Beta she received the honor on Mother's weekend . . . Election to the society is based on artistry, dance composition and presentation.

OPEN HOUSE . . . annual event of the Home Economics club of Salem high school was held Wednesday at Hi-Home with several hundred attending . . . A purple and white color scheme in the decorations . . . Purple iris floating in crystal bowls . . . the serving table centered with a large cake of ice from which the green sherbet was served . . . garlands of snowballs and iris arranged on the white cloth . . . serving the ices during the afternoon were Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Frank Neer, Miss Mabel Robertson and Mrs. A. F. Marcus . . .

In spite of the shortage of materials this year high school girls seem to have found cottons, rayons and woolens to make attractive dresses, suits and coats . . . One senior, to be married soon, has made her complete trousseau, which was on display . . . The three Home Ec teachers, Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. Bjarne Erickson and Mrs. Charles Felke, wearing pretty spring prints and corsages of gardenias and Cecile Brunner roses . . . The newly elected honor girls proudly wearing their yellow and blue ribbons, the Home Economics club colors . . . During the afternoon Mrs. T. W. Creech, club advisor until this winter when she took a leave of absence, came to see what her former pupils have been doing . . . and we must add that the cookies the food classes made were delicious . . . most of the recipes took very little sugar and shortening, which is something to take note of these days.

FASHION TIDBITS . . . Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff, prominent club woman and regent of Chemekeeta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was smartly dressed in purple when she presided at the luncheon for the president general, Mrs. Julius Talmadge . . . Mrs. Ratcliff's dress was a purple and white silk print over which she wore a purple coat with tuxedo of black Persian lamb . . . a pert hat of purple straw enhanced with flowers.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller seen at a benefit wearing a stunning sky blue suit with mink fur and brown hat an accessories . . . Mrs. Robert E. Shinn in a lovely sky blue costume suit fashioned with short Eton jacket with three quarter length sleeves . . . A white sheer blouse trimmed in ruffling which was edged in blue . . . the ruffling extending below the sleeves of the jacket . . . With her outfit she wears a blush pink straw hat with pink flowers in front . . .

Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Robert Hamilton seen together while he was recently home on leave . . . Marjorie wearing a smart suit of Brazilian brown, navy blue felt cloche and navy accessories . . .

her outfit is a pretty chartreuse sharkskin dress with which she wears a wide brimmed chartreuse horsehair hat with pink streamer, pink sandals and pink gloves.

PORTLAND BOUND this week-end will be Mrs. William Earl Snell and her month old twins, William Earl and Danalee, who have been here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., the past three weeks . . . They will remain in Portland until Mr. Snell, navy medical reserve, receives his degree from the University of Oregon Medical school the end of June.

WELCOME HOME . . . Mrs. Warren Hunter (Patricia Tracy) seen lunching with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Tracy recently returned from the east coast where she has been with her navy ensign husband since their marriage in March . . . They were in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Norfolk before he left for active duty . . . Pat looked smart in a black and white check suit, fuchsia top coat and pert black hat trimmed in fuchsia.

Miss Violet Mary Heisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Heisler of Garvais, whose wedding to Mr. Clarence Schaffers will be an event of June 13 at the St. Louis church. The bride-elect is employed at the secretary of state's office.

Nicaraguan Talks to Women

Interesting facts about his native country, Nicaragua, and other central American countries were told members of the American Association of University Women at the final meeting of the year on Saturday, by Senior Rolando Porras, here with the state highway department.

The speaker discussed the differences in opportunities for women in his own country and the United States. He discussed briefly the educational system, which includes compulsory elementary schooling, and also co-education. Women are allowed university education, and many are successful in the professions, but they are not allowed to vote, he said.

Mrs. John Burcham was elected president of the Salem branch to succeed Mrs. Egbert Oliver, and her cabinet will include Mrs. Frank Burlingham, vice-president; Mrs. Elise Schroeder, secretary; Mrs. Marjorie Whitely, treasurer, and school loan fund chairman, Mrs. Ralph Dobbs. Mrs. Burcham also serves as state vice-president of AAUW.

Miss Stupfel To Marry In Texas

Miss Carole Stupfel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stupfel, and her sister, Miss Irene Stupfel, have left for the east and Texas where the former will be married on June 3 to Sgt. Harold Fullwood, son of Mrs. Maude Fullwood of Orlando, California. The girls are visiting with relatives and friends in Chicago and Wisconsin. They expect to arrive in Gainesville, Texas the end of the month.

Miss Stupfel and Sgt. Fullwood will be married at the army chapel at Camp Howze, where he is stationed. After their marriage they will reside in Gainesville. Miss Irene Stupfel will be her sister's only attendant. She will return home by way of Los Angeles.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and has been employed at the secretary of state's office here for several years. Her fiancé attended schools in California. He was with the 41st division in the South Pacific for 34 months, returning to the states last winter.

Canning to Be Shown Tuesday

The home demonstration agent's office will sponsor the demonstration of Vivian Freeman, representative of the Kerr jar company, on Tuesday at the Portland Gas and Coke company's downstairs auditorium. The demonstration of canned foods will begin at 1:30 and is free to the interested public.

Mrs. Freeman will devote much of her time to the preparation of canned vegetables in the pressure cooker, the only method approved by canning experts.

While few fruits are on the market for canning just now, women will find Mrs. Freeman's discussions of fruit canning profitable. She will answer questions from individual listeners.

Various methods of canning vegetables in the pressure cooker, hot pack and cold pack, will be discussed and demonstrated. Fish and meat canning will come under discussion also.

Special
$10.00
Crema Oil
Permanent $7.50

Irene's Beauty Salon
341 State Phone 5654

Reports were made by the treasurer, and by several committee chairmen.

Seniors at Willamette university, special guests, were introduced by the president, and Dr. Helen Pearce gave a history of the organization for their benefit.

Mrs. Virgil Golden and Mrs. Norman Freese poured at the tea hour.

Bible Class Meets With Mrs. Hughes at Her Falls City Home

FALLS CITY—The Bible class of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Fred Hughes Wednesday. Guests of the class were Mrs. Laura Horn and Mrs. Palmer. Mrs. Frances Spearina, Mrs. Richard Paul, Mrs. Laura Horn, Mr. and Mrs. John Calavan and John Letterman attended the meeting in Dallas Wednesday evening to hear the returned missionary E. R. Moon speak of Jamaica. Moon spent fifteen years in Africa as a missionary. The past five years he has been at Jamaica. Retired now, he is doing work on the home field.

VICTORY IS NEVER CHEAP

in Lives or Money!

They're giving their all... back them up with YOUR dollars!

As the battle lines approach the heart of the enemy's homeland, the fighting grows fiercer... and more costly in men, material and money. That's one reason why every red-blooded American must back this mighty 7th War Loan with every dollar he can lay hands on. Another reason is that this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to invest in two war loans, so against one this time.

No need to tell you that War Bonds are the safest and best investment in the world. So pour out your might, Americans, in the 7th War Loan. Let's show our valiant Fighting Men that we're backing them to the limit of our means... 100%.

BUY NOW! BUY MORE! MORE! MORE!

War Bond Gift on Display in Our Liberty Street Window

GOOD EYESIGHT is a
PRICELESS POSSESSION

There is no substitute for good eyesight. It is the keystone of your success and your enjoyment of life. Don't "take chances" with anything so precious. At the slightest suspicion of trouble . . .

HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED

Dr. Harry A. Brown
Optometrist
184 N. Liberty St.

It's white shoe time!

COME SEE OUR LOVELY NEW STYLES

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to love . . . a woman's fancy turns to white shoes. Montgomery Ward is ready with an exciting array of the season's newest styles. Here are plenty of young shoes to team with your gay spring casuals, your frilliest summer frocks. Come, get yours today!

Cut-Away Sandal 4.49
A real foot-flatterer! The open thumb and cut away strap make your foot look extra tiny. Side buckle for snug fit.

Potholes Pump 4.49
A smart footnote for summer! The simple, graceful lines of this trim pump are gaily spiced up with cool perforations.

Potholes Slipper 4.49
A gay little slipper with other casual dainties or summer shoes. Scalloped edging gives it a new look.

New Spottator 4.49
Season's smart kid! The wide crown, tape the polished, brown leather and back with new fringe effect.

A good PLACE TO BUY good SHOES

Montgomery Ward